Raschka, 2002-01      Hearing Double Brian Kane, 2024 When we talk about a jazz standard we usually mean one of the many songs that jazz musicians repeatedly play But unlike classical musical works standards are always being transformed in performance They are rearranged and improvised which raises the question what gives a standard its identity Hearing Double answers that question Filled with case studies and music analysis this book will draw your attention to unheard aspects of jazz performance as well as unrecognized philosophical social and cultural dimensions of the jazz repertoire

Jazz Matters David Ake, 2010-10-07 What where and when is jazz To most of us jazz means small combos made up mostly of men performing improvisationally in urban club venues But jazz has been through many changes in the decades since World War II emerging in unexpected places and incorporating a wide range of new styles In this engrossing new book David Ake expands on the discussion he began in Jazz Cultures lending his engaging thoughtful and stimulating perspective to post 1940s jazz Ake investigates such issues as improvisational analysis pedagogy American exceptionalism and sense of place in jazz He uses provocative case studies to illustrate how some of the values ascribed to the postwar jazz culture are reflected in and fundamentally shaped by aspects of sound location and time      Re-Composing YouTube Jonas Wolf, 2024-09-03

YouTube features a wide array of multimodal musical figurations including fan made music videos musical aestheticisations of pre circulating content and musical self performances Jonas Wolf explores open ended forms of musical creative relay on YouTube delving into formal imitative affective and non institutional aspects of networked media remix and self aestheticisation Beyond creating value for non musical fields of discourse this study is directed at filling a gap in a largely ocularcentric domain of study It provides a concise theory of vernacular composition within our time s total digital archive
