Inoperative Community:

The Inoperative Community Jean-Luc Nancy, 1991 A collection of five essays of French philosopher Nancy originally published in 1985 86 The Inoperative Community Myth Interpreted Literary Communism Shattered Love and Of Divine Places A paper edition 1924 7 is available for 14 95 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR The

Fragmentary Demand Ian James, 2006 This introduction to the philosophy of Jean Luc Nancy gives an overview of his philosophical thought to date and situates it within the broader context of contemporary French and European thinking The book examines Nancy's philosophy in relation to five specific areas his account of subjectivity his understanding of space and spatiality his thinking about the body and embodiment his political thought and his contribution to contemporary aesthetics In each case it shows the way in which Nancy develops or moves beyond some of the key concerns associated with phenomenology post structuralism and what could broadly be termed the post modern The Inoperative Community

Jean-Luc Nancy, 1991 Constructing Community Brian Elliott, 2010-08-20 Constructing Community examines community from the particular perspective of the shaping and control of urban space in contemporary liberal democracies Following a consideration and critique of influential theories of community that have arisen within European philosophy over the last three decades Brian Elliott investigates parallel approaches to community within urban theory and practice over the same period Underlying the comparison of political theory and urban practice is a basic assumption that community and place are intimately connected such that the one cannot be adequately understood without the other The underlying intention of this book is to advocate a particular understanding of community one that centers on collective grassroots oppositional action While it draws on certain current theories and practices the model of community put forward is far from the orthodox position This study is a provocative and original analysis of the question of urban politics in contemporary liberal democracies It offers a strong case for reconsidering current debates on democratic politics in light of the connection between political power and the control of public space and the built environment India and Civilizational Futures Vinay Lal, 2019-07-10 This second volume based on the deliberations of the Backwaters Collective puts into serious question the most familiar categories that have informed humanistic inquiry and social science research until now The contributors probe how the intellectual and cultural resources of Indic civilization might be deployed to introduce greater plurality into the world of modern knowledge systems and reinitiate metaphysics into the discourses of politics with the hope that similar inquiries will in future be extended across the Global South The chapters offer newer perspectives on India's past and intellectual traditions and suggest how we might liberate ourselves from the straightjackets of history development normal politics the nation state and what globally passes for common sense in various spheres of life and thought While some contributors engage with a few figures who have been critical in shaping India's intellectual life such as Kabir Narayana Guru Ambedkar Tagore and Gandhi others bring into the limelight equally compelling if somewhat neglected figures such as

Rahul Sankrityayan Ranade and T R V Murti Conceptual papers on intercommunality South Asian ideas of hospitality and mnemocultural modes of learning complete the volume Atheism and Love in the Modern Era Colby Dickinson, 2025-04-17

Discussing the decline of faith and the rise of love in the modern era Colby Dickinson proposes a critique of religious belief which addresses how a secular world can continue to mine religious traditions for their conceptual and emotional riches

Atheism and Love in the Modern Era argues that theism and atheism taken together can peel back the layers of abstraction alienation and disillusionment that always accompany our humanity in order to help us really see how it is to exist in this world To illuminate this vision Dickinson takes up the notion of love as a cultivation and practice of indifference as a letting go of one's identity a crucial concept that unites both religion and atheism through a concerted effort to detach from them both The book is organized into four sections each situating the concept of love in relation to a distinct theme the first outlines modern secularized versions of various religious concepts such as technology in the place of miracles or art in the place of religious revelation The second argues that in a pluralistic world the actual lived realities of various religious communities and persons defy the static categories and classifications grouped under the umbrella of religion The third section discusses and defines non absolute love The fourth section discusses how atheism in its critiques of religion misses the significance of de centring the act of love Dickinson elaborates his reflections through lucid engagement with a variety of thinkers including i ek Agamben Irigaray Derrida Erich Fromm Charles Taylor and Philip Kitcher This is essential reading for those interested in popular debates around theism and atheism as well as those concerned with the ways in which continental and analytic philosophy have addressed the continued significance of religious traditions Monumental Space in the Post-Imperial Novel Rita Sakr, 2011-12-01 There has been a proliferation in recent scholarship of studies of monuments and their histories and of theoretical positions that shed light on aspects of their meanings However just as monuments mark their territory by attempting to ensure the existence of boundaries so these discourses set a boundary between their authority as platforms on which the interpretation of monumental space occurs and in this respect the different authority of the novel This study crosses this boundary by means of dynamic interdisciplinary movements between selected novels by James Joyce Yukio Mishima Rashid al Daif and Orhan Pamuk on the one hand and various theoretical perspectives history and cultural geography on the other Through the specific choice of literary texts that represent monumental space in a typical post imperial geopolitical contexts Monumental Space and the Post Imperial Novel brings into question many postcolonial paradigms Sakr establishes a two way interpretive methodology between theory history and cultural geography and the novel that serves as the groundwork for innovative interdisciplinary readings of monumental space A Postmodern Theology of Ritual Action Jonathan L. Best, 2019-02-26 A Postmodern Theology of Ritual Action is a unique work that seeks to explore where we find meaning within ritual and actions within the church Bridging hermeneutics philosophy and postmodern thought this work seeks to explore how to do theology with the community through conversation Beginning with the mindset that meaning is already present within ritual action rather than outside it Best engages the practice of foot washing among the Original Free Will Baptist denomination of eastern North Carolina Foot washing suggests a new future for theology a future that models love service and acceptance Incorporating insights gained from conversing with philosophy theology and the Original Free Will Baptists foot washing points toward a future relational practical theology A Postmodern Theology of Ritual Action is a captivating work that draws from both philosophers and theologians to show that we can learn much by listening to the voices of religious practitioners

