Eileen Gray: A House Under The Sun Charlotte Malterre-Barthes, 2019-06-11 Meet Eileen Gray the female architect behind the world renowned E 1027 house and a pioneer of the Modern Movement in architecture In 1924 her work began in earnest on a small villa by the sea in the south of France Nearly a century later this structure is a design milestone But like so many gifted female artists and designers of her time Eileen Gray's story has been eclipsed by the men with whom she collaborated

Eileen Gray and the Design of Sapphic Modernity Staying In argues that Gray's unusual architecture and design as well as its history of abuse and neglect resulted from her involvement with sapphic modernism Gray's works share with paintings by Romaine Brooks and novels by Radclyffe Hall and Djuna Barnes an aesthetic opacity intended to resist the clarity of lesbian identity

Eileen Gray Cloé Pitiot, Nina Stritzler-Levine, 2020 Eileen Gray 1878 1976 was a versatile designer and architect who navigated numerous literary and artistic circles over the course of her life This handsome volume chronicles Gray's career as a designer architect painter and photographer The book's essays featuring copious new research offer in depth analysis of more than 50 individual designs and architectural projects accompanied by both period and new photographs Born in Ireland and educated in London Gray proceeded to Paris where she opened a textile studio studied the Japanese craft of lacquer that would become a primary technique in her design work and owned and directed the influential gallery and store known as Jean Desert Gray struggled for acceptance as a largely self taught woman in male dominated professions Although she is now best known for her furniture lighting and carpets she dedicated herself to many architectural and interior projects that were both personal and socially driven including the Villa E 1027 the iconic modern house designed with Jean Badovici as well as economical and demountable projects such as the Camping Tent

Eileen Gray Peter Adam, 2019-12-03 A fascinating rediscovery of the life and work of Eileen Gray one of the twentieth century's most important designers In this illustrated biography we learn the origins of designer Eileen Gray and the details of her groundbreaking career Gray began as a creator of opulent lacquer furniture and transformed into a pioneer of modernist design. Staying firmly independent, she developed a distinctive take on materials favored by fellow International Style designers such as Le Corbusier, Charlotte Perriand, and Mies van der Rohe. Her talent made her an object of admiration among American expatriates such as Gertrude Stein, and her designs are now globally renowned. E 1027, the ship-shaped home she created on a cliff near Monaco, was hailed as a triumph of deluxe modern living, and her Dragons chair fetched 28 million at an Yves Saint Laurent auction in 2009. This new edition of the biography by Peter Adam, the only surviving person to have been close to Gray during her later years, is a uniquely intimate survey of her life and work. Comprehensively updated and illustrated with material from Gray's personal archives, correspondence, photographs, and architectural sketchbooks, Eileen Gray tells the full story of her life and reveals fresh details about her largely overlooked paintings, exchanges with Le Corbusier, and the fate of E 1027, the first building she designed. This book will be a welcome resource for fans of Gray as well as those who are interested in design.

Eileen Gray and the Design of Sapphic Modernity Jasmine Rault, 2017-07-05 The first book-length feminist analysis of Eileen Gray's work, Eileen Gray and the Design of Sapphic Modernity argues that Gray's unusual architecture and design, as well as its history of abuse and neglect, emerged from her involvement with cultures of sapphic modernism. Bringing together a range of theoretical and historical sources from architecture and design, communication and media, to gender and sexuality studies, Jasmine Rault shows that Gray shared with many of her female contemporaries a commitment to designing spaces for sexually dissident modernity. This volume examines Gray's early lacquer work and Romaine Brooks' earliest nude paintings; Gray's first built house, E 1027, in relation to Radclyffe Hall, and her novel The Well of Loneliness; and Gray's private house, Tempe Pailla, with Djuna Barnes' Nightwood. While both female sexual dissidence and modernist architecture were reduced to rigid identities through mass media, women such as Gray, Brooks, Hall, and Barnes resisted the clarity of such identities with opaque, non-communicative aesthetics. Rault demonstrates that, by defying the modern imperative to publicity, clarity, and identity, Gray helped design a sapphic modernity that cultivated the dynamism of uncertain bodies and unfixed pleasures, which depended on staying in rather than coming out.

Eileen Gray Penelope Rowlands, Marisa Bartolucci, 2002 The life and works of the modern furniture designer Eileen Gray. Caroline Constant, 2020 Eileen Gray (1878–1976) was a versatile designer and architect who navigated numerous literary and artistic circles over the course of her life. This handsome volume chronicles Gray's career as a designer, architect, painter, and photographer. The book's essays, featuring copious new research, offer in-depth analysis of more than 50 individual designs and architectural projects, accompanied by both period and new photographs. Born in Ireland and educated in London, Gray proceeded to Paris where she opened a textile studio, studied the Japanese craft of lacquer (which would become a primary technique in her design work), and owned and directed the influential gallery and store known as Jean Desert. Gray struggled for acceptance as a largely self-taught woman in male-dominated professions. Although she is now best known for her furniture, lighting, and carpets, she dedicated herself to many architectural and interior projects that were both personal and socially driven including the Villa E 1027 the iconic modern house designed with Jean Badovici as well as economical and demountable projects such as the Camping Tent
