Gilles Deleuze And The Ruin Of Representation:

Gilles Deleuze and the Ruin of Representation Dorothea Olkowski,1999-10-28 Item includes discussion of Mary Kelly's work

Deleuze, Bergson, Merleau-Ponty Dorothea E. Olkowski,2021-09-07 Deleuze Bergson Merleau Ponty The Logic and Pragmatics of Creation Affective Life and Perception offers the only full length examination of the relationships between Deleuze Bergson and Merleau Ponty Henri Bergson 1859 1941 Maurice Merleau Ponty 1908 1961 and Gilles Deleuze 1925 1995 succeeded one another as leading voices in French philosophy over a span of 136 years Their relationship to one another's work involved far more than their overlapping lifetimes Bergson became both the source of philosophical insight and a focus of criticism for Merleau Ponty and Deleuze Deleuze criticized Merleau Ponty's phenomenology as well as his interest in cognitive and natural science Author Dorothea Olkowski points out that each of these philosophers situated their thought in relation to their understandings of crucial developments and theories taken up in the history and philosophy of science and this has been difficult for Continental philosophy to grasp She articulates the differences between these philosophers with respect to their disparate approaches to the physical sciences and with how their views of science function in relation to their larger philosophical projects In Deleuze Bergson Merleau Ponty Olkowski examines the critical areas of the structure of time and memory the structure of consciousness and the question of humans relation to nature She reveals that these philosophers are working from inside one another's ideas and are making strong claims about time consciousness reality and their effects on humanity that converge and diverge The result is a clearer picture of the intertwined workings of Continental philosophy and its fundamental engagement with the sciences

Deleuze, Digital Media and Thought Timothy Deane-Freeman,2024-05-31 Timothy Deane Freeman traces Deleuze's remarks about the digital to reveal both their origins and implications In so doing we encounter a position which is fundamentally ambiguous On the one hand digital techniques are intimately related to what Deleuze calls societies of control which deploy them in order to close down potential spaces of creativity and resistance On the other digital images take up the mantle of cinema displacing habitual forms of cognition and forcing us to think in new ways Deane Freeman traces these dual impulses through the images of cinema television and social media as well as explicating key Deleuzian concepts including virtuality immanence and the outside

Key Thinkers from Critical Theory to Post-Marxism Simon Tormey,Jules Townshend,2006-06-19 Tormey and Townshend have succeeded not only in making accessible the notoriously evasive ideas of Post Marxist thinkers they have begun the vital work of critically examining their contribution to Marx's project of overcoming capitalism James Martin Goldsmiths University of London Excellent textbook critical challenging and thoroughly engaging Richard White Sheffield Hallam University In language which is clear without being simplistic Tormey and Townshend help readers think about ways to live with and without Marx in the wake of Marxism's historical failures as well as its continuing relevance to life under globalizing capitalism Mark Rupert Syracuse University Key Thinkers in Critical Theory to Post Marxism is a comprehensive introduction to perhaps the most key intellectual trend in contemporary critical theory In jargon free language it seeks to unpack explain and review many of the key figures behind the rethinking of the legacy of Marxism in theory and practice Key thinkers covered include Cornelius Castoriadis Jean Francois Lyotard Deleuze and Guattari Laclau and Mouffe Agnes Heller Jacques Derrida Jürgen Habermas and post Marxist feminism Each chapter covers a key thinker or contribution and thus can be read as a stand alone introduction to the principal aspects of their approach Each chapter is followed by a summary of key points with a guide to further reading Underlying the text is also the central question What is Post Marxism Instead of viewing Post Marxism as an ideology movement or tradition of theorizing the authors advocate Post Marxism as a loose appellation describing those who have problematised Marx's approach to understanding and challenging contemporary capitalism As such the book also offers an engaging commentary on some of the key political developments of our time including for example the anti globalisation movement Key Thinkers in Critical Theory to Post Marxism provides an ideal introduction to a hitherto complex subject and will be essential reading for students of contemporary social and political inquiry

Visual Art and Education in an Era of Designer Capitalism Jan Jagodzinski, 2010-10-11 This book offers a unique perspective of art and its education in designer capitalism It will contribute to the debate as to possibilities art and design hold for the future It also questions the broad technologization of art that is taking place

Differential Aesthetics Penny Florence, Nicola Foster, 2017-11-30 This title was first published in 2000 This is an interdisciplinary and international collection on aesthetics with contributions from artists and philosophers and the range of thinkers about art in between It aims to provide a forum for the kinds of question that used to be addressed within traditional aesthetics but which have until recently been sidelined in critical writing about art and indeed in many of the most important art practices The collection as a whole is situated in relation to feminists approaches but the editors hope that it will not be read as limited to them

