Idiots First:

Idiots First Bernard Malamud, 1972 Short stories and a scene from a play A Study Guide for Bernard Malamud's "Idiots First" Gale, Cengage Learning, A Study Guide for Bernard Malamud's Idiots First excerpted from Gale's acclaimed Short Stories for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Short Stories for Students for all of your research needs Idiots First, by Bernard Malamud Guy Davenport, 1963 God: Stories C. Michael Curtis, 2003 A collection of stories on God In Made in Heaven by John Updike a non believer finds himself attracted to believers while in Parker's Back by Flannery O'Connor an estranged husband has himself tattooed with the picture of Jesus to get into the good books of his religious wife Ethnic Identities in Bernard Malamud's Fiction Martín Urdiales Shaw, 2000 The present study has been divided into five general chapters each of which is centred around a basic issue related to ethnic identities This central issue may be more or less specific largely depending on its nature and on the corpus it comprises for example chapter two which bears the general title the old country and the New World is naturally the most extensive because of the great scope of this theme and the number of works it involves two novels and a considerable number of stories including the very long Man in the Drawer By contrast the last chapter entitled Beyond Race into Myth Seeking the Liberation of the Self is logically the shortest because its focus is restricted to a particular function of ethnic identities metaphorically speaking in Malamud's fantastic works the novel God's Grace and one short story Similar proportions between length complexity of theme and corpus treated are maintained in the three central chapters which focus on ethnic aspects which are neither as general as chapter two nor as specific as chapter six Creating Born Criminals Nicole Hahn Rafter, 1997 But Creating Born Criminals is much more than a look at the past It is an exploration of the role of biological explanation as a form of discourse and of its impact upon society While The Bell Curve and other recent books have stopped short of making eugenic recommendations their contentions point toward eugenic conclusions and people familiar with the history of eugenics can hear in them its echoes Rafter demonstrates that we need to know how eugenic reasoning worked in the past and that we must recognize the dangers posed by the dominance of a theory that interprets social problems in biological terms and difference as biological inferiority Marc Blitzstein Leonard Lehrman, 2005-09-30 Marc Blitzstein was one of the 20th century's most important American composers lyricists and critics often credited with having virtually invented opera in the American vernacular Called the father of American opera in the vernacular by luminaries Aaron Copland and Leonard Bernstein Blitzstein was a masterful pianist coach and accompanist though ironically he made more money on the lyrics to one song Mack the Knife than on everything else he ever did Blitzstein's brilliant career was cut short in 1964 when he died at the age of 58 This book catalogs Blitzstein's own writings and writings about him followed by detailed listings chronological alphabetical and genre analysis a comprehensive performance history and summaries of all

known critiques of his 128 original musical works and 18 texts set to the music of others Shown in detail are the ways in which Blitzstein took music from his earlier works and developed it in later works a process that Lehrman utilized in completing with Bernstein's and the Estate's approval 20 Blitzstein works for performance including The Cradle Will Rock I've Got the Tune No for an Answer Idiot's First and Sacco and Vanzetti which Blitzstein believed would be his magnum opus The book provides a unique and full perspective on the works of one of America's greatest composers one who deserves to be better known Idiot's First Bernard Malamud,1980 Marc Blitzstein Howard Pollack,2012-09-05 A composer and lyricist of enormous innovation and influence Marc Blitzstein remains one of the most versatile and fascinating figures in the history of American music his creative output running the gamut from films scores and Broadway operas to art songs and chamber pieces A prominent leftist and social maverick Blitzstein constantly pushed the boundaries of convention in mid century America in both his work and his life Award winning music historian Howard Pollack's new biography covers Blitzstein's life in full from his childhood in Philadelphia to his violent death in Martinique at age 58 The author describes how this student of contemporary luminaries Nadia Boulanger and Arnold Schoenberg became swept up in the stormy political atmosphere of the 1920s and 1930s and throughout his career walked the fine line between his formal training and his populist principles Indeed Blitzstein developed a unique sound that drew on everything contemporary from the high modernism of Stravinsky and Hindemith to jazz and Broadway show tunes Pollack captures the astonishing breadth of Blitzstein's work from provocative operas like The Cradle Will Rock No for an Answer and Regina to the wartime Airborne Symphony composed during his years in service to lesser known ballets film scores and stage works A courageous artist Blitzstein translated Bertolt Brecht and Kurt Weill's The Threepenny Opera during the heyday of McCarthyism and the red scare and turned it into an off Broadway sensation its Mack the Knife becoming one of the era's biggest hits Beautifully written drawing on new interviews with friends and family of the composer and making extensive use of new archival and secondary sources Marc Blitzstein presents the most complete biography of this important American artist Executive Documents Ohio,1858
