Epsom Downs:

The 21st Century Office Jeremy Myerson, Philip Ross, 2003 This first comprehensive survey of workplace design for the new century this book captures emerging themes and ideas in office architecture and interiors around the world Written and researched by the authors of The Creative Office it advances the concept of increasing creativity in planning and design by exploring the new workplace models that are developing in response to rapid organisational social and technological change In the introduction the authors discuss how the new workplace of the 21st century is already exhibiting different spatial organizational and material characteristics from the scientifically managed process driven mechanistic model of the 20th century modern office This is followed by four thematic chapters that illustrate the key new trends through 45 international case studies

William Powell Frith William Powell Frith, David Trotter, 2006-01-01 William Powell Frith 1819 1909 was the greatest British painter of the social scene since Hogarth His panoramas of nineteenth century life broke new ground in their depiction of the diverse London crowd and they are now icons of their age Frith's popularity in his lifetime was unprecedented on six separate occasions special railings had to be built at the Royal Academy to protect his paintings from an admiring public Derby Day and The Railway Station are nearly as well known today as a century ago yet the artist who painted them is now neglected This book explores Frith's place in the development of Victorian painting the impact of his unconventional private life on his work his relationships with Hogarth and Dickens his influence on popular illustration the place of costume in his paintings his female models his painting materials and practice and much more The book makes an important contribution to the literature on art in the Victorian era and to our understanding of the nineteenth century

North Downs Landscapes Doug Kennedy, 2015-05-07 The North Downs are a range of hills that run east west from the south east tip of England at Dover in Kent to Farnham in Surrey They skirt the southern edge of London so for a long time have offered Londoners beautiful countryside to escape to or for a home to commute to work from A hundred years ago they were still quite remote but London has grown spreading onto Downland and rail and road links have ensured that the many towns across the hills have also grown substantially in size Despite development there is still a lot of unspoilt landscape from farmland to deep woods to open grassland ridges with fantastic views across the weald of Surrey and Kent and it is these places that are the focus of this book North Downs Landscapes takes the reader on a journey from the White Cliffs of Dover through the rolling Kentish farm land with its open vistas and small villages across the River Medway at Rochester with its castle and cathedral on to the wooded ridges past Sevenoaks into Surrey and across the River Mole to explore Leith Hill then to Guildford and the River Wey and over the Hogs Back to Farnham The core of this book are beautiful full page colour photographs illustrating the beauty and distinctive landscapes of the Downs The text explores the history geography geology and ecology of the countryside and some of its towns and villages Together photographs and text capture the character and atmosphere of a special part of the British Isles
