Islamic Creeds A Selection Islamic Surveys:

Islamic Creeds William Montgomery Watt, 1994 Professor Watt introduces the history of the creeds and takes the student through a selection of the main ones in translation Explanatory notes and a single Shi'ite creed are also given in this useful and informative survey Islamic Creeds, 1994 There are no official creeds in Islam comparable to the Apostles' creed and the Nicene creed in Christianity In mainstream Sunni Islam however there is broad agreement about the chief doctrines and over the centuries these have been expressed in creeds by individuals and groups some of which have been widely recognised and used for instruction These creeds are basic material for the study of Islamic religion and a selection is given here in translation together with a historical introduction explanatory notes and a single Shi'ite creed to show the contrast Studies in Honour of Clifford Edmund Bosworth, Volume I Ian Netton, 2021-10-25 Professor C E Bosworth FBA is a Middle East historian of world stature In this volume his friends and colleagues come together to honour his 70th birthday The diversity of these essays reflects the diversity and depth of Professor Bosworth's own interests Ranging through the five areas of Literature Language History Law and Art and Epigraphy this volume embraces the ancient the medieval and the modern covering topics as diverse as the Maqama genre the significance of wooden weapons in al-Mukhtar's revolt and nineteenth century exchanges in Himyaritic inscriptions The volume illustrates the vibrancy and dynamism of modern scholarship in the field of Arabic and Semitic Studies God and Logic in Islam John Walbridge, 2010-11-15 This book investigates the central role of reason in Islamic intellectual life Despite widespread characterization of Islam as a system of belief based only on revelation John Walbridge argues that rational methods not fundamentalism have characterized Islamic law philosophy and education since the medieval period His research demonstrates that this medieval Islamic rational tradition was opposed by both modernists and fundamentalists resulting in a general collapse of traditional Islamic intellectual life and its replacement by more modern but far shallower forms of thought However the resources of this Islamic scholarly tradition remain an integral part of the Islamic intellectual tradition and will prove vital to its revival The future of Islam Walbridge argues will be marked by a return to rationalism An Introduction to Christian Worldview Tawa J. Anderson, W. Michael Clark, David K. Naugle, 2017-10-10 Why do worldviews matter What characterizes a Christian worldview Part of being a thoughtful Christian means being able to understand and express the Christian worldview as well as developing an awareness of the variety of worldviews Well organized clearly written and featuring aids for learning this is the essential text for either the classroom or for self study Sufi Ritual Ian Richard Netton, 2014-03-18 This study reveals the world of Sufi ritual with particular reference to two major Sufi orders It examines the ritual and practices of these orders and surveys their organisation and hierarchy initiation ceremonies and aspects of their liturgy such as dhikr litany and sama mystical concert Comparisons are made with the five pillars of Islam arkan and the Sufi rituals together with the arkan are examined from the perspective of theology phenomenology anthropology and semiotics The work concludes with an examination of the Sufi in the context of alienation This is a major work which highlights the importance of Sufi ritual and locates it within the broader domain of the Islamic world

Life and Work of W. Montgomery Watt Carole Hillenbrand, 2018-12-19 This commemorative volume discusses aspects of the life and work of the internationally famous scholar Professor W Montgomery Watt 1909-2006 His writings on Islam and on Muslim-Christian relations gained him great prestige and respect not only in the West but also and perhaps more significantly right across the Muslim world The book includes contributions by Professor Carole Hillenbrand Professor Fred Donner Bishop Richard Holloway and the late Professor David Kerr as well as substantial excerpts from Professor Watt's unpublished writings copies of which he entrusted to Professor Hillenbrand

Islam William Shepard, 2009 A college textbook for religion courses

Islamic Intellectual History in the Seventeenth Century Khaled El-Rouayheb, 2015-07-08 This book investigates the intellectual currents among Ottoman and North African scholars of the early modern period

Islamic Thought Abdullah Saeed, 2006-11-22 Islamic Thought is a fresh and contemporary introduction to the philosophies and doctrines of Islam Abdullah Saeed a distinguished Muslim scholar traces the development of religious knowledge in Islam from the pre-modern to the modern period The book focuses on Muslim thought as well as the development, production and transmission of religious knowledge and the trends, schools and movements that have contributed to the production of this knowledge Key topics in Islamic culture are explored including the development of the Islamic intellectual tradition the two foundation texts the Qur'an and Hadith legal thought theological thought mystical thought Islamic Art philosophical thought political thought and renewal reform and rethinking today Through this rich and varied discussion Saeed presents a fascinating depiction of how Islam was lived in the past and how its adherents practise it in the present Islamic Thought is essential reading for students beginning the study of Islam but will also interest anyone seeking to learn more about one of the world's great religions

