Sanche de GRAMONT,1968 The English Poetic Epitaph Joshua Scodel,1991 Readers interested in English literary history cultural poetics comparative literature the history of attitudes toward death and the relationship between literature and the visual arts will find The English Poetic Epitaph fascinating reading Epitaphs and Inscriptions Andrew Jervise,2023-11-21 Reprint of the original first published in 1875 The publishing house Anatiposi publishes historical books as reprints Due to their age these books may have missing pages or inferior quality Our aim is to preserve these books and make them available to the public so that they do not get lost Leadership by the Book Brent Garrison,2016-02-16 Dr Brent Garrison has reached a pinnacle pointing leaders to the ultimate source of inspiration where one learns to lead the pack from the back Jerry Jenkins Multiple New York Times Bestselling Author Christian men and women across the country experience leadership in many different ways Some lead a congregation youth group or ministry some in their homes businesses or non professional organizations The lives of many followers of Christ are marked by a combination of these roles In Leadership by the Book Brent Garrison offers examples from each book of the Old and New Testaments of how God s servants have led His people and the lessons that today s leaders can learn from them From Moses to John Genesis to Revelations Garrison offers a new perspective on ancient wisdom Insightful applications and spiritual adaptations for modern problems on every page Leadership by the Book will help Christian leaders in their personal spiritual and professional lives to find timeless answers to difficult questions Works of the Camden Society ,1868 The Oxford Handbook of the Merovingian World Bonnie Effros,Isabel Moreira,2020 The Merovingian world has become more visible in Anglophone historical studies in the past two decades as attention to the social and economic networks of empires and modes of communication has begun to change older frameworks that viewed these centuries in terms of decline and characterized them as the Dark Ages The Merovingian epoch witnessed something which we understand from the perspective of hindsight a tilt to the middle ages The forty six essays included in this volume thus highlight the vitality and importance of the Merovingian kingdoms in the fifth through eighth centuries Rather than suggest that this was a chaotic and obscure interlude between the Fall of the Roman Empire and the Rise of the Carolingians and named for a dynasty with a reputation for few accomplishments and even fewer memorable kings the essays demonstrate that the Merovingian era is an important field in its own right The Handbook s contributors highlight recent research that moves beyond the political developments that were until recently the bread and butter of most historians and include many contributions based on material culture that shed new light on subjects that previously were inaccessible They demonstrate that the Merovingian world was at the center of a wide ranging Merovingian empire of elites peasants economies and cultures and its story must be told through archaeology bio archaeology architecture hagiographic literature manuscripts liturgy visionary literature and eschatology patristics numismatics and material culture In addition to mainland France the essays encompass the geographic conduits of power culture and trade that connected the Merovingian world with Anglo Saxon England Ireland Frisia Spain Italy North Africa and the Byzantine Empire This network empire of intersecting and often conflicting identities political interests religions economies patronage and cultures were intrinsically connected to contemporary developments not just among the Burgundians and Visigoths but among the Byzantines Avars Anglo Saxons Frisians and the Irish fields that were once viewed like the Merovingians themselves in isolation These important developments reveal why the Merovingian period has attracted new audiences and why it will never be viewed as a backwater again Curious Epitaphs Various