Representing Reason Rachel Joffe Falmagne, Marjorie Hass, 2002-10-16 Philosophy's traditional man of reason independent neutral unemotional is an illusion That's because the man of reason ignores one very important thing the woman As feminist philosophy grew in the 1980s and 90s it became clear that the attributes philosophical tradition wrote off as womanly are in fact part of human nature No longer can philosophy maintain the dichotomy between the rational man and the emotional woman but must now examine a more complex human being able to reason and feel Yet feminist philosophy also makes it clear that men and women theorize the world in different ways from different perspectives Representing Reasons Feminist Theory and Formal Logic collects new and old essays that shed light on the underexplored intersection of logic and feminism The papers in this collection cross over many of the traditional divides between continental and analytic philosophy between philosophical reflection and empirical investigation and between empirical investigations with an individual or societal grain of analysis This is possible because Representing Reasons frames the relationship between logic and feminism in terms of issues rather than historical figures or methodologies As such the articles serve as a model for crossing these divides just as they break down the traditional divide between logic and feminism Deleuze and Memorial Culture Adrian

Parr,2008-03-11 Deleuze and Memorial Culture is a detailed study of contemporary forms of public remembrance Adrian Parr considers the different character traumatic memory takes throughout the sphere of cultural production and argues that contemporary memorial culture has the power to put traumatic memory to work in a positive way Drawing on the conceptual apparatus of Gilles Deleuze she outlines the relevance of his thought to cultural studies and the wider phenomenon of traumatic theory and public remembrance This book offers a revision of trauma theory that presents trauma not simply as a definitive experience and implicitly negative but an experience that can foster a sense of hope and optimism for the future

Fragmentation of the Photographic Image in the Digital Age Daniel Rubinstein,2019-10-08 Fragmentation of the Photographic Image in the Digital Age challenges orthodoxies of photographic theory and practice Beyond understanding the image as a static representation of reality it shows photography as a linchpin of dynamic developments in augmented intelligence neuroscience critical theory and cybernetic cultures Through essays by leading philosophers political theorists software artists media researchers curators and experimental programmers photography emerges not as a mimetic or a recording device but simultaneously as a new type of critical discipline and a new art form that stands at the crossroads of visual art contemporary philosophy and digital technologies Invention of a People Janae Sholtz,2015-03-09 The Invention of a People explores the residual relation between Heidegger s thought and Deleuze s novelty focusing on the parallels between their emphasis on the connection of earth art and a people to come Rewriting Difference Elena Tzelepis,Athena Athanasiou,2012-02-01 In this definitive reader prominent scholars reflect on how Luce Irigaray reads the classic discourse of Western metaphysics and also how she is read within and against this discourse Her return to the Greeks through strategies of deconstructing demythifying reconstructing and remythifying is not a nostalgic return to the ideality of Hellenocentric antiquity but rather an affirmatively critical revisiting of this ideality Her persistent return and affective bond to ancient Greek logos mythos and tragedy sheds light on some of the most complex epistemological issues in contemporary theory such as the workings of criticism the language of politics and the politics of language the possibility of social and symbolic transformation the multiple mediations between metropolitan and postcolonial contexts of theory and practice the question of the other and the function of the feminine in Western metaphysics With a foreword by Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak and a chapter by Irigaray responding to her commentators this book is an essential text for those in social theory comparative literature or classics Universal (In the Realm of the Sensible) Dorothea Olkowski, 2007-03-02 The Universal In the realm of the sensible Beyond Continental Philosophy proposes a radical new philosophical system that moves from ontology to ethics Dorothea Olkowski develops the concept of an ontological unconscious a connection arising from our sensible relation to the world that conditions encounters with the environment and with others This fundamental ontology rethinks the space time relations opened by Irigaray's notion of the interval Bergson's recollection Merleau Ponty's idea of the flesh and Deleuze's plane of immanence Writing in an original style inspired by literature and the arts Olkowski locates a realm of the senses a field of vulnerability felt as pleasures and pains This presents an aesthetic sense of something universal to all human kind as well as to the organic and inorganic world In addition to this proposal for a wider ontology the relation between traditional ontologies and politics is examined as a means of opening politics beyond a no exit or limit cycle Instead a multiplicity of self organized emergent perspectives emerges eliminating the need for the connections conjunctions and disjunctions of the Kantian paradigm at work in contemporary continental philosophy This is a timely controversial and important book that will contribute enormously to the study of Deleuze and Continental Philosophy Time in Feminist Phenomenology Christina Schües, Dorothea E. Olkowski, Helen Fielding, 2011-06-03 The contributors to this international volume take up questions about a phenomenology of time that begins with and attunes to gender issues Themes such as feminist conceptions of time change and becoming the body and identity memory and modes of experience and the relevance of time as a moral and political question shape Time in Feminist Phenomenology and allow readers to explore connections between feminist philosophy phenomenology and time With its insistence on the importance of gender experience to the experience of time this volume is a welcome opening to new and critical thinking about being knowledge aesthetics and ethics Temporality and Film Analysis Matilda Mroz, 2013-08-12 This book traces the operation of duration in cinema and argues that temporality should be a central concern of film scholarship It explores the concepts of duration and rhythm resonance and uncertainty affect sense and texture to bring a fresh perspective Thinking in Time Suzanne Guerlac, 2017-03-15 Under the aegis of time Suzanne Guerlac displaces matter intuition memory and vitalism of the early twentieth century into the wake of poststructuralism and the dilemmas of nature and culture here and now This book is a landmark for anyone working in the currents of philosophy science and literature The force and vision of the work will enthuse and inspire every one of its readers Tom Conley Harvard University In recent years we have grown accustomed to philosophical language that is intensely self conscious and rhetorically thick often tragic in tone It is enlivening to read Bergson who exerts so little retorical pressure while exacting such a substantial effort of thought Bergson's texts teach the reader to let go of entrenched intellectual habits and to begin to think differently to think in time Too much and too little have been said about Bergson Too much because of the various appropriations of his thought Too little because the work itself has not been carefully studied in recent decades from Thinking in Time Henri Bergson 1859-1941 whose philosophical works emphasized motion time and change won the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1927 His work remains influential particularly in the realms of philosophy cultural studies and new media studies In Thinking in Time Suzanne Guerlac provides readers with the conceptual and contextual tools necessary for informed appreciation of Bergson's work Guerlac's straightforward philosophical expositions of two Bergson texts Time and Free Will 1888 and Matter and Memory 1896 focus on the notions of duration and memory concepts that are central to the philosopher's work Thinking in Time makes plain that it is well worth learning how to read Bergson effectively his era and our own share important concerns Bergson's insistence on the opposition between the automatic and the voluntary and his engagement with the notions of the living affect and embodiment are especially germane to discussions of electronic culture

