Girl From Addis:

The Girl in the Pandemic Claudia Mitchell, Ann Smith, 2023-04-14 As seen in previous pandemics girls and young women are particularly vulnerable as social issues such as homelessness mental healthcare access to education and child labor are often exacerbated The Girl in the Pandemic considers what academics community activists and those working in local national and global NGOs are learning about the lives of girls and young women during pandemics Drawing from a range of responses during the pandemic including first person narratives community ethnographies and participatory action research this collection offers a picture of how the COVID 19 pandemic played out in eight different countries Child Protection in Development Michael Bourdillon, William Myers, 2014-06-11 Every day millions of children in developing countries face adversities of many kinds yet there is a shortage of sound evidence concerning their plight and an urgent need to identify the most appropriate and effective policy responses from among the multiple approaches that exist This collection of journal papers aims to engage with researchers and debates in the field so as to understand better some of the numerous risks confronted by children in developing countries It highlights the complexity of protecting children in various forms of adversity challenges conventional wisdom about what protects children demonstrates why it is essential to consult with children to protect them successfully and suggests that successful protection must be based on strong empirical understanding of the situation and the perspectives of children and communities involved The contributors are all experienced researchers and practitioners who have worked for many years with children in developing countries The book offers suggestions for reform of current child protection policies based on empirical findings around a range of child protection concerns including children s work independent migration family separation early marriage and military occupation Together the contributions provide a body of knowledge important to humanitarian and development policy and practice This book was published as a special issue of Development in Practice A Lovely Girl's Fetters Mrs. Simon B. Paige, 1884 Adolescent Girls' Migration in The Global South Katarzyna Grabska, Marina de Regt, Nicoletta Del Franco, 2018-09-26 This book provides a nuanced complex comparative analysis of adolescent girls migration and mobility in the Global South The stories and the narratives of migrant girls collected in Bangladesh Ethiopia and Sudan guide the readers in drawing the contours of their lives on the move a complex fluid scenario of choices constraints setbacks risks aspirations and experiences in which internal or international migration plays a pivotal role The main argument of the book is that migration of adolescent girls intersects with other important transitions in their lives such as those related to education work marriage and childbearing and that this affects their transition into adulthood in various ways While migration is sometimes negative it can also offer girls new and better opportunities with positive implications for their future lives The book explores also how concepts of adolescence and adulthood for girls are being transformed in the context of migration People and Things from the Cullman, Alabama, Tribune 1933 - 1937 Robin Sterling, 2019-07-12 By the turn of the 20th Century Cullman was firmly established as the preeminent settlement in the hill country between the Tennessee Valley and the mineral region surrounding Birmingham. The Cullman Alabama Tribune continued to record news of the development of the city, county and surrounding region. As with the first five books of this series, microfilm was obtained from the State Archives in Montgomery and Wallace College at Hanceville and reviewed, but the originals from the Cullman County Court House were the primary source. A page by page examination of the film and originals was conducted with every birth, death, marriage, obituary and some news items important to the history and development of Cullman County recorded. This book is important to any genealogist or historian with connections to Cullman County and contains many rare accounts and mentions of the earliest settlers of the region.

The Power of Continuity Eva Poluha, 2004. In this gracefully written book, Dr. Eva Poluha wrestles with important issues of Ethiopian political culture and cultural continuity and transmission in general. Drawing upon her years of experience in the country as well as the data from this school ethnography, she has produced a stimulating and thought-provoking work for those interested in problems of cross-cultural education as well as in Ethiopia.

Herbert S. Lewis, Professor Emeritus, Department of Anthropology, University of Wisconsin-Madison. Children play a vital role as a source of information on politics but have been neglected as political actors in research contexts. In this study, children are used as a window to an Ethiopian society where hierarchical relations persist despite the numerous political and administrative transformations of the past century. With data gathered through participant observation, the book examines how young Addis Ababa school children learn to adapt to and reproduce relations of superordination or subordination based on gender, age, strength and social position. The children's experiences are viewed in the historical context of state-citizen relations where hierarchy and obsession with control have been and continue to be dominant. The discussion focuses on the power of continuity in the reproduction of cultural patterns and political behaviour and on how change towards more egalitarian relations could come about.

The boy is sent away from the house and from his mother, Bertha, a household slave, after the accident. The boy soon

Revolutionary Struggles and Girls' Education Thera Mjaaland,2021-07-27 Revolutionary Struggles and Girls Education At the Frontiers of Gender Norms in North Ethiopia argues that at the base of girls poorer performance than boys at secondary school level when puberty has set in is the symbolic violence entailed in sanctioned femaleness Informed by the modesty of Virgin Mary in Orthodox Christian veneration it instructs girls to internalize a holding back which impinges on her self efficacy and ability to be an active learner Neoliberally informed educational policies and plans which have co opted liberal feminism also in Ethiopia do not address hard lived gender norms and the power and domination dynamics entailed when parity between boys and girls in school continues to be the dominant measure for equity Despite women s courageous contribution at a literal frontier during the Tigrayan liberation struggle 1975 91 where they fought on equal terms with men and despite the tendency that girls outnumber boys at secondary level in the present context sanctioned femaleness constitutes a frontier for girls educational success and transition to higher education In fact when teaching learning continues to be based on memorization rather than critical thinking the very transformative potential of education is undermined also in a gendered sense

The Making of Elite Women Tanja Müller,2021-11-29 This book is a thorough study about the upcoming of elite women in Eritrea encompassing the time of the armed struggle for liberation as well as its aftermath up to the tenth anniversary of Eritrean independence in 2001 and beyond It is a multi disciplinary study combining a comprehensive analysis of Eritrean history society and political developments with extensive case study research into the lives of different groups of elite women Modernisation processes created by the Eritrean revolution fostered an environment in which women are regarded as equal and encouraged to occupy positions of leadership At the same time the revolution s hegemonic ideology does not envisage women opting out of its version of modernity thus new avenues open up only for those who subscribe to the revolution s narrative of progress Furthermore it is argued that while the Eritrean revolution played a decisive role in opening up possibilities for women s emancipation a failure to implement democratic structures of governance puts the revolution s societal achievements at risk its legacy might well rest with possibilities of personal liberation in individual lives
