Veteran In A New Field W. H. Payne,2013-10 In 1866 after service with the Irish Brigade in the Civil War Seamus Delaney arrives at a famous and luxurious Catskill Mountain resort He is under orders from his employer the shadowy Secretary to rest He soon finds that far from enjoying a rest he is immersed in the murderous conflict that gave rise to the War and which persists in a tortured Nation

Traditional Music and Irish Society: Historical Perspectives Martin Dowling,2016-02-24 Written from the perspective of a scholar and performer Traditional Music and Irish Society investigates the relation of traditional music to Irish modernity The opening chapter integrates a thorough survey of the early sources of Irish music with recent work on Irish social history in the eighteenth century to explore the question of the antiquity of the tradition and the class locations of its origins Dowling argues in the second chapter that the formation of what is today called Irish traditional music occurred alongside the economic and political modernization of European society in the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries Dowling goes on to illustrate the public discourse on music during the Irish revival in newspapers and journals from the 1880s to the First World War also drawing on the works of Pierre Bourdieu and Jacques Lacan to place the field of music within the public sphere of nationalist politics and cultural revival in these decades The situation of music and song in the Irish literary revival is then reflected and interpreted in the life and work of James Joyce and Dowling includes treatment of Joyce s short stories A Mother and The Dead and the Sirens chapter of Ulysses Dowling conducted field work with Northern Irish musicians during 2004 and 2005 and also reflects directly on his own experience performing and working with musicians and arts organizations in order to conclude with an assessment of the current state of traditional music and cultural negotiation in Northern Ireland in the second decade of the twenty first century

Photopoetry 1845-2015 Michael Nott,2018-05-31 From amateur experiments in scrapbooks and stereographs to contemporary photobook collaborations between leading practitioners poets and photographers have created an art form that continues to evolve and deserves critical exploration Photopoetry 1845 2015 a Critical History represents the first account of this challenging and diverse body of work Nott traces the development of photopoetic collaboration from its roots in 19th century illustrative practices to the present day Focusing on work from the UK and US he examines how and why poets and photographers collaborate and explores the currents of exchange and engagement between poems and photographs on the page The book not only considers canonical figures but brings to light forgotten practitioners whose work questioned and shaped the relationship between word and image Photopoetry 1845 2015 a Critical History provides a new lens through which to explore poetry photography and the spaces between them

Poems 1968-1998 Paul Muldoon,2011-04-21 Thirty years of work from the most significant English language poet born since the second world war The Times Literary Supplement

Standing Outside the Law Shira Smith,2009-08 Troy Jacobson has always tried to stay invisible the Snake the palsy he has wrestled with his entire life usually has other ideas But in the spring of 1969 Troy finds a place where he can be accepted when he and two old friends Jesse and Coleman decide to start a commune of their own in Denton Texas They bring in other friends and lovers and it works for a few months until the hot summer day when Coleman hits on a girl that Jesse brings home from a gig R E Coleman s girlfriend and the one steadying influence in his life tries to help him balance the demons that drive him to make all the wrong choices When an expensive car pulls up outside one morning the men in suits inside set in motion a series of events that take them back into family histories that range from the Utopian communes of the 1850s to the early days of the Beats and to the mansions of the ultra rich in Fort Worth and then forward onto roads leading away from Texas and out west into the unknown

Dark Pool Ben Howard,2004 Howard is another American poet captivated by Ireland to one can t help thinking the good of his craft He writes just about the most natural musical iambic line around these days It s as seductive of the inner ear as Irish storytelling is of the outer gently drawing attention to large subtle meanings Booklist

The Oxford Handbook of Contemporary British and Irish Poetry Peter Robinson,2013-09-26 The Oxford Handbook of Contemporary British and Irish Poetry offers thirty eight chapters of ground breaking research that form a collaborative guide to the many groupings and movements the locations and styles as well as concerns aesthetic political cultural and ethical that have helped shape contemporary poetry in Britain and Ireland The book s introduction offers an anthropological participant observer approach to its variously conflicted subjects while exploring the limits and openness of the contemporary as a shifting and never wholly knowable category The five ensuing sections explore a history of the period s poetic movements its engagement with form technique and the other arts its association with particular locations and places its connection with and difference from poetry in other parts of the world and its circling around such ethical issues as whether poetry can perform actions in the world can atone redress or repair and how its significance is inseparable from acts of evaluation in both poets and readers Though the book is not structured to feature chapters on authors thought to be canonical on the principle that contemporary writers are by definition not yet canonical the volume contains commentary on many prominent poets as well as finding space for its contributors enthusiasms for numerous less familiar figures It has been organized to be read from cover to cover as an ever deepening exploration of a complex field to be read in one or more of its five thematically structured sections or indeed to be read by picking out single chapters or discussions of poets that particularly interest its individual readers

The Literary Afterlives of Roger Casement, 1899-2016 Alison Garden, 2020 This book explores the literary and cultural afterlives of Ireland s most enigmatic shape shifting and controversial son Roger Casement Drawing upon a transnational selection of modern and contemporary texts alongside significant archival research this book positions Casement as a vital and fascinating figure in the compromised and contradictory terrain of Anglo Irish history

