IFLA Cataloguing Principles: Steps Towards an International Cataloguing Code, 4 Barbara B. Tillett, Jaesun Lee, Ana Lupe Cristán, Ana Lupe Crist N, 2007 Volume 35 presents the final stage in the development of an international set of principles that will guide the development of cataloguing codes worldwide It is the report of the fifth and final meeting of the IME ICC The series of meetings began in 2003 This volume contains information in English French and Portuguese where possible The draft Statement of International Cataloguing Principles included here reflects the votes of agreement from all participants of the IME ICC1 5 for cataloguing codes worldwide Changing Roles of NGOs in the Creation, Storage, and Dissemination of Information in Developing Countries Steve W. Witt, 2008-11-03 Non governmental organizations NGOs are growing exponentially In 1993 the Yearbook of International Organizations listed 16 000 internationally recognized NGOs By 2004 this number was 63 000 With this increase comes a staggering growth in the activities and intellectual output of NGOs working on a local and international level As the mission of both libraries and NGOs increasingly intersect these organizations must collaborate to provide essential services that revolve around the creation dissemination and storage of information This volume s eight essays focus on collaborative work between NGOs and libraries in the study and resolution of global issues ranging from AIDS to food security and social transformation Bibliographic Information Organization in the Semantic Web Mirna Willer, Gordon Dunsire, 2013-10-31 New technologies will underpin the future generation of library catalogues To facilitate their role providing information serving users and fulfilling their mission as cultural heritage and memory institutions libraries must take a technological leap their standards and services must be transformed to those of the Semantic Web Bibliographic Information Organization in the Semantic Web explores the technologies that may power future library catalogues and argues the necessity of such a leap The text introduces international bibliographic standards and models and fundamental concepts in their representation in the context of the Semantic Web Subsequent chapters cover bibliographic information organization linked open data methodologies for publishing library metadata discussion of the wider environment museum archival and publishing communities and users followed by a conclusion The product of over thirty years experience and in depth understanding of bibliographic metadata Takes both a bottom up and top down approach from basic standards and case studies to Semantic Web tools and services and from abstract models and generic guidelines to applications Tells an insiders story of the experience developing tools for the transition of library systems metadata and its utility into the new milieu IFLA Guidelines for Online Public Access Catalogue (OPAC) Displays Task Force on Guidelines for OPAC Displays, 2008-11-03 Existing Online Public Access Catalogues OPACs demonstrate differences in the range and complexity of their functional features terminology and help facilities While many libraries already have OPACs there is a need to bring together in the form of guidelines or recommendations a corpus of good practice to assist libraries in designing or re designing the displays for their OPACs taking into consideration the needs of users The audience for these guidelines is librarians charged with customizing OPAC software and vendors and producers of this software The guidelines are mainly designed for general libraries with collections of resources in the humanities the social sciences and the pure and applied sciences The guidelines are intended to apply to any type of catalogue independently of the kind of interface and technology used UNIMARC & Friends: Charting the New Landscape of Library Standards Marie-France Plassard, 2008-12-19 With the expansion of the World Wide Web during the last decade libraries and their standards face an ever complex environment with new types genres and forms of information resources Changing information network structures and the emergence of new retrieval methods all play their roles A three day conference was held in Lisbon Portugal in March 2006 in order to review the current state of bibliographic standards and to discuss a number of questions in charting a future for their development ISBD International Federation of Library Associations and Institutions. Cataloguing Section. Standing Committee, 2011 This is the new edition of the first consolidated ISBD that was published in 2007 The first years of usage have led to interesting and useful corrections and additions Many cataloguers and practitioners worldwide will welcome this updated first class tool which is useful and applicable for descriptions of bibliographic resources in any type of catalogue International Newspaper Librarianship for the 21st Century International Federation of Library Associations and Institutions, 2006 This volume consists of presentations at recent events of the IFLA Newspapers Section in Oslo 2005 Canberra 2005 Buenos Aires 2004 Shanghai 2004 Berlin 2003 and Cape Town 2003 It covers the variety and intensity of newspaper activities worldwide emphasising both regional activities and current work in the fields of the preservation and digitisation of newspapers and including reports on the ongoing US and UK projects Another essential subject covered in this volume is the very complex issue of newspapers and copyright This publication presents the current state of newspaper librarianship on all five continents It reflects not only the remarkable progress made during recent years but also the major challenges for the future Networking for Digital Preservation Ingeborg Verheul, 2008-11-03 Libraries all over the world have to deal with fast growing numbers of digital materials that need to be safeguarded Publications in digital form online or on CD digitised images and born digital objects need to be preserved and kept accessible Safeguarding digital heritage is a major issue especially for national libraries because of their legal task of preserving the national heritage of a country This volume describes the state of the art of digital repositories preservation strategies and current projects in the national libraries of Australia Austria Canada China Denmark France Germany Japan

Netherlands New Zealand Portugal Sweden Switzerland the UK and the USA IFLA cataloguing principles Barbara B. Tillett, Ana Lupe Cristan, 2005 Library Management and Marketing in a Multicultural World International Federation of Library Associations and Institutions. Management and Marketing Section, 2007 The papers collected in this volume were presented at the conference entitled Library Management and Marketing in a Multicultural World in Shanghai China from August 16 17 2006 held under the auspices of the Marketing and Management Section of the International Federation of Library Associations IFLA This book addresses some of the latest developments in the marketing and management of libraries worldwide recognizing the challenges to meet local needs in a global information society The authors used different approaches to identify trends opportunities and needs as well as effectiveness and assessment in countries ranging from Australia Belgium China Denmark Greece India Pakistan Spain the United States and elsewhere throughout the world Several authors describe successful programs designed to promote libraries within a community nation or academic community Others report on trends and changes taking place within the user community and present case studies on the response of libraries to meet challenges and opportunities through marketing and management Encyclopedia of Library and Information Sciences John D. McDonald, Michael Levine-Clark, 2017-03-15 The Encyclopedia of Library and Information Sciences comprising of seven volumes now in its fourth edition compiles the contributions of major researchers and practitioners and explores the cultural institutions of more than 30 countries This major reference presents over 550 entries extensively reviewed for accuracy in seven print volumes or online The new fourth edition which includes 55 new entries and 60 revised entries continues to reflect the growing convergence among the disciplines that influence information and the cultural record with coverage of the latest topics as well as classic articles of historical and theoretical importance

IFLA Library Building Guidelines: Developments & Reflections Karen Latimer, Hellen Niegaard, 2008-11-03 The information society and the information age are changing library services as well as library premises This raises questions about what needs to be considered when planning and designing new library buildings in order to achieve attractive efficient and future oriented new library spaces This new publication provides information and guidelines for the building planning process whether you are planning a new public or academic library building It reflects on fundamental issues on new development trends and on the planning process The library building process is seen from both the library manager's perspective as well as that of the architect and designer Issues covered include what to consider when investigating the need for space library design from a marketing viewpoint green management and sustainability relating to library buildings and a layman's guide to reading plans This publication and the IFLA guidelines provided are not seen as a traditional set of recommendations to be rigidly adhered to since this would be unrealistic in a fast changing and global context Rather library managers and architects should read them in order to inform their thinking on key issues and establish a planning programme They must then relate them to their own countries and circumstances by making the relevant local adjustments
