Ern Malley Affair:

The Ern Malley Affair Michael Heyward, 1993-01      The Ern Malley Affair Margaret Marshall, 1943      The Devil and James McAuley Cassandra Pybus, 1999 Follows McAuley's life from his student days at Sydney Uni through the war years his conversion to Catholicism his anticommunist activities during the Cold War period and his editorship of Quadrant with revelations about CIA funding and involvement with ASIO A controversial new political biography      Who's Who? Maggie Nolan, Carrie Dawson, 2004 Brings together for the first time essays that consider a range of high profile cases of literary hoaxing identity crisis or imposture in Australian literature Critics explore the history of hoaxing and imposture and consider the cultural and political issues at stake Nolan at Australian Catholic University      Ern Malley, 2003 Website for the Ern Malley affair a 1940s literary hoax which includes the Ern Malley poems Max Harris poetry biographical information about Max Harris the non-existent Ern Malley and the hoaxers James McAuley and Harold Stewart      The Ern Malley Affair Emma Kidd, 2008      Cultures of Forgery Judith Ryan, Alfred Thomas, 2013-05-13 In Cultures of Forgery leading literary studies and cultural studies scholars examine the double meaning of the word forge to create or to form on the one hand and to make falsely on the other      The Poetic Eye: Occasional Writings 1982-2012 Michael Sharkey, 2016-11-07 This volume contains a selection of the Australian poet Michael Sharkey's uncollected essays and occasional writings on poetics and poets chiefly Australian and New Zealand Reviews and conversations with other poets highlight Sharkey's concern with preserving and interrogating cultural memory and his engagement with the practice and championing of poetry Poets discussed range from Lord Byron to colonial era and early twentieth century poets Francis Adams David McKee Wright and Zora Cross under represented Australian women poets of World War I traditionalists and experimentalists including several New Australian Poetry activists of the 1970s and contemporary Australian and New Zealand poets Writings on poetics address form and tradition the teaching and reception of poetry and canon formation The collection is culled from commissioned and occasional contributions to anthologies of practical poetics journals devoted to literary and cultural history and book reviewing as well as newspaper and small magazine features from the 1980s to the present The writing reflects Sharkey's poetic practice and pedagogy relating to the teaching of literature rhetorical analysis cultural studies and writing in universities schools and cultural organizations in Australia New Zealand China and Germany It also evidences Sharkey's familiarity with literatures written in English and his wider career in publishing editing free lance journalism and the promotion of Australian and New Zealand literature especially poetry      Moralism Craig Taylor, 2015-01-30 Moralism involves the distortion of moral thought the distortion of reflection and judgement It is a vice and one to which many from the philosopher to the media pundit to the politician are highly susceptible This book examines the nature of moralism in specific moral judgements and the ways in which moral philosophy and theories about morality can themselves become skewed by this vice This book ranges across a wide range of topics the problem of the demandingness of morality the conflict between moral and other values the contrast between the practice of moral philosophy and other modes of moral thought or reflection moralism in the media and moralism in the public discussion of literature and art This highly original and provocative book will be of interest to students of philosophy psychology theology and media and to anyone who takes a serious interest in contemporary morality Fake It Mark Osteen,2021-08-13 How many layers of artifice can one artwork contain How does forgery unsettle our notions of originality and creativity Looking at both the literary and art worlds Fake It investigates a set of fictional forgeries and hoaxes alongside their real life inspirations and parallels Mark Osteen shows how any forgery or hoax is only as good as its authenticating story and demonstrates how forgeries foster fresh authorial identities while being deeply intertextual and frequently quite original From fakes of the late eighteenth century such as Thomas Chatterton s Rowley poems and the notorious Shakespearean documents fabricated by William Henry Ireland to hoaxes of the modern period such as Clifford Irving s fake autobiography of Howard Hughes the infamous Ern Malley forgeries and the audacious authorial masquerades of Percival Everett Osteen lays bare provocative truths about the conflicts between aesthetic and economic value In doing so he illuminates the process of artistic creation which emerges as collaborative and imitative rather than individual and inspired revealing that authorship is to some degree always forged Native Speakers and Native Users Alan Davies,2013-08 Native speakers and native users are playing the same game sharing as they do the model of the Standard Language Book Self C. K. Stead,2013-10-01 A sequel to the successful books Kin of Place and The Writer at Work this collection of critical writing takes the reader on a personal journey from the author s earliest discovery of poetry as a young man to his latest experiences on the literary trail This trip through literary history involves many writers including Katherine Mansfield T S Eliot Michael King and Elizabeth Knox The book also includes a series of journal extracts that allow readers to get closer to the mind of the writer his strong personal views about other writers and his deep commitment to the role of criticism in literary life Intentions in the Experience of Meaning Raymond W. Gibbs,1999-09-13 What do our assumptions about authorship matter for our experience of meaning This book examines the debates in the humanities and social sciences over whether authorial intentions can or should constrain our interpretation of language and art Scholars assume that understanding of linguistic and artistic meaning should not be constrained by beliefs about authors and their possible intentions in creating a human artifact It is argued here that people are strongly disposed to infer intentionality when understanding oral speech written texts artworks and many other human actions Although ordinary people and scholars may infer meanings that diverge from or extend beyond what authors intend our experience of human artifacts as meaningful is fundamentally tied to our assumptions of intentionality This challenges the traditional ideas of intentions as existing solely in the minds of individuals and formulates a new conceptual framework for examining if and when intentions influence the interpretation of meaning Scholars at War Geoffrey G. Gray,Doug Munro,Christine Winter,2012-01-01 SCHOLARS AT WAR is the first scholarly publication to examine the effect World War II had on the careers of Australasian social scientists It links a group of scholars through geography transnational national and personal scholarly networks and shared intellectual traditions explores their use and contextualizes their experiences and contributions within wider examinations of the role of intellectuals in war SCHOLARS AT WAR is structured around historical portraits of individual Australasian social scientists They are not a tight group rather a cohort of scholars serendipitously involved in and affected by war who share a point of origin Analyzing practitioners of the social sciences during war brings to the fore specific networks beliefs and institutions that transcend politically defined spaces Individual lives help us to make sense of the historical process helping us illuminate particular events and the larger cultural social and even political processes of a moment in time

