They ask you (O Muhammad) concerning alcoholic drink and gambling. Say, There is great sin in both, although they have some benefit for people: but their harm is greater than their

Islam And Alcohol:

Islam and Alcohol Muhammad Haroon,1993-01-01      Angels Tapping at the Wine-Shop's Door Rudi Matthee,2022-12 Islam is the only major world religion that resists the juggernaut of alcohol consumption In many Islamic countries alcohol is banned in others it plays little role in social life Yet Muslims throughout history did drink often to excess whether sultans and shahs in their palaces or commoners in taverns run by Jews or Christians This evocative study delves into drinking s many historic literary and social manifestations in Islam going beyond references to hypocrisy or the temptations of forbidden fruit Rudi Matthee argues that alcohol through its absence as much as its presence takes us to the heart of Islam Exploring the long history of this faith from the eighth century Umayyad dynasty to Erdogan s Turkey and from Islamic Spain to modern Pakistan he unearths a tradition of diversity and multiplicity in which Muslims drank and found myriad excuses to do so They celebrated wine and used it as a poetic metaphor even viewing alcohol as a gift from God the key to unlocking eternal truth Drawing on a plethora of sources Matthee presents Islam not as an austere and uncompromising faith but as a set of beliefs and practices that embrace ambivalence allowing for ambiguity and even contradiction      Religion & Alcohol Charles Kevin Robertson,2004 Religion and Alcohol Sobering Thoughts is an intriguing and thought provoking collection of ten essays divided into two main parts The first part focuses on the use or prohibition of alcohol in various religious traditions with chapters exploring the Christian New Testament Judaism Islam Hinduism and tribal religions The second half of the book considers alcohol in its historical context with chapters examining drinking in medieval monasticism Victorian England the American South and films as well as the influence of movements such as Alcoholics Anonymous      Islam and Alcohol B. Aisha Lemu,1996      The Need for Islam Dr. Muhammad Ali Alkhuli,2006-02-02 This book shows how and why man needs Islam to build ethical values mental health and family protection      The Rhetoric of Sobriety Kathryn M. Kueny,2001-07-26 Why does Islam condemn wine and other alcoholic beverages The complexity behind this simple question is examined in The Rhetoric of Sobriety Drawing on an array of revelatory legal historical and exegetical materials both Sunni and Shi ite from the early Islamic period and contrasting them with comparable Judaic and Christian works from the same era the author analyzes the rhetoric used to establish the proper authoritative boundaries that would contain wine s ambiguous nature How believers chose to identify wine as a marginal substance and assert its prohibition offers a rare glimpse into the underlying intellectual strategies of early Muslim thought to resolve conflict create meaning structure the world govern human behavior and convey the divine message Ultimately this examination reveals some of the ways in which the early Islamic community created its identity and asserted it over other confessional groups with similar convictions      Angels Tapping at the Wine-shop's Door Rudolph P. Matthee,2023 Islam is the only major world religion that resists the juggernaut of alcohol consumption In many Islamic countries alcohol is banned in others it plays little role in social life Yet Muslims throughout history did drink often to excess whether sultans and shahs in their palaces or commoners in taverns run by Jews or Christians This evocative study delves into drinking s many historic literary and social manifestations in Islam going beyond references to hypocrisy or the temptations of forbidden fruit Rudi Matthee argues that alcohol through its absence as much as its presence takes us to the heart of Islam Exploring the long history of this faith from the eight century Umayyad dynasty to Erdogan s Turkey and from Islamic Spain to modern Pakistan he unearths a tradition of diversity and multiplicity in which Muslims drank and found myriad excuses to do so Angels Tapping at the Wine-Shop's Door Rudi Matthee,2023-04-20 Islam is the only major world religion that resists the juggernaut of alcohol consumption In many Islamic countries alcohol is banned in others it plays little role in social life Yet Muslims throughout history did drink often to excess whether sultans and shahs in their palaces or commoners in taverns run by Jews or Christians This evocative study delves into drinking s many historic literary and social manifestations in Islam going beyond references to hypocrisy or the temptations of forbidden fruit Rudi Matthee argues that alcohol through its absence as much as its presence takes us to the heart of Islam Exploring the long history of this faith from the eight century Umayyad dynasty to Erdogan s Turkey and from Islamic Spain to modern Pakistan he unearths a tradition of diversity and multiplicity in which Muslims drank and found myriad excuses to do so They celebrated wine and used it as a poetic metaphor even viewing alcohol as a gift from God the key to unlocking eternal truth Drawing on a plethora of sources in multiple languages Matthee presents Islam not as an austere and uncompromising faith but as a set of beliefs and practices that embrace ambivalence allowing for ambiguity and even contradiction The SAGE Encyclopedia of Alcohol Scott C. Martin,2014-12-16 Alcohol consumption goes to the very roots of nearly all human societies Different countries and regions have become associated with different sorts of alcohol for instance the beer culture of Germany the wine culture of France Japan and saki Russia and vodka the Caribbean and rum or the moonshine culture of Appalachia Wine is used in religious rituals and toasts are used to seal business deals or to celebrate marriages and state dinners However our relation with alcohol is one of love hate We also regulate it and tax it we pass laws about when and where it s appropriate we crack down severely on drunk driving and the United States and other countries tried the failed Noble Experiment of Prohibition While there are many encyclopedias on alcohol nearly all approach it as a substance of abuse taking a clinical medical perspective alcohol alcoholism and treatment The SAGE Encyclopedia of Alcohol examines the history of alcohol worldwide and goes beyond the historical lens to examine alcohol as a cultural and social phenomenon as well both for good and for ill from the earliest days of humankind Islam for All Mohamad Idrakisyah,2020-06-24 Islam as a universal religion meant for all mankind inhabiting God s earth It is a way of life applicable to each and anyone and akin to a compass guiding our lives in this world and in the hereafter The book Islam for All writes about Returning Your Trust and Answers to Most Common Questions Asked by Non Muslims would enlighten Muslims and Non Muslim on all there is to know about Islam in a simple and convincing manner With understanding comes acceptance which gives rise to wisdom that results in peace and harmony among mankind and their bonding with God The truth would only surface when this book is read without prejudice

Alcohol in the Maghreb and the Middle East since the Nineteenth Century Elife Biçer-Deveci,Philippe Bourmaud,2022-01-12 This book explores the significance of alcohol in the Middle East and Maghreb as a powerful catalyst of social and political division It shows that the solidarities and polarities created by disputes over alcohol are built on arguments far more complex than oppositions on religion or consumption alone In a region in which alcohol is banned by Islamic rules yet allows its production and consumption alcohol has always been contentious However this volume examines the different forms of social authority religious cultural and political to offer a new understanding of drinking behaviours in the Middle East and North Africa It suggests that alcohol being at the same time an import and product of local industry epitomises the tensions inherent to the conforming of Islamic societies to global trends which seek to redefine political communities social hierarchies and gender roles The chapters challenge common misconceptions about alcohol in this region arguing instead that medical discourses on alcohol dependency hide stances on national independence in an imperialist context that the focus on religion also tends to conceal disputes on alcohol as a social struggle and that disputes on inebriation are more about masculinity than judging private leisure In doing so the volume presents alcohol as a way of grasping the power relations that structure the societies of the Middle East and Maghreb
