Stock market development under globalization: whither the gains from reforms? Augusto de la Torre, Sergio L. Schmukler, Juan Carlos Gozzi,2007 Abstract Over the past decades many countries have implemented significant reforms to foster domestic capital market development These reforms included stock market liberalization privatization programs and the establishment of regulatory and supervisory frameworks Despite the intense reform efforts the performance of capital markets in several countries has been disappointing To study whether reforms have had the intended effects on capital markets the authors analyze the impact of six capital market reforms on domestic stock market development and internationalization using event studies They find that reforms tend to be followed by significant increases in domestic market capitalization trading and capital raising Reforms are also followed by an increase in the share of activity in international equity markets with potential negative spillover effects on domestic markets Emerging Equity Markets in Middle Eastern Countries Mr.Manmohan S.

Kumar, Mr. Mohamed A. El-Erian, 1994-09-01 Within a broad framework for analyzing portfolio capital flows to developing countries the paper undertakes a comparative analysis of equity markets in six Middle Eastern countries The analysis based primarily on a range of quantitative indicators identifies the principal characteristics of these markets including relative to international comparators and examines associated structural features This along with an analysis of the informational efficiency of selected markets in the region provides a basis for the subsequent review of policies for enhancing the role of equity markets in the macroeconomy of Middle Eastern countries

Raising Capital on Arab Equity Markets Lu'ayy Minwer Al-Rimawi, 2012-02-01 This first book of its kind discusses in particular the role of investor protection as regards disclosure when issuers are offering securities to the public with full descriptions of the securities markets and stock exchanges in seventeen Arab jurisdictions In two interrelated parts it examines both the regional macroeconomic matrix and a detailed case study that of Jordan in order to analyse the development and characteristics of an Arab regulatory model Among the important issues and topics arising in the course of the analysis are the following relevance of international regulatory standards to Arab securities markets mandatory versus voluntary securities disclosure the fundamentals of the Islamic financial system role of riba and gharar nature and impact of Shari'a's unquantifiable juridical risks on the modus operandi of Arab securities markets macroeconomic adjustment policies and structural adjustment programmes in several Arab countries recent economic and Arab capital markets impact in the wake of the Arab Spring extent of different countries reliance on Shari'a as a constitutional source constitutional challenges to the imposition of interest the need for the positive law to compel securities disclosure under Shari'a shareholders remedies when suing for fraud or negligent misstatements liability for misleading or inaccurate disclosure under the general law of the UK and a selected Arab jurisdiction prospectus liability under the statutory regime of the UK and an Arab regulatory regime bars to rescission of contract Comparative UK and Shari'a aspects and Arab UK regulatory agencies enforcement prosecutorial administrative and civil remedies The author closely examines various instruments deployed for conveying securities disclosure and dissemination of information and looks extensively at relevant rulings as enunciated by an Arab court of cassation He then constructs a model of an effective securities disclosure regime in order to provide better investor protection for shareholders under Shari'a Among the strengths of Dr Lu'ayy Minwer Al-Rimawi's book is the fact that at all times he adopts a comparative approach not only as between different Arab systems but also with an appreciation of the legal position in the UK and the European Union and elsewhere The Hon Mr Justice Sir William Blair Q C High Court Judge in the UK and Chairman of the Qatar Financial Centre Regulatory Tribunal As the first in depth discussion of the regulation of Arab capital markets in English with an eye to international standards and the policy issues involved and with attention focused on the central question of how the law can properly protect investors this book will commend itself to all those with an interest in securities markets in the Arab world

Private Capital Flows to Developing Countries, 1997 This book analyzes the process of international financial integration and the structural forces driving private capital to developing countries Against this background it details the potential benefits of integration and the implications of fast moving global capital flows for emerging economics Examining the experience of countries that have attracted substantial private capital flows the book provides invaluable guidance as to what works and what doesn't during the transition to financial integration It will be of compelling interest to policymakers and also to international investors and bankers financial analysts and researchers

The Economics of Financial Reform in Developing Countries Wilbert O. Bascom, 2016-07-27 Developing countries financial sector has been affected by a troubled macroeconomic environment and repressive policies To improve their financial sector performance some governments have responded with financial reform policies which have succeeded in only a few but failed in several countries This book identifies the challenges and solutions for policymakers and financial managers in countries implementing financial reform policies It analyzes the anatomy of success and failure of reform and argues for sound financial regulation and supervision in these countries

Global Stock Market Development Marcin Kalinowski, 2021-09-27 In the current era of globalised financial markets the stock market cannot be assessed solely by comparing quantitative features such as the number of listed companies or capitalisation on the stock exchange This is of secondary importance from an investor's point of view What is important however is how a given stock market behaves towards the environment whether it is hyperactive or excessively lethargic in response to information This book provides an innovative tool for assessing global stock markets It describes the complex concept of stock market development in light of classical and behavioural finance theories and considers both quantitative the number of listed companies turnover etc and behavioural aspects price volatility the behaviour of fundamental indicators of listed companies Based on an innovative method for assessing development the author analyses 130 stock markets indicating those that are more developed in terms of quantity and behaviour Ultimately this enables the assessment of which markets are more or less developed and why This knowledge used properly offers an advantage over other financial market participants and allows for the comprehensive assessment of individual stock markets which can support the process of making good investment decisions The book is an invaluable resource for research fellows and students in economics particularly the field of finance It is also addressed to business and stock market practitioners such as financial market analysts brokers and investment advisers

The Stock Market and the Financing of Corporate Growth in Africa Charles Amo Yartey, 2006-09-01 This paper examines the corporate financing pattern in Ghana In particular it investigates whether Singh's theoretically anomalous findings that developing country firms make considerably more use of external finance and new equity issues than developed country firms to finance asset growth hold in the case of Ghana Replicating Singh's methodology our results show that compared with corporations in advanced countries the average listed Ghanaian firm finances its growth of total assets mainly from short term debt The stock market however is the most important source of long term finance for listed Ghanaian firms Overall the evidence in this paper suggests that the stock market is a surprisingly important source of finance for funding corporate growth and that stock market development in Ghana has been important
