the Church of Rome the Orthodox Church of Constantinople the Jacobites the Muslims and others play their part in the various Crusader States sometimes in the effort to ecumenism sometimes in the form of confrontations Coins and seals in the Latin Kingdom of Jerusalem betray Eastern and Western influences Daily life is reflected in historical texts and in exempla and miracula The fall of Edessa is described in the Lament of Edessa by Nerses Snorhali which is here for the first time translated into English Even icon painting in Egypt reflects crusader influence Syriac Influences in Western History Dale A. Johnson, Canadiana ,1978 The Human Interest Library: Leaders of all times ,1924 Crises in Continental Philosophy Arleen B. Dallery, Charles E. Scott, P. Holley Roberts, 1990-01-01 This book punctuates the moments of crisis in continental thought from the foundational crisis of reason in Husserl's call for a rigorous science of phenomenology to the current crisis of postmodernism and its rejection of Husserl's metanarrative of history and rationality The mediating links between these moments is the centrality of the epochal history of Being the power of cultural and disciplinary practices and the dispersal of meaning in the post Husserlian and post subjective philosophies of Heidegger Foucault Derrida and others Included here are the thoughts of leading scholars who critically discuss Husserl's analysis of the crisis of Western thought and the importance of the concepts of world in Husserl's early writings The authors analyze the deprivileging of philosophy as social critique through the text of Husserl Habermas Foucault and recent feminist theory They examine the end of the epistemological and morally autonomous subject in continental thought Together these thoughts articulate multiple points or moments of crisis without cure or end A Shuddering Dawn Ira Chernus, Edward Tabor Linenthal, 1989-01-01 Exploring the symbolic meanings of the Bomb this book excavates the depth dimension of the nuclear age Rather than adding to the many ethical commentaries asking whether or not there should be nuclear weapons the authors ask why there are nuclear weapons and a continuing arms race They also address the kinds of symbolic changes that must occur in order to reverse the build up of nuclear weapons The authors approach these questions from the perspective of academic research not from particular faith commitments asking the reader to envision different human responses to this technology human stances that can be illuminated by the creative insight of religious studies
