Publisher description     Answering Islam Norman L. Geisler, Abdul Saleeb, 2002-08 Apologetic guide compares the major tenets of Islam with Christianity     Dispensing Justice in Islam Muhammad Khalid Masud, Rudolph Peters, David Powers, 2005-11-01 Dispensing Justice is designed to serve as a sourcebook of Islamic legal practice and qadi court records from the rise of Islam to modern times drawing upon court records and qadi judgments in addition to literary sources In the first chapter we survey the state of the field sketching the history structure and modern transformation of the qadiship The twenty chapters that follow are grouped thematically in four sections 1 the nature and functions of the judgeship and its development over time 2 the structure of the judicial apparatus 3 the application of juristic thought and reasoning to specific cases in selected areas of the law and 4 judicial procedure and the different forms of evidence The volume fills a large gap in Islamic legal history     I Don't Have Enough Faith to Be an Atheist Norman L. Geisler, Frank Turek, 2001-05-17 To some the concept of having faith in a higher power or a set of religious beliefs is nonsensical Indeed many view religion in general and Christianity in particular as unfounded and unreasonable Norman Geisler and Frank Turek argue however that Christianity is not only more reasonable than all other belief systems but is indeed more rational than unbelief itself With conviction and clear thinking Geisler and Turek guide readers through some of the traditional tested arguments for the existence of a creator God They move into an examination of the source of morality and the reliability of the New Testament accounts concerning Jesus The final section of the book deals with a detailed investigation of the claims of Christ This volume will be an interesting read for those skeptical about Christianity as well as a helpful resource for Christians seeking to articulate a more sophisticated defense of their faith
