Inhuman The Reflections On Time:

The Inhuman Jean-François Lyotard, 1991 Om postmodernismen og en videreudvikling af forfatterens teorier med eksempler fra filosofi og malerkunst
The Inhuman Jean-François Lyotard, 1993-08-27 In this major study now available in paperback Lyotard develops his analysis of the phenomenon of postmodernity and examines the philosophy of Kant Heidegger Adorno and Derrida Lyotard claims that it is the task of literature philosophy and the arts to bear witness to and explain the links between modernity progress and humanity and the difficult transition to postmodernity Derrida Thomas Deane Tucker, 2009-01-01 Derrida explores the affinities between the work of Marcel Duchamp and the discipline of deconstruction It is the first text to explore Duchamp's work in the context of the theories of Derrida and deconstruction

Lyotard Hugh J. Silverman, 2016-01-20 Jean François Lyotard the highly influential twentieth century philosopher of the postmodern has had an enormous impact on the course and commitment of contemporary philosophy Lyotard Philosophy Politics and the Sublime is a thoroughgoing reassessment of his extraordinary legacy and contribution to contemporary cultural political ethical and aesthetic theory and an indispensable guide to key issues in his philosophy Fifteen distinguished scholars have contributed new original essays examining the main themes in Lyotard's work with a focus on the special intersections of philosophy psychoanalysis politics and the experience of the sublime in art The volume includes an up to date bibliography of works by and about Lyotard previously unpublished photographs of Lyotard and an incisive essay by Lyotard himself on the philosophical significance of Freud's case of Emma Lyotard Pradeep Dhillon, Paul Standish, 2006-04-14 Following Lyotard's death in 1998 this book provides an exploration of the recurrent theme of education in his work It brings to a wider audience the significance of a body of thought about education that is subtle profound and still largely unexplored This book also makes an important contribution to contemporary debates on postmodernism and education Writing and Unwriting (Media) Art History Joasia Krysa, Jussi Parikka, 2015-09-11 A critical mapping of the multiplicities of Finnish artist and technology pioneer Erkki Kurenniemi composer of electronic music experimental filmmaker inventor collector futurologist Over the past forty years Finnish artist and technology pioneer Erkki Kurenniemi b 1941 has been a composer of electronic music experimental filmmaker computer animator roboticist inventor and futurologist Kurenniemi is a hybrid a scientist humanist artist Relatively unknown outside Nordic countries until his 2012 Documenta 13 exhibition In 2048 Kurenniemi may at last be achieving international recognition This book offers an excavation a critical mapping and an elaboration of Kurenniemi's multiplicities The contributors describe Kurenniemi's enthusiastic and rather obsessive recording of everyday life and how this archiving was part of his process his exploratory artistic practice with productive failure an inherent part of his method his relationship to scientific and technological developments in media culture and his work in electronic and digital music including his development of automated composition systems and his video organ DIMI O A Visual Archive a section of interviews with the artist and a selection of his original writings translated and published for the first time further document Kurenniemi's achievements But the book is not just about one artist in his time it is about emerging media arts interfaces and archival fever in creative practices read through the lens of Kurenniemi The (Un)Certain Future of Empathy in Posthumanism, Cyberculture and Science Fiction Elsa Bouet, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2015 This volume investigates the future of empathy as contemplated by posthumanism cyberculture and science fiction As humanity increasingly networks and communicates online the reconfiguration of human communities through the removal and immediacy of the body challenges traditional notions of humanity and human capacity for empathy The impact of cyberculture and posthumanism on humanity and its capacity for empathy is here assessed through research in literature films neuroscience anthropology and philosophy This volume addresses the centrality of the body to human interactions and assesses how intrinsic it is to the defining of the human The exploration of posthuman narratives which display futuristic bodily modifications also engages with the anxieties and hopes for the future of human empathy Research in dystopian narratives shows that these anxieties are also expressed without the tropes of bodily modifications and that ideological distancing creates the conditions necessary for a lack of empathy towards otherness Lyotard and the 'figural' in Performance, Art and Writing Kiff Bamford, 2012-06-14 This original study offers a timely reconsideration of the work of French philosopher Jean Fran ois Lyotard in relation to art performance and writing How can we write about art whilst acknowledging the transformation that inevitably accompanies translations of both media and temporality That is the question that persistently dogs Lyotard's own writings on art and to which this book responds through reference to artists from the recently formed canon of performance art history including the myths of seminal figures Marina Abramovic and Vito Acconci and the controlled documentation of Gina Pane's actions Through the unstable untranslatable element that Lyotard calls the figural his thought is brought to bear on attempts to write a history of performance art and to question the paradoxically prescriptive demand for rules to govern re performance Kiff Bamford contextualises Lyotard's writings and approach with reference to both his contemporaries including Deleuze and Kristeva and the contemporary art about which they wrote whilst arguing for the pertinence of Lyotard's provocations today Philosophy and Film Christina Rawls, Diana Neiva, Steven S. Gouveia, 2019-04-25 This volume collects twenty original essays on the philosophy of film It uniquely brings together scholars working across a range of philosophical traditions and academic disciplines to broaden and advance debates on film and philosophy The book includes contributions from a number of prominent philosophers of film including Noel Carroll Chris Falzon Deborah Knight Paisley Livingston Robert Sinnerbrink Malcolm Turvey and Thomas Wartenberg While the topics explored by the contributors are diverse there are a number of thematic threads that connect them Overall the book seeks to bridge analytic and continental approaches to philosophy of film in fruitful ways Moving to the individual essays the first two sections offer novel takes on the philosophical value and the nature of film The next section focuses on the film as philosophy debate Section IV covers cinematic experience while Section V includes interpretations of individual films that touch on questions of artificial intelligence race and film and cinema's biopolitical potential Finally the last section proposes new avenues for future research on the moving image beyond film This book will appeal to a broad range of scholars working in film studies theory and philosophy

