Shavit,2015-11-12 Based on a comparative analysis of several hundred religio juristic treatises and fatwas religious decisions Shari a and Muslim Minorities The Wasati and Salafi Approaches to Fiqh al Aqalliyyat al Muslima offers the most systematic and comprehensive study to date of fiqh al aqalliyyat al Muslima the field in Islamic jurisprudence that treats issues that are unique to Muslims living in majority non Muslim societies The book argues that two main contesting approaches to fiqh al aqalliyyat al Muslima the wasati and the salafi have developed in part dialectically While both envision a future Islamizing of the West as a main justification for Muslim residence in the West the wasati approach is pragmatic facilitating and integration minded whereas the salafi calls for strict application of religious norms and for introversion The volume examines diverse and highly debated juristic issues including the permissibility of naturalizing in non Muslim states participating in their electoral systems and serving in their militaries and police forces the permissibility of taking mortgages and student loans the permissibility of congratulating Christians on Christmas or receiving Christmas bonuses and the permissibility of working in professions that involve breaching of religio legal prohibitions e g serving pork Discussions highlight the diversity within contemporary Islamic jurisprudence and introduce new nuances to highly charged concepts such as proselytizing integration and multiculturalism Shari'a and Life Uriya Shavit,Fabian Spengler,2023-07-26 Drawing on five years of field studies in pragmatic and dogmatic inclined mosques across Europe Shari a and Life explores how Muslims engage with shari a norms in general and specifically with the challenges they face as Muslims living in majority non Muslim societies The book examines how fatwas advice on shari a related matters are requested negotiated paraphrased contested or ignored in mosques on the internet and elsewhere It also analyses individual strategies external to religio legal discourse through which Muslims mitigate conflicts between interpretations of shari a and everyday life Among the issues discussed in the book are financial transactions education the workplace sports electoral participation Christmas greetings proselytizing and the legitimacy of choosing to live in a non Muslim country Shifting the focus from the authors and texts of fatwas to their recipients Shari a and Life gives voice to those often left voiceless and demonstrates the great discretion and flexibility with which tensions between shari a and life are resolved

Minority Jurisprudence in Islam Susanne Olsson, 2016-03-24 According to many Islamic jurists the world is divided between dar al Islam the abode of Islam and dar al harb the abode of war This dual division of the world has led to a great amount of juridical discussion concerning what makes a territory part of dar al Islam what the status of Muslims living outside of this is and whether they are obliged to obey Islamic jurisprudence Susanne Olsson examines the differing understandings of dar al Islam and dar al harb as well as related concepts such as jihad and takfir She thereby is able to explore how these concepts have been utilised transformed and negotiated throughout history As the subject of Muslims living in Europe is such a topical and sometimes controversial one this book will appeal to researchers of modern Islam as integral to the Western experience
