Islamic Environmental Systems Engineering S. Wagar Ahmed Husaini,1980 Pakistan's Environment Khawar Mumtaz, Mahjabeen Abidi Habib, 1989 Traditional Islamic Principles of Built Environment Hisham Mortada, 2003-12-16 Written with the non Muslim reader in mind this book analyses the principles and values established by Islamic tradition to govern the social and physical environments of Muslims The picture of Islam that emerges from this work is of a way of life with social ideals Relying on the Qur an and Sunna the basic sources of Islamic law and using examples of the built environment of early Muslims in North Africa the Middle East Europe and Central Asia the author explains how following these ideals can create an urban environment that responds to social and environmental variables Islamic views on the controversial issue of modernisation are also examined This book will be of interest to people in the fields of urban planning architecture sociology anthropology housing and built environment as well as Islamic studies Doctrines of Islam Irfan Ul Hag, 1996-01-01 In this book Dr Irfan Ul Hag examines the primary sources of Islam to extract and formalize from them the Islamic economic doctrines as well as the sociopolitical framework which guides the development of society In particular emphasis is placed on the problems of poverty unemployment and lack of human resource development What the study suggests is that if Islam is properly studied through an idealistic rational integrated methodology and understood in its spirit and purposes it reveals a core set of permanent values and principles that form the fixed dimension of Islam which then are applicable to virtually all human situations of society polity and economy in all space and time It is this in built dynamism of Islam demonstrated here with historical examples that is utilized in approaching and providing solutions to contemporary economic problems and issues Recovering Environmental and Economic Traditions in the Islamic World, 2024-10-21 Recovering Environmental and Economic Traditions in the Islamic World is an interdisciplinary volume that interrogates varied approaches to environmental and economic thought in classical Islam and in a few contemporary case studies The contributions in this volume critique the dominant economic system and its perspective on the environment as a commodity across the boundaries of multiple intellectual traditions and academic fields The book analyses both historical trajectories and modern schools of thought while simultaneously exploring ethical applications to environmental and economic discourses as a tool of critique In this context the authors conceptualize and treat these discourses as polyvalent and enmeshed with various political ethical and cosmological perspectives and vistas

Understanding Islamic Architecture Attilo Petruccioli, Khalil K. Pirani, 2013-09-13 The ongoing debate among practitioners and in academia about the meaning and understanding of Islamic architecture will be energized by this book It contains essays by architects and academics from various parts of the world which clarify how the carious disciplines of the design profession can be employed to build in the spirit of Islam Divided into three sections the book covers meaning from Faith which draws meaning from the Islamic faith in order to propose a built environment that is universally beneficial analysis of History which examines historical buildings and planning concepts and suggest how to apply lessons learned to contemporary practice contemporary Trends which discusses current trends in architecture education and socio economic aspects of various Muslim countries Illustrated throughout this book will appeal to students and scholars practising Challenges to Religions and Islam Hamid Naseem Rafiabadi, 2007 architects and planners alike Finance Valentino Cattelan, 2018-08-06 The current dynamics of world economy show remarkable changes in the socio economics of credit provision and entrepreneurship If the emergence of the sharing economy is fostering innovative models of collaborative agency networking and venture business economic actors are also looking for a more sustainable development able to foster profitability as well as community welfare This book investigates Islamic social finance as a paramount example of this economy under change where the balance between economic efficiency and social impact is contributing to the transformation of the market from an exchange to a community oriented institution. The collected essays analyse the social dimension of entrepreneurship from an Islamic perspective highlighting the extent to which the rationales of sharing distribution and cooperation affect the conceptualization of the market in Islam as a place of shared prosperity Moving from the conceptual roots of this paradigm to its operative branches the contributing authors also connect the most recent trends in the financial market to Shari ah based strategies for community welfare hence exploring the applications of Islamic social finance from the sharing economy FinTech and crowdfunding to microcredit wagf zakat sukuk and green investments An illuminating reference for researchers practitioners and policy makers dealing with the challenges of a global market where not only is diversity being perceived as a value to be fostered but also as an important opportunity for a more inclusive economy for everybody Muslim Environmentalisms Anna M. Gade, 2019-08-20 How might understandings of environmentalism and the environmental humanities shift by incorporating Islamic perspectives In this book Anna M Gade explores the religious and cultural foundations of Islamic environmentalisms. She blends textual and ethnographic study to offer a comprehensive and interdisciplinary account of the legal ethical social and empirical principles underlying Muslim commitments to the earth Muslim Environmentalisms shows how diverse Muslim communities and schools of thought have addressed ecological questions for the sake of this world and the world to come Gade draws on a rich spectrum of materials scripture jurisprudence science art and social and political engagement as well as fieldwork in Indonesia and Southeast Asia The book brings together case studies in disaster management educational programs international development conservation projects religious ritual and performance and Islamic law to rethink key theories Gade shows that the Islamic tradition leads us to see the environment as an ethical idea moving beyond the established frameworks of both nature and crisis Muslim Environmentalisms models novel approaches to the study of religion and environment from a humanistic perspective reinterpreting issues at the intersection of numerous academic disciplines to propose a postcolonial and global understanding of environment in terms of consequential relations Shaping Worldviews: Richard Skiba, 2024-04-02

Shaping Worldviews presents a thorough examination of belief systems and worldviews emphasizing their far reaching impact on society The book highlights the crucial role of diverse worldviews in fostering cultural sensitivity effective communication and social harmony across various domains including policymaking conflict resolution social justice innovation education health and global relations Scholarly research is integrated to stress the importance of understanding recipients worldviews for persuasive communication and overcoming challenges related to misinformation The exploration extends to education workplace cultures policymaking conflict resolution innovation and international relations showcasing the pivotal influence of diverse worldviews The book delves into specific religious traditions and political ideologies emphasizing their profound effects on societal structures It introduces the theory of practice architectures elucidating how worldviews shape practices promote inclusivity facilitate change build reflexivity and enhance collaborative efforts A focal point is the analysis of tensions and conflicts arising from religious and political ideologies as well as worldviews shaped by combinations of these philosophies The comprehensive coverage spans major world religions including Judaism Islam Christianity Hinduism Buddhism Jainism Sikhism Taoism Confucianism Mahayana Buddhism Shinto folk religions cult groups and atheism The book further investigates various political ideologies such as Conservatism Liberalism Socialism Communism Feminism and Nationalism Additionally it explores the influence of religious beliefs on social issues perceptions of science legislative behaviour and tensions stemming from religious and political ideologies Islamic Economic Alternatives K.S.