Beyond the Cyborg Margret Grebowicz, Helen Merrick, 2013-07-09 This long overdue volume explores Donna Haraway's influence on feminist theory and philosophy paying particular attention to her more recent work on companion species rather than her Manifesto for Cyborgs

Effective History Sinead Murphy, 2010-12-30 Sin ad Murphy's Effective History presents its reader with a thorough explanation and evaluation of H G Gadamer's concept of effective history not only as it pertains to the broader range of hermeneutic and postmodern thinkers working in the wake of Kantian philosophy but first and foremost as a careful and measured consideration of the practice of effective history as a critical method for philosophy in our current times In this latter sense the work pushes Gadamer's thinking forward into new territory and provides an insightful estimation of the value of hermeneutic inquiry Murphy demonstrates that the notion of effective history not only stems from a central issue in Kant's critical philosophy the divide between the empirical and transcendental between history and pure knowledge but that it is best understood through an analysis of the various ways that certain contemporary thinkers fall into the traps and contradictions that stem from Kant's critical turn

The Logic of Innovation Johanna Gibson, 2016-03-03 The Logic of Innovation examines not merely the supposed problem of the efficacy and relevance of intellectual property and the nature of innovation and creativity in a digital environment but also the very circumstances of that inquiry itself Social life has itself become a sphere of production but how might that be understood within the cultural and structural transformation of creativity innovation and property Through a highly original interlocutory and therapeutic approach to the issues in play the author addresses the concepts of innovation and the digital by means of an investigation through literature and the imagination of new scenarios for language business and legal reform The book undertakes a complex inquiry into innovation and property through the wonder of Alice's journeys in Wonderland and through the Looking glass The author presents a new theory of familiar production to account for the kinship that has emerged in both informal and commercial modes of innovation and foregrounds the value of use as crucial to the articulation of intellectual property within contemporary models of production and commercialization in the digital

Jean François Lyotard: Ethics Victor E. Taylor, Gregg Lambert, 2006

Affect and Realism in Contemporary Brazilian Fiction Karl Erik Schollhammer, 2020-12-15 This book is about contemporary Brazilian fiction from the past two decades and concerned with the possibilities of literary intervention in the reality of the historical moment Thus an understanding of the actual role of literature is strategic in the definition of the contemporary and the book shows an optimism among current writers and artists with respect to the aesthetic ethical and political role of literature and art in the twentieth century In contemporary Brazilian prose two simultaneous ambitions are often reconciled The commitment to individual or social reality is a challenge that is assumed without thereby necessarily accepting and following the molds of the traditional search for national or cultural identities This foundation is one of the constants of contemporary prose without thereby eliminating the continuous existence of a formal experimentalism that is the clearest heir of the modernist project Solidarities with the

Non/Human, or, Posthumanism in Literature Stefan Herbrechter, 2024-11-18 This volume collects essays written over the last decade by one of the founders and leading figures of the theoretical movement of critical posthumanism The readings of literary texts gathered here from Shakespeare Keats Camus Vittorini Kundera Haushofer Atwood Eagleman Crace and DeLillo focus on posthumanist moments in which questions of postanthropocentrism and the nonhuman become prominent are negotiated and ultimately foreclosed They show how a deconstructively minded way of reading humanistically motivated texts can help making these texts relevant for our so called posthuman times In doing so these critical posthumanist readings demonstrate that literature remains one of the privileged cultural institutions and practices from which solidarities both with and between the human and nonhuman can be formed and negotiated Materiality and Architecture Sandra

