Idiot The:

The Idiot Fyodor Dostoevsky, 2017-09-02 Returning to Russia from a sanitarium in Switzerland the Christ like epileptic Prince Myshkin finds himself enmeshed in a tangle of love torn between two women the notorious kept woman Nastasya and the pure Aglaia both involved in turn with the corrupt money hungry Ganya In the end Myshkin's honesty goodness and integrity are shown to be unequal to the moral emptiness of those around him In her revision of the Garnett translation Anna Brailovsky has corrected inaccuracies wrought by Garnett's drastic anglicization of the novel restoring as much as possible the syntactical structure of the original About Fyodor Dostoyevsky Fyodor Mikhaylovich Dostoyevsky sometimes transliterated Dostoevsky was a Russian novelist journalist and short story writer whose psychological penetration into the human soul had a profound influence on the 20th century novel Dostoyevsky was the second son of a former army doctor He was educated at home and at a private school Shortly after the death of his mother in 1837 he was sent to St Petersburg where he entered the Army Engineering College Dostoyevsky's father died in 1839 most likely of apoplexy but it was rumored that he was murdered by his own serfs Dostoyevsky graduated as a military engineer but resigned in 1844 to devote himself to writing His first novel Poor Folk appeared in 1846 That year he joined a group of utopian socialists He was arrested in 1849 and sentenced to death commuted to imprisonment in Siberia Dostoyevsky spent four years in hard labor and four years as a soldier in Semipalatinsk a city in what it is today Kazakhstan I've been trying to review this book for over a week now but I can't I'm struggling with something How do I review a Russian literature classic Better yet how do I review a Russian literature classic without sounding like a total dumbass Hint It's probably not going to happen First I suppose a short plot synopsis should be in order The Idiot portrays young childlike Prince Myshkin who returns to his native Russia to seek out distant relatives after he has spent several years in a Swiss sanatorium While on the train to Russia he meets and befriends a man of dubious character called Rogozhin Rogozhin is unhealthily obsessed with the mysterious beauty Nastasya Filippovna to the point where the reader just knows nothing good will come of it Of course the prince gets caught up with Rogozhin Filippovna and the society around them The only other Dostoevsky novel I've read was Crime and Punishment so of course my brain is going to compare the two Where Crime and Punishment deals with Raskolnikov's internal struggle The Idiot book deals with Prince Myshkin's effect on the society he finds himself a part of And what a money hungry power hungry cold and manipulative society it is There are many reviews of this book making out that Prince Myshkin was Christ like a truly good man who lived for the moment A holy idiot or more accurately wholly idiot indeed is what he really was Why did they think Dostoyevsky entitled the book The Idiot if he meant The Man who was Innocent and Really Good or The Man who was like Jesus The title wasn't any kind of irony it was about an idiot Prince Myshkin had spent years in a sanitarium for his epilepsy and returns to Russia where he trusts untrustworthy people falls for all their plots where he is the patsy and falls in love with a rather uppity girl who returns his affections and then when it comes to the moment chooses another woman for all the wrong reasons and thereby ends up rejected by both
