Keaton's Silent Shorts Gabriella Oldham, 2010-08-20 Filling a major gap in the critical canon Keaton's Classic Shorts Beyond the Laughter chronicles the rapid growth in the filmmaker's understanding of what makes both comedy and film successful Keaton developed his major themes in these nineteen silent short films shot between 1920 and 1923 creating his persona Buster with his trademark stone face These short films clearly indicate Keaton's love of the camera and his concern for composition symmetry and images that delight the eye and startle the mind Oldham reconstructs each of these rarely seen films to enable the reader to watch Keaton's performance devoting a separate chapter to each She analyzes each film's strengths weaknesses and prevalent themes and threads She also enables readers to plumb the depths of what seems to be surface comedy through philosophical biographical historical and critical commentary thus linking the shorts together into a cohesive study of Buster Keaton's growth through his three year independent venture as a filmmaker Beyond the laughter and beyond the great stone face Oldham presents a treasure of cinema comedy and a unique philosophy of life as captured by a great filmmaker

Buster Keaton's Crew Lisle Foote, 2014-11-19 Buster Keaton told an interviewer in 1965 When I'm working alone the cameraman the prop man the electrician these are my eyes out there They knew what they were talking about Drawn from film trade magazines newspapers interviews and public records this book tells the previously unpublished stories of the behind the scenes crew who worked on Keaton's silent films like Elgin Lessley who went from department store clerk to chief cameraman and Fred Gabourie who served as an army private in the Spanish American War before he became Keaton's technical director I'd ask Did that work the way I wanted it to and they'd say yes or no Keaton said of his crew He couldn't have made his films without them Keaton's Lessons [Brac Village 6] Lynn Hagen, Buster Keaton's Silent

Shorts James L. Neibaur, Terri Niemi, 2013-01-30 By the mid 1920s Buster Keaton had established himself as one of the geniuses of cinema with such films as Sherlock Jr The Navigator and his 1927 work The General But before Keaton ventured into longer works however he honed his skills as an actor writer and director of short films Editor The Counterfeiters

Hugh Kenner, 2005 Wide ranging enough to encompass Buster Keaton Charles Babbage horses and a man riding a bicycle while wearing a gas mask The Counterfeiters is one of Hugh Kenner's greatest achievements In this fascinating work of literary and cultural criticism Kenner seeks the causes and outcomes of man's ability to simulate himself a computer that can calculate quicker than we can and his world a mechanical duck that acts the same as a living one This intertangling of art and science of man and machine of machine and art is at the heart of this book He argues that the belief in art as a uniquely human expression is complicated and questioned by the prevalence of simulations or counterfeits in our culture Kenner with his characteristically accessible style and wit brings together history literature science and art to locate the personal in what is an increasingly counterfeit world Law Enforcement in American Cinema, 1894-1952 George Beck, 2020-10-22

Widespread law enforcement or formal policing outside of cities appeared in the early 20th century around the same time the early film industry was developing the two evolved in tandem intersecting in meaningful ways Much scholarship has focused on portrayals of the criminal in early American cinema yet little has been written about depictions of the criminal s antagonist This history examines how different on screen representations shifted public perception of law enforcement initially seen as a suspicious or intrusive institution then as a power for the common good

Are You Watching Closely? Seth Friedman,2017-08-15 Are You Watching Closely is the first book to explore the recent spate of misdirection films a previously unidentified Hollywood genre characterized by narratives that inspire viewers to reinterpret them retrospectively Since 1990 Hollywood has backed more of these films than ever before many of which including The Sixth Sense 1999 A Beautiful Mind 2001 and Inception 2010 were both commercial and critical successes Seth Friedman examines this genre in its sociocultural industrial and technological contexts to explain why it has become more attractive to producers and audiences The recent popularity of misdirection films Friedman argues is linked to new technologies that enable repeat viewings and online discussion which makes it enticing to an industry that depends increasingly on the aftermarket as well as to historically specific cultural developments That is in addition to being well suited for shifting industrial and technological conditions these films are appealing because they suggest that it remains possible to know what actually occurred and who was really responsible for events at a time when it is also becoming increasingly recognized that truth is relative Are You Watching Closely shows how Hollywood s effective strategies for these changing circumstances put it at the forefront of a storytelling trend that has increasingly become important across media Through close analyses of how misdirection films have been designed marketed and received in relation to their contexts Friedman demonstrates the ways in which they epitomize a kind of narrative experimentation that has become a crucial facet of twenty first century audiovisual storytelling

Buster Keaton Buster Keaton,2007 With his trademark porkpie hat floppy shoes and deadpan facial expression Buster Keaton 1895 1966 is one of the most iconic stars of Hollywood s silent and early sound eras His elaborate sets careful camerawork and risky pratfalls have been mimicked by film comedians for generations His short films including One Week and Cops and his feature length comedies such as Sherlock Jr Go West and The General routinely appear on critics lists of the greatest films of all time Buster Keaton Interviews collects interviews from the beginning of his career in the 1920s to the year before his death The pieces here provide a critical perspective on his acting and cinematic techniques Although the collection begins in the 1920s at the height of Keaton s career they also give insight on his work in Hollywood and television throughout the 1950s and 1960s Including pieces by Studs Terkel and Rex Reed as well as a French interview that has never before appeared in English the book is a valuable resource on one of cinema s early geniuses Kevin W Sweeney is associate professor of philosophy at the University of Tampa

The Theater and Cinema of Buster Keaton Robert Knopf,2018-06-05 Famous for their stunts gags and images Buster Keaton s silent films have enticed everyone from Hollywood movie fans to the surrealists such as Dal and Bu uel Here Robert Knopf offers an unprecedented look at the wide ranging appeal of Keaton s genius considering his vaudeville roots and his ability to integrate this aesthetic into the techniques of classical Hollywood cinema in the 1920s When young Buster was being hurled about the stage by his comically irate father in the family's vaudeville act The Three Keatons he was perfecting his acrobatic skills timing visual humor and trademark stone face As Knopf demonstrates such theatrics would serve Keaton well as a film director and star By isolating elements of vaudeville within works that have previously been considered classical Knopf reevaluates Keaton's films and how they function The book combines vivid visual descriptions and illustrations that enable us to see Keaton at work staging his memorable images and gags such as a three story wall collapsing on him Steamboat Bill Jr 1928 and an avalanche of boulders chasing him down a mountainside Seven Chances 1925 Knopf explains how Keaton's stunts and gags served as fanciful departures from his films storylines and how they nonetheless reinforced a strange sense of reality that of a machine like world with a mind of its own In comparison to Chaplin and Lloyd Keaton made more elaborate use of natural locations The scene in The Navigator for example where Buster brandishes a swordfish to fend off another swordfish derives much of its power from actually being shot under water Such hyper literalism was but one element of Keaton's films that inspired the surrealists Exploring Keaton's influence on Salvador Dalí Luis Buñuel Federico García Lorca and Robert Desnos Knopf suggests that Keaton's achievement extends beyond Hollywood into the avant garde The book concludes with an examination of Keaton's late career performances in Gerald Potterton's The Railrodder and Samuel Beckett's Film and locates his legacy in the work of Jackie Chan Blue Man Group and Bill Irwin
