Flat Out:

Flat Out Rocky Robinson, 2007 The story of how Robinson broke one of the toughest records in the world the motorcycle land speed record and faced his greatest challenge at his greatest moment of triumph Mind and Supermind Keith Frankish, 2004-09-16 Mind and Supermind offers an alternative perspective on the nature of belief and the structure of the human mind Keith Frankish argues that the folk psychological term belief refers to two distinct types of mental state which have different properties and support different kinds of mental explanation Building on this claim he develops a picture of the human mind as a two level structure consisting of a basic mind and a supermind and shows how the resulting account sheds light on a number of puzzling phenomena and helps to vindicate folk psychology Topics discussed include the function of conscious thought the cognitive role of natural language the relation between partial and flat out belief the possibility of active belief formation and the nature of akrasia self deception and first person authority This book will be valuable for philosophers psychologists and cognitive scientists The New Rules of Management Peter Cook, 2013-06-24 A guide for modern organisations about optimising productivity creating a culture of innovation and building high performing teams It's time to stop managing and start implementing The New Rules of Management is about creating and implementing projects that truly matter because even the best ideas projects and objectives mean nothing until they are executed In truth most organisations aren't designed to successfully implement long term projects but successfully implementing the projects that matter is the key to long term success In this book you'll learn how to successfully manage yourself your teams and your entire organisation to create and execute engaging vital projects that people and teams care about When you do implementation right success becomes a given on the personal team and organisational levels So if you want your business to succeed it's time to implement the projects that truly matter Start now with The New Rules of Management A management guide to building engagement and innovation in any organisation Written by a master business coach mentor entrepreneur thought leader and popular public speaker Ideal for business leaders and managers who want to take their organisations into the twenty first century Women Exiting Prison Bree Carlton, Marie Segrave, 2013-05-02 Women's incarceration is on the rise globally and this has significant intergenerational economic and humanitarian costs for communities across the world While there have been efforts to implement reform particularly in countries such as Canada UK US and Australia the growing evidence suggests women's prisons and the support structures surrounding them are in crisis This collection of critical essays presents groundbreaking research on women's post imprisonment policy practice and experiences It is the first collection to offer international perspectives on gender criminalisation the effects of imprisonment and women centred approaches to the short and long term support of women exiting prison It offers cutting edge insights into contemporary policy developments and women's experiences across the US the UK Australia Canada and Northern Ireland The collection makes two important contributions First it marks a departure from an instrumental and individual focus on what works to reduce women's offending and re-offending behaviour a prevailing approach within competing collections focused on post release issues Second it presents critical original research with robust empirical foundations to revive feminist criminological engagement around gender imprisonment and most critically post release management support and survival The collection will appeal to academics and community based advocates activists lawyers and practitioners engaged in advocacy and service provision for imprisoned women It is also an important and unique analysis for undergraduate and postgraduate students studying criminological and social science courses particularly those related to gender and crime imprisonment and correctional policy and qualitative research methods