Attack of the Difficult Poems Charles Bernstein, 2011-04-15 Charles Bernstein is our postmodern jester of American poesy equal part surveyor of democratic vistas and scholar of avant garde sensibilities In a career spanning thirty five years and forty books he has challenged and provoked us with writing that is decidedly unafraid of the tensions between ordinary and poetic language and between everyday life and its adversaries Attack of the Difficult Poems his latest collection of essays gathers some of his most memorably irreverent work while addressing seriously and comprehensively the state of contemporary humanities the teaching of unconventional forms fresh approaches to translation the history of language media and the connections between poetry and visual art Applying an array of essayistic styles Attack of the Difficult Poems ardently engages with the promise of its title Bernstein introduces his key theme of the difficulty of poems and defends often in comedic ways not just difficult poetry but poetry itself Bernstein never loses his ingenious ability to argue or his consummate attention to detail Along the way he offers a wide ranging critique of literature's place in the academy taking on the vexed role of innovation and approaching it from the perspective of both teacher and practitioner From blues artists to Tin Pan Alley song lyricists to Second Wave modernist poets The Attack of the Difficult Poems sounds both a battle cry and a lament for the task of the language maker and the fate of invention

Screening the Past Tony Barta, 1998-08-20 Film and television have been accepted as having a pervasive influence on how people understand the world An important aspect of this is the relationship of history and film The different views of the past created by film television and video are only now attracting closer attention from historians cultural critics and filmmakers This volume seeks to advance the critical exploration scholars have recently begun Barta begins by addressing the various ways the past is screened for our understanding and relates the art of film to other media The essays that follow deal primarily with the changing perspectives of political and social developments and changing concepts of ideology gender or culture in films and television programs made for historically shaped reasons Chapters by filmmakers explore issues of context and intent in their own projects Scholars and general readers interested in film and cultural studies will find this an important volume

Sidney Nolan Peter Haynes, 2012 Faking Literature K. K. Ruthven, 2001-04-30 Faking Literature first published in 2001 examines the role of forgery in literature

Writing in Hope and Fear John McLaren, 1996 A compelling critical and historical account of politics in postwar Australian literary culture      Risky Business Al Alvarez, 2012-07-05 In a book this good in the company of a mind this judicious and fine the reader is left wanting more Telegraph Poetry poker mountaineering novels a sparkling collection of essays from Britain's best loved man of letters _____ Al Alvarez's writing career has come in many guises One of the most influential post war critics he has written profoundly and eloquently about writers and their craft for over fifty years But Alvarez has also been a passionate amateur of risky pursuits poker playing mountaineering flying in aeroplanes and he written about these subjects with a rare depth liveliness and perception This is a collection of his finest essays Ranging from trenchant literary criticism to accounts of polar expeditions and poker championships Risky Business is a sparkling and eclectic anthology from our most unusual man of letters
