If I Were Writing This:

If I Were Writing This Robert Creeley, 2008-08 If I were writing this was the last book of poems completed by Robert Creeley and published during his lifetime New Directions 2005 The words he wrote to describe this book are oddly prophetic Age brings experience not wisdom age makes time actual each day another until there is no more These poems have been my company my solace my feelings my heart When they cannot speak it will all be silence Though Creeley died in 2005 his poems are not silent they vibrantly continue to embrace life while acknowledging with no self pity the inevitability of death The message as he always ended his letters is Onward

If I Were God SRASHTI BEHURE, 2021-06-30 Humans often under dire situations end up cursing and thrashing the belief in the Almighty A man is thankful of Him and His blessings if they work in his favour and aid him to grow and glow Yet there comes a time when nothing in life seems to be going his way and he feels that God just isn't there for him anymore not standing beside him deaf to all his prayers and blind to all his miseries Isn't that the moment when a man's strongest urge is to become a God himself and make every little affliction and sorrow vanish off the face of his life with just one flick of a finger If I Were God is a compendium of several such moments in the form of short stories poems and essays put into relatable words by our remarkable bunch of writers This collection has been anthologized with toil and dedication by compiler Srashti Behure and Divya Renwa Do read and enjoy the near déjà vu instances scribbled in with adoration and kindness
