Equality And Partiality:

Equality and Partiality Thomas Nagel, 1991 Essays based on Nagel's Locke Lectures delivered at Oxford University in 1990 address the conflict between the claims of the group and those of the individual Equality and Partiality Thomas Nagel, 1991 Thomas Nagel addresses the conflict between the claims of the group and those of the individual Nagel clarifies the nature of the conflict one of the most fundamental problems in moral and political theory and argues that its reconciliation is the essential task of any legitimate political system The Illusions of Egalitarianism John Kekes, 2007 In this systematic and scathing attack on the dominant contemporary version of liberalism John Kekes challenges political assumptions shared by the majority of people in Western societies Egalitarianism as it's widely known holds that a government ought to treat all citizens with equal consideration Kekes charges that belief in egalitarianism rests on illusions that prevent people from facing unpleasant truths Kekes a major voice in modern political thought argues that differences among human beings in the areas of morality reasonability legality and citizenship are too important for governance to ignore In a rigorous criticism of prominent egalitarian thinkers including Dworkin Nagel Nussbaum Rawls Raz and Singer Kekes charges that their views present a serious threat to both morality and reason For Kekes certain inequalitarian truths are obvious people should get what they deserve those who are good and those who are evil should not be treated as if they had the same moral worth people should not be denied what they have earned in order to benefit those who have not earned it and individuals should be held responsible for their actions His provocative book will compel many readers to question their faith in liberalism Equality and Responsibility Christopher Lake, 2001-11-08 Arguments about distributive justice often take place around two ideas One is that good should be distributed equally The other is that how people fare in life should depend on what they are responsible for The author asks what draws us to these two ideas and examines recent attempts by egalitarian thinkers to bring them together in a single distributive ideal Underlying this ideal is the egalitarian intuition the intuition that it is objectionable for some to be worse off than others through no fault of their own in a wide ranging discussion Lake tests that intuition from a variety of perspectives and points to the gaps in our current thinking about quality and individual responsibility Thomas Nagel Alan Thomas, 2015-01-28 In the first systematic study of the philosophy of Thomas Nagel Alan Thomas discusses Nagel's contrast between the subjective and the objective points of view throughout the various areas of his wide ranging philosophy Nagel's original and distinctive contrast between the subjective view and our aspiration to a view from nowhere within metaphysics structures the chapters of the book A new Humean in epistemology Nagel takes philosophical scepticism to be both irrefutable and yet to indicate a profound truth about our capacity for self transcendence The contrast between subjective and objective views is then considered in the case of the mind where consciousness proves to be the central aspect of mind that contemporary theorising fails to acknowledge adequately The second half of the book analyses Nagel's work on moral and political philosophy where he has been most deeply influential Topics covered include the contrast between agent relative and agent neutral reasons and values Nagel's distinctive version of a hybrid ethical theory his discussion of life's meaningfulness and finally his sceptical arguments about whether a liberal society can reconcile the conflicting moral demands of self and other

Encyclopedia of Global Justice Deen K. Chatterjee, 2012-01-23 This two volume Encyclopedia of Global Justice published by Springer along with Springer's book series Studies in Global Justice is a major publication venture toward a comprehensive coverage of this timely topic The Encyclopedia is an international interdisciplinary and collaborative project spanning all the relevant areas of scholarship related to issues of global justice and edited and advised by leading scholars from around the world The wide ranging entries present the latest ideas on this complex subject by authors who are at the cutting edge of inquiry The Encyclopedia sets the tone and direction of this increasingly important area of scholarship for years to come The entries number around 500 and consist of essays of 300 to 5000 words The inclusion and length of entries are based on their significance to the topic of global justice regardless of their importance in other areas

Equality Renewed Christine Sypnowich, 2016-12-19 How should we approach the daunting task of renewing the ideal of equality In this book Christine Sypnowich proposes a theory of equality centred on human flourishing or wellbeing She argues that egalitarianism should be understood as seeking to make people more equal in the constituents of a good life Inequality is a social ill because of the damage it does to human flourishing unequal distribution of wealth can have the effect that some people are poorly housed badly nourished ill educated unhappy or uncultured among other things When we seek to make people more equal our concern is not just resources or property but how people fare under one distribution or another Ultimately the best answer to the question equality of what is some conception of flourishing since whatever policies or principles we adopt it is flourishing that we hope will be more equal as a result of our endeavours Sypnowich calls for both retrieval and innovation What is to be retrieved is the ideal of equality itself which is often assumed as a background condition of theories of justice yet at the same time dismissed as too homogenising abstract and rigid a criterion for political argument We must retrieve the ideal of equality as a central political principle In doing so she casts doubt on the value of focussing on cultural difference and rejects the idea of neutrality that dominates contemporary political philosophy in favour of a view of the state as enabling the betterment of its citizens