Loschke, 2016-03-17 Once regarded a secondary consideration in recent years materiality has emerged as a powerful concept in architectural discourse and practice Prompted in part by developments in digital fabrication and digital science the impact of materiality on design and practice is being widely reassessed and reimaged Materiality and Architecture extends architectural thinking beyond the confines of current design literatures to explore conceptions of materiality across the field of architecture Fourteen international contributors use elucidate the problems and possibilities of materiality based approaches in architecture from interdisciplinary perspectives The book includes contributions from the professions of architecture art architectural history theory and philosophy including essays from Gernot Böhme Jonathan Hill and Philip Ursprung Important immaterial aspects such as presentation agency ecology and concept are examined deepening our understanding of materiality's role in architectural processes the production of cultural identities the pursuit of political agendas and the staging of everyday environments and atmospheres In depth illustrated case studies examine works by Herzog de Meuron Zaha Hadid and Lacaton Vassal interspersed with visual essays and interviews with architects such as MVRDV providing a direct connection to practice Materiality and Architecture is an important read for researchers and students with an interest in architectural theory and related fields such as art art history or visual and cultural studies

Designing the City of Reason Ali Madanipour, 2007-04-11 With a practical approach to theory Designing the City of Reason offers new perspectives on how differing belief systems and philosophical approaches impact on city design and development exploring how this has changed before during and after the impact of modernism in all its rationalism Looking at the connections between abstract ideas and material realities this book provides a social and historical account of ideas which have emerged out of the particular concerns and cultural contexts and which inform the ways we live By considering the changing foundations for belief and action and their impact on urban form it follows the history and development of city

design in close conjunction with the growth of rationalist philosophy Building on these foundations it goes on to focus on the implications of this for urban development exploring how public infrastructures of meaning are constructed and articulated through the dimensions of time space meaning value and action With its wide ranging subject matter and distinctive blend of theory and practice this book furthers the scope and range of urban design by asking new questions about the cities we live in and the values and symbols which we assign to them Liotard and Critical Practice Kiff Bamford, Margret

Grebowicz, 2022-08-25 Jean Fran ois Lyotard 1924 1998 was one of the previous century s most provocative thinkers Can his work help us address the crisis currently facing the humanities The dominant economic discourse sees the humanities as low value an irritation at best Lyotard helps us to think against this pervasive dismissal of creative activity not by defending the honor of the humanities but by inviting critical practices which aggravate this irritation Critical practices trouble what counts as critique embrace incertitude and listen for silenced voices Twelve essays by artists and researchers take up Lyotard s invitation and begin to develop the idea of critical practice in the contemporary context Three sections titled What resists thinking Long views and distances and Why art practice address contemporary concerns like affectivity aesthetics economic imperatives militarism pedagogy posthumanism and the closure of what in Lyotard s time was called the West Four short pieces by Lyotard intervene in and buttress the discussion Apathy in Theory and Interview with Art Pr sent here published in English for the first time and Affect phrase and The Other s Rights republished here to highlight his prescient concern for that which cannot be articulated In(ter)discipline Gillian Beer, Beate Perrey, Malcom Bowie, 2017-12-02

Interdisciplinarity has dynamised the Modern Humanities like no other recent academic trend Yet this presents serious challenges involving both translation and affect how can we transmit facts and interpretations sense and sensations between disciplines between different artistic media between cultures between the private and the public sphere What are the advantages the difficulties and risks Another challenge concerns language if single disciplines have produced their own technologies of reading and writing this book examines and breaks the routine to propose alternative languages Some of the most distinctive voices in criticism both established and upcoming from literature music the visual arts psychoanalysis and philosophy amongst others show here their commitment to comparative thinking The challenge has been to reach beyond the jargon and the epistemological constraints of individual disciplines while remaining coherent and incisive The outcome successfully reveals new links between different forms of cultural expression Gillian Beer English Literature Science Writing Malcolm Bowie French Literature Psychoanalysis and Beate Perrey Music Poetry Psychoanalysis are the instigators of the interdisciplinary research project New Languages for Criticism Cross Currents and Resistances which since 2002 has been under the auspices of CRASSH the Centre for Research in the Arts Social Sciences and Humanities at the University of Cambridge Digital Rubbish Jennifer Gabrys, 2013-04-26 This is a study of the material life of information and its devices of electronic waste in its physical and electronic incarnations a cultural and material mapping of the spaces where electronics in the form of both hardware and information accumulate break down or are stowed away Where other studies have addressed digital technology through a focus on its immateriality or virtual qualities Gabrys traces the material spatial cultural and political infrastructures that enable the emergence and dissolution of these technologies In the course of her book she explores five interrelated spaces where electronics fall apart from Silicon Valley to Nasdaq from containers bound for China to museums and archives that preserve obsolete electronics as cultural artifacts to the landfill as material repository Digital Rubbish A Natural History of Electronics describes the materiality of electronics from a unique perspective examining the multiple forms of waste that electronics create as evidence of the resources labor and imaginaries that are bundled into these machines Ranging across studies of media and technology as well as environments geography and design Jennifer Gabrys draws together the far reaching material and cultural processes that enable the making and breaking of these technologies
