Heterotopia in Angela Carter's Fiction: Worlds in Collision Eliza Claudia Filimon, 2013 Angela Carter's work is a collage of discourses and genres The challenge of finding a critical framework complex and accurate enough to classify her work has remained The spectacular and the pragmatic threads of her texts framed by extreme seriousness and witty humour are unravelled with the help of a different metaphor denoting enigmatic spaces counterdiscourses borders of otherness heterotopia Five novels out of nine five short stories out of thirty five as well as Carter's two film adaptations are filtered through a term extricated from its medical and geographical roots which emphasizes the ambiguity as well as the dialogic interaction of Angela Carter's often discordant discourses that have kept her at the top of the literary canon Robin Wood on the Horror Film Robin Wood, 2018-11-12 Robin Wood's writing on the horror film published over five decades collected in one volume Robin Wood one of the foremost critics of cinema has laid the groundwork for anyone writing about the horror film in the last half century Wood's interest in horror spanned his entire career and was a form of popular cinema to which he devoted unwavering attention Robin Wood on the Horror Film Collected Essays and Reviews compiles over fifty years of his groundbreaking critiques In September 1979 Wood and Richard Lippe programmed an extensive series of horror films for the Toronto International Film Festival and edited a companion piece The American Nightmare Essays on the Horror Film the first serious collection of critical writing on the horror genre Robin Wood on the Horror Film now contains all of Wood's writings from The American Nightmare and nearly everything else he wrote over the years on horror published in a range of journals and magazines gathered together for the first time It begins with the first essay Wood ever published Psychoanalysis of Psycho which appeared in 1960 and already anticipated many of the ideas explored later in his touchstone book Hitchcock's Films The volume ends fittingly with What Lies Beneath written almost five decades later an essay in which Wood reflects on the state of the horror film and criticism since the genre's renaissance in the 1970s Wood's prose is eloquent lucid and convincing as he brings together his parallel interests in genre authorship and ideology Deftly combining Marxist Freudian and feminist theory Wood's prolonged attention to classic and contemporary horror films explains much about the genre's meanings and cultural functions Robin Wood on the Horror Film will be an essential addition to the library of anyone interested in horror science fiction and film genre The Poetical Works of Sir Walter Scott Walter Scott, 1882 Record of the Year, 1876 The British and Irish Short Story Handbook David Malcolm, 2012-01-12 The British and Irish Short Story Handbook guides readers through the development of the short story and the unique critical issues involved in discussions of short fiction It includes a wide ranging analysis of non canonical and non realist writers as well as the major authors and their works providing a comprehensive and much needed appraisal of this area Guides readers through the development of the short story and critical issues involved in discussions of short fiction Offers a detailed discussion of the range of genres in the British and Irish short story Includes extensive analysis of non canonical writers such as Hubert Crackanthorpe Ella D Arcy T F Powys A E Coppard Julian Maclaren Ross Mollie Panter Downes Denton Welch and Sylvia Townsend Warner Provide a wide ranging discussion of non realist and experimental short stories Includes a large section on the British short story in the Second World War The Musician, 1910 Translations and Other Rhymes Henry Charles Lea, 1882 Child of the Hunt Christopher Golden, Nancy Holder, 2018-05-01 EVIL THINGS COME IN SMALL PACKAGES Jousting contests human chess matches lords and ladies and beggars a traveling Renaissance fair has come to Sunnydale The fair may seem terminally uncool but Buffy and her friends are charmed anyway Especially by a sad eyed boy named Roland who serves as the court jester Unfortunately the people from the fair are not the only visitors in Sunnydale Roaming the countryside are nasty little creatures with a taste for flesh the dark faerie They are minions of the Wild Hunt servants of the evil Erl King Buffy's challenge is to annihilate the king and his murderous horde But the path to his destruction leads straight to Roland who is not quite human and destined to become the Slayer's mortal adversary The Poetical Works of Sir Walter Scott, Bart. ...
