Egypt Past and Present William Henry Davenport Adams, 1894 The Nile and Its Masters: Past, Present, Future Jean Kerisel, 2021-12-17 The Pharaohs were masters of the Nile they had a detailed understanding of the ways of the river Modern Egyptians see themselves as heirs to this tradition and as owners of the Nile waters In the 1960 s Egypt decided to protect its increasingly populated Nile valley from the ravages of annual flooding by building a dam A relatively small dam in the valley of Nubia in the region of Tushka would have enabled the excess floodwaters to safely be diverted towards the fossil valley of the pre Nile However it was decided to select a site near Aswan making it necessary to inundate more than 250km of river valley Over the years this strategy has been revealed to have been faulty and numerous irrigation schemes in upriver countries have progressively reduced the amount of water descending into Egypt The dire warning of the 14th century oracle appears to be prophetic the water of the river in my country will be stopped from reaching yours which I shall cause to die of thirst Sharpe's London Magazine Anna Maria Fielding Hall ("Mrs. S. Malkowski,2013-12-17 The truth behind ancient myths and the return of the celestial conditions for a Golden Age of peace and abundance Reveals the events preserved in myth that launched humanity into 12 000 years of struggle selfishness and false beliefs Explores how we can initiate a new Golden Age through ancient Egyptian teachings on the creative power of our imaginations Explains how our world system of economics which benefits a few at the expense of the many arose as a reaction to global catastrophe in prehistory Since the beginning of recorded history humanity has been in a continuous struggle over land and resources It continues today despite the abundance we have created through scientific innovation and technology Why such a struggle for resources exists has never been explained Neither has the human drive to own accumulate and hoard Edward Malkowski reveals that the answer lies in recognizing the reality behind humanity s earliest myths He shows that the opportunity is at hand to transcend these inherited selfish traits and return to a Golden Age of peace and abundance Malkowski explores the hidden meaning behind stories such as the Epic of Gilgamesh Plato s Atlantis and myths of a new sky and a new sun of great floods and the death of the gods and of the preceding Golden Age He connects these myths to a real extinction event that occurred 12 000 years ago He explains how the survivors our ancestors were catapulted from utopia into a world of scarcity scarring the collective mind of humanity and initiating the struggle for resources in an attempt to regain our lost paradise He shows how our world system of economics focused on ownership and based on the false belief of separateness benefitting a few at the expense of the many arose as a reaction to this catastrophe Drawing on the pre catastrophe teachings preserved by the ancient Egyptians Malkowski reveals that we are returning to a celestial configuration parallel to that of the past Golden Age Through our collective DNA memory and the creative power of our imaginations we can end our 12 000 year quest to regain paradise lost and launch a new Golden Age of unity abundance and equality for all humanity The Past, Present and Future of the Negro Ali Soliman,1926 World Military History