Moving Pictures, Still Lives James Tweedie, 2018-05-04
Moving Pictures Still Lives revisits the cinematic and intellectual atmosphere of the late twentieth century Against the backdrop of the historical fever of the 1980s and 1990s the rise of the heritage industry a global museum building boom and a cinematic fascination with costume dramas and literary adaptations it explores the work of artists and philosophers who complicated the usual association between tradition and the past or modernity and the future Author James Tweedie retraces the archaeomodern turn in films and theory that framed the past as a repository of abandoned but potentially transformative experiments He examines late twentieth century filmmakers who were inspired by old media especially painting and often viewed those art forms as portals to the modern past In detailed discussions of Alain Cavalier Terence Davies Jean Luc Godard Peter Greenaway Derek Jarman Agnès Varda and other key directors the book concentrates on films that fill the screen with a succession of tableaux vivants still lifes illuminated manuscripts and landscapes It also considers three key figures Walter Benjamin Gilles Deleuze and Serge Daney who grappled with the late twentieth century's characteristic concerns including history memory and belatedness It reframes their theoretical work on film as a mourning play for past revolutions and a means of reviving the possibilities of the modern age and its paradigmatic medium cinema during periods of political and cultural retrenchment Looking at cinema and the century in the rear view mirror the book highlights the unrealized potential visible in the history of film as well as the cinematic phantoms that remain in the digital age

Sites of Vision David Michael Kleinberg-Levin, 1999 The fourteen contributors to Sites of Vision explore the hypothesis that the nature of visual perception about which philosophers talk must be explicitly recognized as a discursive construction indeed a historical construction in philosophical discourse In recent years scholars from many disciplines have become interested in the construction of the human senses in how the human environment shapes both how and what we perceive Taking a very different approach to the question of construction Sites of Vision turns to language and explores the ways in which the rhetoric of philosophy has formed the nature of vision and how in turn the rhetoric of vision has helped to shape philosophical thought The central role of vision in relation to philosophy is evident in the vocabulary of the discipline in words such as speculation observation insight and reflection in metaphors such as mirroring perspective and point of view and in methodological concepts such as reflective detachment and representation Because the history of vision is so pervasively reflected in the history of philosophy it is possible for both vision and thought to achieve a greater awareness of their genealogy through the history of philosophy The fourteen contributors to Sites of Vision explore the hypothesis that the nature of visual perception about which philosophers talk must be explicitly recognized as a discursive construction indeed a historical construction in philosophical discourse

Dreams of Difference, Songs of the Same Amy Herzog, 2010 Musical spectacles are excessive and abstract reconfiguring time and space and creating intense bodily responses Amy Herzog's engaging work examines those instances where music and movement erupt from within more linear narrative frameworks The representational strategies found in these films are often formulaic repeating familiar story lines and stereotypical depictions of race gender and class Yet she finds the musical moment contains a powerful disruptive potential Dreams of Difference Songs of the Same investigates the tension and the fusion of difference and repetition in films to ask How does the musical moment work Herzog looks at an eclectic mix of works including the Soundie and Scopitone jukebox films the musicals of French director Jacques Demy the synchronized swimming spectacles of Esther Williams and an apocalyptic musical by Taiwanese director Tsai Ming-liang Several refrains circulate among these texts their reliance on clichés their rewriting of cultural narratives and their hallucinatory treatment of memory and history Drawing on the philosophical work of Gilles Deleuze she explores all of these dissonances as productive forces and in doing so demonstrates the transformative power of the unexpected
