fetishes Anna manages to draw a line during her sessions Through these encounters she realizes that she relishes holding men in sweet torment That s how she meets Peter a man driven to the parlor by curiosity and heartbreak His response to Anna s touch is uniquely unexpected and to complicate matters further Anna finds herself growing emotionally attached to him And in her line of work that s a very bad sign NSANE Janet Haneberg,2010-07-22 As Thunder McCloud s sophisticated mother battles a difficult Internet addiction including cyber sex Thunder reaches out to assist her Fleeing to a tropical getaway in Bermuda they are caught up in the dog eat dog world compliments of the Americans following their scent The commencement of sunshine blue skies and pink beaches soon evolves into puzzlement and mystery when they venture outside their Southampton rental quarters Meanwhile a killer has honed his skills on a mousey woman named Onion Breathitt who recently became nationally recognized as a blue ribbon winner for her peanut butter recipe After using her as an experimental rat he realizes his mousetrap invention will not serve his purpose in carrying out future killings nine to be exact Traditional teatime becomes a poisonous deed when the killer takes his one man show on the road to Bermuda and Thunder and her mother are caught up in the bigger than life performance Unsettling Montaigne Elizabeth Guild,2014 Striking new readings of Montaigne s works focussing on such concepts as scepticism and tolerance Hungry for Ecstasy Sharon Klayman Farber,2013 Hungry for Ecstasy Trauma The Brain and the Influence of the Sixties by Sharon Klayman Farber explores the hunger for ecstatic experience that can lead people down the road to self destruction In an attempt to help mental health professionals and concerned individuals understand and identify the phenomenon and ultimately intervene with patients friends and loved ones Farber speaks both personally and professionally to the reader She discusses the different paths taken on the road to ecstatic states There are religious ecstasies ecstasies of pain and near death experiences cult induced ecstasies creative ecstasies and ecstasies from hell Hungry for Ecstasy explores not only the neuroscientific processes involved but also the influence of the sixties in driving people to seek these states Finally Farber draws from her own personal and professional experience to advise others how to intervene on behalf of the person whose behavior puts his or her life at risk Feeling Pleasures Joe Moshenska,2014-10-30 The sense of touch had a deeply uncertain status in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries It had long been seen as the most certain and reliable of the senses and also as biologically necessary each of the other senses could be relinquished but to lose touch was to lose life itself Alternatively touch was seen as dangerously bodily and too fully involved in sensual and sexual pleasures to be of true worth Feeling Pleasures argues that this tension came to the fore during the English Renaissance and allowed some of the central debates of this period surrounding the nature of human experience of the material world and of the relationship between the human and the divine to proceed through discussions of touch It also argues that the unstable status of touch was of particular import to the poetry of this period By bringing touch to the fore in a period usually associated with the dominance of vision and optics Joe Moshenska offers reconsiderations of major English poets especially Edmund Spenser and

John Milton while exploring a range of spheres in which touch assumed new significance These include theological debates surrounding relics and the Eucharist in the work of Erasmus Thomas Cranmer and Lancelot Andrewes the philosophical history of tickling the touching of paintings and sculptures in a European context faith healing and experimental science and the early reception of Chinese medicine in England