Journeys of the Muslim Nation and the Christian Church David W. Shenk, 2006 Exploring the mission of two communities David W. Shenk examines Islam and Christianity at their deepest spiritual, cultural and communal levels Shenk explores the similarities and differences found in Isaac and Ishmael, Jesus and Muhammad, the Bible and the Qur'an, Jerusalem and Medina, and the Eucharist and the Hajj 284 pages

The Construction of Orthodoxy and Heresy John B. Henderson, 1998-04-16 This book presents the first systematic and cross-cultural exploration of ideas of heresy as well as orthodoxy in a group of major religious traditions including Neo-Confucianism, Sunni Islam, rabbinic Judaism and early Christianity It shows how authorities in all four of these traditions used common strategies to distinguish orthodox truth from heretical error These same strategies often appear in modern ideological polemics and studies of deviance as well as in traditional religious controversies The party that most effectively uses these strategies often gains a decisive advantage in the struggle among competing claimants to orthodoxy The author also shows how orthodoxy depends on heresy Without heresy or at least ideas of heresy, orthodoxy could not establish or perpetuate itself In fact in all four traditions, orthodoxy constructed itself by creating an inversion of the heretical other By highlighting the common patterns in constructions of orthodoxy and heresy in four major religious traditions this book also sets in relief subtler variations that give each tradition a special character In this way this study strikes a balance between the universal and the particular it illuminates a general pattern in world intellectual history but also shows how the traditions that illustrate this pattern are distinctive Modern Trends in Islamic Theological Discourse in 20th Century Indonesia Fauzan Saleh,2001-12-01 Aiming to trace the development of Islamic theological discourse in Indonesia from the early 1900s to the end of the 20th century the author focusses on how modernist Muslims have constructed their theological thought throughout the century which in turn reflects their religious understanding in response to the particular demands of their age The theological thought constructed so far signifies a continuum of progress developing from one stage to the next Implicitly this progress also indicates the improvement of Indonesian Muslims understanding of their own religion which may suggest the betterment of their commitment to doctrinal beliefs and religious practices Therefore this study will also examine the ways in which Indonesian Islam noticeably grows more orthodox through these forms of religious commitment Drawing upon an Indonesian term the growth of orthodox Islam is known as the santri cultural expansion which has been characterized by the vertical and horizontal mobility of devout Muslims in political cultural and economic enterprises A discussion of the theological thought underlying that santri cultural expansion is also included A Protestant Theology of Religious Pluralism Livingstone Thompson,2009 In this book three main things have been accomplished First it locates the emergence of religious pluralism as a problem for Christian theology Secondly it shows the critical weaknesses in the approaches to pluralism that we find in the works of Gavin D Costa George Lindbeck and John Hick all major players in the field of religious pluralism Retrieving theological material from seventeenth century Comenius and eighteenth century Zinzendorf the book shows that the Protestant tradition has suitable theological material that can better serve the development of a theology of religious pluralism Thirdly the book enters into dialogue with Islam and highlights exciting new approaches to addressing the issues of salvation the Qur an and Christology One critical outcome of the book is that it breaks new ground in showing the limitations of liberation theology and proposes a fascinating new pluralism sensitive hermeneutical approach to contextual theology The Living and the Dead in Islam: Epitaphs as texts Werner Diem,2004 A Formula for Conversation Livingstone A. Thompson,2007 A Formula for Conversation looks at the doctrines that both communities consider non negotiable Theologie, Philosophie und Mystik im zwölfschiitischen Islam des 9./15. Jahrhunderts Sabine Schmidtke,2000 This volume provides a thorough investigation of the theological views of the Twelversh ite Ibn Ab Jumh r al Ah s d after 906 1501 who combined traditional Mu tazilite thought with the philosophical tradition of Ibn S n with the Illuminationist tradition and with speculative mysticism Theologie, Philosophie und Mystik im zwölfschiitischen Islam des 9./15. Jahrhunderts Sabine Schmidtke,2021-08-04 This volume focuses on the theological views of the Im m Sh ite theologian Mu ammad b Al b Ibr h m b

Ab Jumh r al A s d after 906 1501 who combined traditional thought of the Mu tazilites with the philosophical tradition of Ibn S n d 428 1037 with the Illuminationist Ishr q tradition of Shih b al D n al Suhraward executed in 587 1191 and his followers and with the speculative mysticism of Ibn al Arab d 638 1204 Ibn Ab Jumh r moreover attempted to harmonize traditional Sh ite views which were deeply influenced by the Mu tazilite traditional with typical Ash arite notions The book sets out to investigate thoroughly the impact of the various traditions on the theological views of Ibn Ab Jumh r It further investigates the place of this theologian within the development of Sh ite theological thought The volume also includes a comprehensive study of Ibn Ab Jumh r as well as a detailed bibliographical examination of his writings The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences ,2005 International Bibliography of Book Reviews of Scholarly Literature Chiefly in the Fields of Arts and Humanities and the Social Sciences ,1999
