to an end Was it destroyed by weaknesses inherent in its nature Or were mistakes made that could have been avoided was there a point at which Greco Roman society took a wrong turn And in what ways is modern society different Western history is split into two discontinuous eras Aldo Schiavone tells us the ancient world was fundamentally different from the modern one He locates the essential difference in a series of economic factors a slave based economy relative lack of mechanization and technology the dominance of agriculture over urban industry Also crucial are aspects of the ancient mentality disdain for manual work a preference for transcending rather than transforming nature a basic belief in the permanence of limits Schiavone s lively and provocative examination of the ancient world the eternal theater of history and power offers a stimulating opportunity to view modern society in light of the experience of our forebears Cicero: Letters to Atticus: Volume 1, Books 1-2 Marcus Tullius Cicero,2004-06-10 A renowned edition containing text apparatus translation and full commentary Boethius as a Paradigm of Late Ancient Thought Thomas Böhm,Thomas Jürgasch,Andreas Kirchner,2014-10-10 Boethius is largely underrated in the history of Western thought Scholarship often regarded him and his era Late Antiquity as mere intermediaries between Antiquity and the Middle Ages This volume shows that Boethius and his time can be appreciated in their own right Library Bulletin of the University of Saint Andrews University of St. Andrews. Library,1904 The Patrician Tribune W. Jeffrey Tatum,2014-02-25 Publius Clodius Pulcher was a prominent political figure during the last years of the Roman Republic Born into an illustrious patrician family his early career was sullied by military failures and especially by the scandal that resulted from his allegedly disguising himself as a woman in order to sneak into a forbidden religious ceremony in the hope of seducing Caesar s wife Clodius survived this disgrace however and emerged as a major political force He renounced his patrician status and was elected tribune of the people As tribune he pursued an ambitious legislative agenda winning the loyalties of the common people of Rome to such a degree that he was soon able to summon forceful even violent demonstrations on his own behalf The first modern comprehensive biography of Clodius The Patrician Tribune traces his career from its earliest stages until its end in 52 B C when he was murdered by a political rival Jeffrey Tatum explores Clodius s political successes as well as the limitations of his popular strategies within the broader context of Roman political practices In the process Tatum illuminates the relationship between the political contests of Rome s elite and the daily struggles of Rome s urban poor The English Catalogue of Books Sampson Low,1963 Vols for 1898 1968 include a directory of publishers Letters and Homilies for Hellenized Christians, Volume 2 Ben Witherington III,Ben Witherington,2008-01-09 In the first of three volumes Witherington extends his innovative socio rhetorical analysis of New Testament books to the later Pauline and non Pauline corpora placing each text within its socioreligious milieu and illuminating the particular issues that confronted each congregation as well as the rhetorical strategies employed by each author in addressing those issues Throughout Witherington shows his thorough knowledge of recent literature on these texts and focuses his attention on the unique insights brought about through socio rhetorical analysis that either reinforce or correct those gleaned from other approaches Strikingly based on his rhetorical analysis that either reinforce or correct those gleaned from other approaches Strikingly based on his rhetorical analysis of the Pastorals he makes the case for Luke as Paul's amanuensis for these letters He also makes a strenuous argument against New Testament pseudepigrapha from back cover The New York Latin Leaflet, 1900 American Literary Gazette and Publishers' Circular, 1870 Bulletin ... University of St. Andrews.
