Five Years On St Simons A Sequel To Return To St Simons:

Five Years on St. Simons Carol Ashmore, 2003-07 The Darien Journal of John Girardeau Legare, Ricegrower John Girardeau Legare, 2012-07-01 In 1877 John Girardeau Legare of Adams Run South Carolina arrived in Darien on the Georgia tidewater Legare managed Darien area rice plantations first at Generals Island then at Champneys Nearby was Butler s Island made famous by Fanny Kemble Butler in her antebellum Journal of a Residence on a Georgian Plantation Legare also served as the clerk of the city of Darien during the first three decades of the twentieth century maintaining detailed records of public business and documenting local commercial and civic affairs Almost to the day of his death in 1932 Legare kept a journal containing his observations and commentary on the development of Darien as a center for timber exports and the gradual decline of the rice industry South Carolina and Georgia led the world in rice production in the mid nineteenth century and Legare's detailed accounts of planting and management provide one of the outstanding contemporary sources for what was becoming a vanishing way of life in tidewater Georgia Legare's journals are a microcosmic history of Darien and its environs during a time that was perhaps the most compelling in the town s history. The industrial development of Darien in the postbellum era was the essence of Henry Grady's vision of the progressive New South a factor not lost on Legare He reflects on the difficulties associated with rice planting Darien's soaring then plummeting fortunes with yellow pine timber prominent community members and the development of local railroads Legare records these developments against the larger backdrop of America as his journal contains many observations on contemporary national events Buddy Sullivan has placed the Journal in context with an introduction and comprehensive endnotes identifying the people and events referred to by Legare There is also considerable African American history in the volume as reflected both in Legare's writings and in the editor s introduction and supplementary notes Wood Preserving News ,1925 Report of the Secretary of the Senate from ... United States. Congress. Senate,1981-10 Political Economy and Industrialism Gilles Jacoud, 2010-04-05 The French philosopher and economist Saint Simon 1760 1825 propounded a new political economic and social order in which the quest for economic efficiency and social justice led to putting the workers at the forefront On his death his disciples worked to preserve his thought and developed it in numerous writings This book explains why the Saint Simonians could not be content with the existing economic and social order and how they planned to organise society and the role banks were to play in it It contains a selection of old texts written by the main Saint Simonian thinkers published in the press in French between 1826 and 1831 which show the Saint Simonian conception of the organisation of society and the place allotted to banks It is an indispensable reference work in understanding a current of thought which greatly contributed to the industrial expansion of the nineteenth century This book will be of interest to postgraduate students economists historians and philosophers interested in the history of economic thought Report of the Secretary of the Senate from April 1, 2005 to September 30, 2005 United States.