States, Human Rights, and Distant Strangers Angela Müller, 2023-10-24 This book combines legal and philosophical perspectives to address the question of whether states are bound by human rights when they act with effects on people abroad states extraterritorial human rights obligations Taking an innovative approach it begins with a profound legal analysis of the issue at national supranational and international levels and then engages in depth with counterarguments against extraterritorially applying human rights on the basis of which it develops its own ethical justificatory theory of extraterritorial human rights obligations The book closes the circle by showing what the practical implications of this theory for the interpretation and possible evolution of human rights law would be In a world where critiques of and resistance to the general idea of universal human rights are on rise the book contributes to closing the gap between judicial and normative perspectives on extraterritorial human rights obligations by inquiring into the ethical underpinnings of this topical legal challenge This book will be of key interest to scholars and students in human rights international law and more broadly in political philosophy philosophy of law and international relations The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 license

Justice and Authority in Immigration Law Colin Grey, 2015-04-23 This book provides a new and powerful account of the demands of justice on immigration law and policy Drawing principally on the work of Adam Smith Immanuel Kant and John Rawls it argues that justice requires states to give priority of admission to the most disadvantaged migrants and to grant some form of citizenship or non oppressive status to those migrants who become integrated It also argues that states must avoid policies of admission and exclusion that can only be implemented through unjust means It therefore refutes the common misconception that justice places no limits on the discretion of states to control immigration

A Coherence Theory in Ethics Joseph P. Demarco, 2022-06-08 This book offers a comprehensive approach to moral experience It respects the many dimensions of our moral life which elude the traditional philosophical theories that deal exclusively with principles consequences virtues or some other single dimension Working from a critique of such traditions the book shows how to integrate their values in a dynamic coherence Thus it is not just another ethical theory but a new level of philosophizing in ethics which rewards the reader with an enlarged and enriched vision of our complexity as moral beings

Free Public Reason Fred D'Agostino, 1996-01-04 Free Public Reason examines the idea of public justification stressing its importance but also questioning the coherence of the concept itself Although public justification is employed in the work of theorists such as John Rawls Jeremy Waldron Thomas Nagel and others it has received little attention on its own as a philosophical concept In this book Fred D Agostino shows that the concept is composed of various values interests and notions of the good and that no ranking of these is possible The notion of public justification itself is thus shown to be contestable In demonstrating this D Agostino undermines many current political theories that rely on this concept Having broken down the foundations of public justification D Agostino then offers an alternative model of how a workable consensus on its meaning might be reached through the interactions of a community of interpreters or delegates at a constitutional convention

Oxford Studies in Political Philosophy, Volume 3 David Sobel, Peter Vallentyne, Steven Wall, 2017 This is the third volume of Oxford Studies in Political Philosophy The series aims to publish some of the best contemporary work in the vibrant field of political philosophy and its closely related subfields including jurisprudence normative economics political theory in political science departments and just war theory

Against Perfectionism Steven Lecce, 2008-01-19 Against Perfectionism defends neutralist liberalism as the most appropriate political morality for democratic societies

A House Without Walls: How Christ Unites His Ethnically Divided Church Dan Crabtree, 2021-11-02 In light of the heart breaking ethnic division rending

America today A House Without Walls seeks to foster multi ethnic harmony in evangelical congregations by bringing Biblical clarity to current racial and ethnic conversations It uses Scripture to answer some pressing questions of our day like Are all people inherently racist Does the gospel include racial justice Does the Bible advocate for white repentance A House Without Walls attempts to realign discussions about race under the Lordship of Jesus Christ focusing on Biblical understanding and applications It also includes extra Biblical research explaining the language and logic of current conversations about race within an aim towards confidence in engaging the prevalent cultural discourse on race The hopeful outcome of this work is listing unity among believers from diverse ethnic groups facilitated by this Scriptural study Social Theory and Practice

,1993 Justice Without Borders Kok-Chor Tan,2004-10-28 The cosmopolitan idea of justice is commonly accused of not taking seriously the special ties and commitments of nationality and patriotism This is because the ideal of impartial egalitarianism which is central to the cosmopolitan view seems to be directly opposed to the moral partiality inherent to nationalism and patriotism In this book Kok Chor Tan argues that cosmopolitan justice properly understood can accommodate and appreciate nationalist and patriotic commitments setting limits for these commitments without denying their moral significance This book offers a defense of cosmopolitan justice against the charge that it denies the values that ordinarily matter to people and a defence of nationalism and patriotism against the charge that these morally partial ideals are fundamentally inconsistent with the obligations of global justice Accessible and persuasive this book will have broad appeal to political theorists and moral philosophers The Philosophical Review Jacob Gould Schurman,James Edwin

Creighton, Frank Thilly, Gustavus Watts Cunningham,1914 An international journal of general philosophy Love's Labor Eva Feder Kittay,2013-09-13 First Published in 1999 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company
