Guidelines for Effective Mainstreaming in Science Margo A. Mastropieri,1993 Intended as a resource for teachers who have special education students in their mainstream science classes Achieving the Complete School Douglas Biklen,1985-01-01 The Challenges of Environmental Mainstreaming D. Barry Dalal-Clayton,Stephen Bass,2009 Reviews the changing context and challenges to environmental mainstreaming discusses what it takes to achieve effective mainstreaming and provides guidance for selecting operational methods and tools This title explores the emphasis on getting environmental issues reflected in the government processes Resources in Education ,1997 Mainstreaming Gender in Environmental Assessment and Early Warning ,2005 Community-based adaptation Hannah Reid,2017-10-02 Community based adaptation CBA to climate change is based on local priorities needs knowledge and capacities Early CBA initiatives were generally implemented by non government organisations NGOs and operated primarily at the local level Many used bottom up participatory processes to identify the climate change problem and appropriate responses Small localised stand alone initiatives are insufficient to address the scale of challenges climate change will bring however The causes of vulnerability such as market or service access or good governance also often operate beyond the project level Larger organisations and national governments have therefore started to implement broader CBA programmes which provide opportunities to scale up responses and integrate CBA into higher levels of policy and planning This book shows that it is possible for CBA to remain centred on local priorities but not necessarily limited to work implemented at the local level Some chapters address the issue of mainstreaming CBA into government policy and planning processes or into city or sectoral level plans e g on agriculture Others look at how gender and children s issues should be mainstreamed into adaptation planning itself and others describe how tools can be applied and finance delivered for effective mainstreaming This book was published as a special issue of Climate and Development Taking Employment Discrimination Seriously Yuwen Li,J. E. Goldschmidt,2009 Employment discrimination is present in any society However this severe social problem has escalated in the post Mao era in China The imbalance between supply and demand in the labour market combined with a lack of general consciousness regarding labour rights have contributed to the swift spread of discrimination This book contains the most recent research on the reality of discrimination in China and advocates for effective employment equality protection through law and specialised equality institutions The study of equal treatment in the legal systems of the EU illustrates the important contribution law together with general policies can make to the improvement of equality in employment While both systems face a distinctive range and degree of problems employment discrimination ought to be taken seriously in China and the countries of the EU Climate Change and Rainfall Extremes in Africa Victor Ongoma,2025-04-21 Climate Change and Rainfall Extremes in Africa Occurrence Impacts and Adaptation provides the latest developments on extreme rainfall in

Africa along with an analysis of current impacts future implications and community adaptations The book s chapters are organized into three parts 1 Understanding Rainfall Extremes 2 Regional Rainfall and Hydrological Extremes and 3 Prediction Impacts and Adaptation to Rainfall Extremes Specific sections examine rainfall variability in Africa and across the world how climate change has contributed to the increasing severity of events focus on different regions and various meteorological extremes including tropical cyclones drought flooding rising water levels and changes in rainfall concentration Final sections look ahead to the future of forecasting rainfall economic implications damage assessment adaptation community resilience and risk reduction measures This timely resource will deepen readers understanding of how climate change and extreme rainfall in Africa and elsewhere are impacting communities and what can be done to mitigate the effects Provides a conceptual framework that gives readers an interdisciplinary understanding of climate change and rainfall extremes in Africa Includes case studies that offer practical examples and real world data Presents end of chapter summaries that highlight findings and future implications

Climate Change Vulnerability in Southern African Cities

Silvia Macchi,Maurizio Tiepolo,2014-02-24 In recent decades extreme rains and drought have struck urban regions in Africa like never before Nevertheless limited information is available on which to base development of early warning systems identification of high risk zones and formulation of local action plans This book is about how to build the knowledge necessary for planning adaptation to climate change in Sub Saharan cities It brings together lessons learned from international development actions conducted by a number of scholars in disciplines ranging from meteorology and hydrogeology to urban planning and environmental management Selected methods to assess the impacts of extreme weather and ecological stress are presented along with possible approaches to improve the adaptive capacity of Sub Saharan cities through institutional measures at the local government level The book is addressed to graduate students researchers and practitioners interested in enhancing their knowledge and skills in order to integrate climate change into applied research and development projects in urban Africa