Paul Muldoon in America Alex Alonso, 2021-09-09 Paul Muldoon was looking west long before he left Ireland for the United States in 1987 and his Transatlantic departure would prove to be a turning point in his life and work In America Muldoon s creative repertoire has extended into song writing libretti and literary criticism while his poetry collections have extended to outlandish proportions typified in recent years by a level of formal intensity that is unique in modern poetry To leave Northern Ireland though is not necessarily to leave it behind Muldoon has spoken of his sense of belonging to several places at once and in the United States he has found another creative gear new modes of performance facilitated by his Irish migr status Focusing on the protean work of his American period this book explores Muldoon s expansive structural imagination his investment in Eros and errors the nimbleness of his allusive practice as both a reader and writer and the mobility of his Transatlantic position It raises questions about the Irish poet as a westward voyager about Irish American cultural exchange and how departures for Muldoon seem to be a precondition for return indeed returns of many different kinds It also draws on archival research to produce provocative new readings of Muldoon s later works Exploring the poetic and literary critical long forms that are now his hallmark this volume places the most significant works of Muldoon s American period under the microscope and opens up the intricate formal schemes of a poet Mick Imlah credits as having reinvented the possibilities of rhyme for our time

Strangers and Sojourners Michael D. O'Brien, 2009-09-03 An epic novel set in the rugged interior of British Columbia the first volume of a trilogy which traces the lives of four generations of a family of exiles Beginning in 1900 and concluding with the climactic events leading up to the Millennium the series follows Anne and Stephen Delaney and their descendants as they live through the tumultuous events of this century Anne is a highly educated Englishwoman who arrives in British Columbia at the end of the First World War Raised in a family of spiritualists and Fabian socialists she has fled civilization in search of adventure She meets and eventually marries a trapper homesteader an Irish immigrant who is fleeing the troubles in his own violent past This is a story about the gradual movement of souls from despair and unbelief to faith hope and love about the psychology of perception and about the ultimate questions of life death and the mystery of being Interwoven with scenes from Ireland England Poland Russia and Belgium during the War Strangers and Sojourners is a tale of the extraordinary hidden within the ordinary It is about courage and fear and the triumph of the human spirit Author Beowulf

Sheehan,2018-10-09 A beautiful and moving collection of photographs by Beowulf Sheehan whose work captures the essence of 200 of our most prominent writers historians journalists playwrights and poets Beowulf Sheehan is considered to be his generation s foremost literary portrait photographer having made portraits of the literary luminaries of our time across the globe from Roxane Gay to Masha Gessen Patti Smith to Zadie Smith Karl Ove Knausgaard to J K Rowling and Jonathan Franzen to Toni Morrison In Authors Sheehan presents the most insightful intimate and revealing portraits of these artists made in his studio in their homes in shopping malls and concert halls on rooftops and in parking lots on the beach and among trees surrounded by flowers and in clock towers Following an enlightening foreword by Salman Rushdie Beowulf Sheehan shares an essay offering insights in the poignant and memorable moments he experienced while making these portraits A treasure gift for readers and lovers of portrait photography Authors is the only book of its kind to appear in more than a decade The Poetry of Paul Muldoon Jefferson Holdridge,2008-08-01 The Poetry of Paul Muldoon introduces the student and general reader to the critical discussion surrounding Muldoon s oeuvre as well as to his major themes It examines the poet s meditations on culture and nature human and animal speculations on the act of perception figures fragmented by the Troubles and philosophical considerations of colonisation It then discusses what rank among the most beautiful and intricate elegies of our time For Muldoon art s complicity in suffering is a political self indicting question which his best poems endeavour to answer If sometimes this Pulitzer Prize winner insists that art has a positive role to play at other times he fears that it merely feeds off the carnage This critical book shows how for Muldoon art should not merely repeat the devastation of the world although he is afraid that it does and engages in bitter moral despair that places his work among the very best any contemporary poet has written The Poetry of Paul Muldoon unearths difficult questions of form with a metaphysical significance that is suitable to our times "The Given Note" Seán Crosson,2021-02-03 The oldest records indicate that the performance of poetry in Gaelic Ireland was normally accompanied by music providing a point of continuity with past tradition while bolstering a sense of community in the present Music would also offer particularly for poets writing in English from the eighteenth century onwards a perceived authenticity a connection with an older tradition perceived as being untarnished by linguistic and cultural division While providing an innovative analysis of theoretical work in music and literary studies this book examines how traditional Irish music including the related song tradition primarily in Irish has influenced and is apparent in the work of Irish poets While looking generally at where this influence is evident historically and in contemporary Irish poetry this work focuses primarily on the work of six poets three who write in English and three who write primarily in the Irish language Thomas Kinsella Seamus Heaney Ciaran Carson Gearid Mac Lochlainn Nuala Ní Dhomhnaill and Cathal Searcaigh

Contemporary British and Irish Poetry Sarah Broom, 2005-10-18 Sarah Broom provides an engaging challenging and lively introduction to contemporary British and Irish poetry The book covers work by poets from a wide range of ethnic and regional backgrounds and covers a broad range of poetic styles including mainstream names like Seamus Heaney and Carol Ann Duffy alongside more marginal and experimental poets like Tom Raworth and Geraldine Monk Contemporary British and Irish Poetry tackles the most compelling and contentious issues facing poetry today

In the Chair John Brown, 2002 All of the poets interviewed in this collection are from Northern Ireland all were born after 1920 and each has published at least one volume of poetry Arranged chronologically by each poet's date of birth this collection deals with an impressive body of work The poets include Seamus Heaney Paul Muldoon Michael Longley John Montague Derek Mahon Ciaran Carson as well as less known voices including Gerald Dawe Roy McFadden and Conor O'Callaghan The interviews explore the poet's work and development the social historical context and the impact of assimilated influences If they explore a poetry often rooted in the North they also suggest the individuality and diversity of this poetry of work whose imaginative range is not circumscribed by either literal borders or critically convenient categories The other poets included are James Simmons Tom Paulin Frank Ormsby Medbh McGuckian Robert Greacen Cathal P Searcaigh Colette Bryce Moyra Donaldson Jean Bleakney Martin Mooney Pádraic Fiacc and Cherry Smyth