The Disavowed Community Jean-Luc Nancy, 2016-09-01 Over thirty years after Maurice Blanchot writes The Unavowable Community 1983 a book that offered a critical response to an early essay by Jean Luc Nancy on the inoperative community Nancy responds in turn with The Disavowed Community Stemming from Jean Christophe Bailly's initial proposal to think community in terms of number or the numerous and unfolding as a close reading of Blanchot's text Nancy's new book addresses a range of themes and motifs that mark both his proximity to and distance from Blanchot's thinking from Bataille's community of lovers to the relation between community communitarianism and being in common to Marguerite Duras to the Eucharist A key rethinking of politics and the political this exchange opens up a new understanding of community played out as a question of avowal

The End(s) of Community Joshua Ben David Nichols, 2013-09-03 This book stems from an examination of how Western philosophy has accounted for the foundations of law In this tradition the character of the sovereign or lawgiver has provided the solution to this problem But how does the sovereign acquire the right to found law As soon as we ask this question we are immediately confronted with a convoluted combination of jurisprudence and theology The author begins by tracing a lengthy and deeply nuanced exchange between Derrida and Nancy on the question of community and fraternity and then moves on to engage with a diverse set of texts from the Marquis de Sade Saint Augustine Kant Hegel and Kafka These texts which range from the canonical to the apocryphal all struggle in their own manner with the question of the foundations of law Each offers a path to the law If a reader accepts any path as it is and follows without question the law is set and determined and the possibility of dialogue is closed The aim of this book is to approach the foundations of law from a series of different angles so that we can begin to see that those foundations are always in question and open to the possibility of dialogue

The Split Economy Nimi Wariboko, 2020-11-01 Starting with Marx and Freud scholars have attempted to identify the primary ethical challenge of capitalism They have named injustice inequality repression exploitative empires and capitalism's psychic hold over all of us among other ills Nimi Wariboko instead argues that the core ethical problem of capitalism lies in the split nature of the modern economy an economy divided against itself Production is set against finance consumption against saving and the future against the present As the rich enjoy their lifestyle their fellow citizens live in servitude The economy mimics the structure of our human subjectivity as Saint Paul theorizes in Romans 7 the law constitutes the subject as split traversed by negativity The economy is split shot through with a fundamental antagonism This fundamental negativity at the core of the economy disturbs its stability and identity generating its destructive drive The Split Economy develops a robust theoretical framework at the intersection of continental philosophy psychoanalytic theory theology and political economy to reveal a fundamental dynamic at the heart of capitalism

Group Works Ethan Philbrick, 2023-04-25 An exciting new reflection on the role of artistic collaboration collectivism and the politics of group formation in the neoliberal era The artist and author Ethan Philbrick's Group Works reimagines the group by undertaking an historiographic archaeology of group aesthetics and politics Written against both phobic and romantic accounts of collectivity Group Works contends that the group emerges as a medium for artists when established forms of collective life break down Philbrick pairs group pieces in dance literature film and music from the 1960s and 1970s downtown Manhattan scene alongside a series of recent group experiments Simone Forti's dance construction Huddle 1961 is put into relation with contemporary reperformances of Forti's score and huddling as a feminist political tactic Samuel Delany's memoir of communal living Heavenly Breakfast: An Essay on the Winter of Love 1969-78 speaks to performance artist Morgan Bassichis's 2017 communal musical adaptation of Larry Mitchell's 1977 text The Faggots and Their Friends Between Revolutions Lizzie Borden's experimental documentary of feminist collectivity Regrouping 1976 sits alongside visual artist Sharon Hayes's 2014 piece on Manhattan's Pier 54 Women of the World Unite they said and Julius Eastman's insurgent piece of chamber music for four pianos Gay Guerrilla 1979 resonates alongside contemporary projects that take up Eastman's legacy by artists such as Tiona Nekkia McClodden By analyzing works that articulate the politics of race gender and sexuality as questions of group formation Philbrick approaches the group not as a stable idealizable entity but as an ambivalent way to negotiate and contest shifting terms of associational life Group Works presents an engaging exploration of what happens when small groups become a material and medium for artistic and political experimentation

The Ethics of Community Ana M. Luszczynska, 2011-12-01 The Ethics of Community initiates a conversation between continental philosophy and cultural literary studies that is long overdue Illustrating that there is a fundamental ethics in deconstructionist approaches to community that can be provocatively traced in the context of cultural considerations central to African American and U.S. Latino literature this is a book about bridging gaps Luszczynska nimbly traverses the complex terrain of preeminent French philosophers Jacques Derrida and Jean-Luc Nancy offering a valuable introduction to the ethical components of their philosophical projects Toni Morrison's Beloved and Ana Menendez's In Cuba I Was a German Shepherd serve as case studies through which Nancian community and Derridean bearing witness are elaborated As Luszczynska demonstrates Morrison's foregrounding of the distinct cultural sensibilities of her black and white characters and Menendez's preoccupation with geographical displacement and exile themselves activate a deconstructive ethics In this groundbreaking study distinct cultural understandings and contexts provide a novel way of thinking through intricacies of Nancy and Derrida's thought while revealing the potential of the novel to re-imagine ways of being in the concrete world
