Inquiries: Philosophical Steven H. Propp, 2002-11-19 Does God exist Is there life after death Do we have free wills What is consciousness Are animals and computers conscious Do we always think in words Are people illogical When can things be proved What is the difference between knowledge and belief Can widely differing philosophies of life all be correct What is time Can the universe explain itself Is there a purpose to the universe Is beauty merely subjective Is art worthwhile Are emotions irrational Is history going someplace Should we have governments Are the Ten Commandments a sufficient guide for our conduct Is the Golden Rule useful for personal morality Should happiness be our goal Are there absolute moral standards Were the Nazis wrong How is philosophy different from science and religion How do I know I m not just dreaming all of this These are just some of the questions raised in this wide ranging and thought provoking book Whether you agree or disagree with the answers suggested you ll find the discussions challenging and intellectually stimulating Inquiry Into the Strategic and Critical Material Stockpiles of the United States United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Armed Services, 1962 The Epistemic Benefits of Disagreement Kirk Lougheed, 2019-11-20 This book presents an original discussion and analysis of epistemic peer disagreement It reviews a wide range of cases from the literature and extends the definition of epistemic peerhood with respect to the current one to account for the actual variability found in real world examples The book offers a number of arguments supporting the variability in the nature and in the range of disagreements and outlines the main benefits of disagreement among peers i e what the author calls the benefits to inquiry argument A Quarter Century of Value Inquiry Richard T. Hull, 2021-11-01 This volume contains all of the presidential addresses given before the American Society for Value Inquiry since its first meeting in 1970 Contributions are by Richard Brandt Virgil Aldrich John W Davis the late Robert S Hartman James B Wilbur the late William H Werkmeister Robert E Carter the late William T Blackstone Gene James Eva Huel Cadwallader Richard T Hull Norman Bowie Stephen White Burton Leiser Abraham Edel Sidney Axinn Robert Ginsberg Patricia Werhane Lisa M Newton Thomas Magnell Sander Lee John M Abbarno Ruth Miller Lucier and Tom Regan Autobiographical sketches by all of the living contributors and one recently deceased biographical statements of the remainder together with photographic portraits of all the contributors make this volume a unique record of value inquiry during the past quarter century indicates previously unpublished or unpublished in the present form indicates substantial new material has been added The addresses cover diverse topics from broad general ones to value inquiry into literature bioethics and public policy to philosophy of mind to critical studies of other philosophers work defenses of philosophy and of applied ethics individual role and cultural relativism of values The American Society for Value Inquiry is nearing its 25th anniversary Its leadership is elected annually often with a vice president becoming president elect then president then past president a structure that serves to insure a measure of continuity Its members are drawn to the society not by a particularly credo or ideology or philosophical position but by a common interest in questions of value ranging from abstract meta value inquiry to disciplinary and trans disciplinary value inquiry For those who share this range of passions the volume will preserve collect organize and in a number of cases recover material in danger of being lost to them The Presidential Address is a unique genre resembling in some ways a sermon Indeed preparing a presidential address before a philosophical society is often an exercise in developing an exhortation to members to take up a neglected topic to embrace as important a particular viewpoint it may as well be a cautionary to avoid a particular error It is often a dramatic moment as a last act of the presidency having observed closely the trends and winds blowing through the discipline the speaker is afforded the opportunity to hold forth on a topic at once intensely personal and believed to be of wide interest While some societies publish presidential addresses in newsletters or informal proceedings and occasionally in professional bulletins or journals rarely have a substantial bloc of a society s presidential addresses been collected and published under one cover Too often the presidential address is delivered discussed by those present perhaps summarized in a paragraph in a newsletter to members and filed as a fond memory of a moment of honor in the papers of the author sometimes to be forgotten lost discarded or otherwise removed from availability to scholars of the history of philosophy This volume inaugurates a series aiming at preserving presidential and other major addresses before philosophical societies It seeks to be a historical record not only of the address but also of the reflections and recollections of the author It seeks to preserve as a part of the historical record a photograph of the author And with the personal character of an autobiographical statement it seeks to humanize and render lively and real the professi

Reason, Bias, and Inquiry Nathan Ballantyne,David Dunning,2022 This volume brings together psychology and philosophy researchers to present current ideas and insights for addressing the challenges of knowing well in a complicated world Topics explored include the nature of reason and bias how reasoning influences perception and how we assess knowledge in ourselves and ourselves Inquiry as Stance Marilyn Cochran-Smith,Susan L. Lytle,2009-04-27 In this long awaited sequel to Inside Outside Teacher Research and Knowledge two leaders in the field of practitioner research offer a radically different view of the relationship of knowledge and practice and of the role of practitioners in educational change In their new book the authors put forward the notion of inquiry as stance as a challenge to the current arrangements and outcomes of schools and other educational contexts They call for practitioner researchers in local settings across the United States and across the world to ally their work with others as part of larger social and intellectual movements for social change and social justice Transforming Talk into Text—Argument Writing, Inquiry, and Discussion, Grades 6-12 Thomas M. McCann,2014-05-23 Author Thomas McCann invites readers to rethink their approach to teaching writing by capitalizing on students instinctive desire to talk Drawing on extensive classroom research he shows teachers how to craft class discussions that build students skills of analysis problem solving and argumentation as a means of improving student writing McCann demonstrates how authentic discussions immerse learners in practices that become important when they write Chapters feature portraits of teachers at work including transcripts that reveal patterns of talk across a set of lessons Interviews with the teachers and samples of student writing afford readers a deeper understanding of process Students also report on how classroom discussions supported their effort to produce persuasive argument driven essays Book Features A focus on the thinking behind the practice as opposed to a collection of lesson ideas Connections to important elements from the Common Core State Standards especially arguments writing Examples of students at work with examples of the writing that emerges from their discussions Portraits of skilled teachers as they promote inquiry and sequence and facilitate discussions Appendices with problem based scenarios interview questions for students and teachers samples of debatable cases in the news and more In this important book Tom McCann has given us not only the admonition to change but the details about what effective change must be and what it looks like evidence that it works effectively and details about how to bring it to pass From the Foreword by George Hillocks Jr Professor Emeritus Department of English University of Chicago For a professional book to have an impact on the field it needs to address a perceived need Writing arguments for Common Core performance assessments is a HUGE need right now that this book helps address Carol Jago associate director California Reading and Literature Project UCLA
