Islamist Mobilization in Turkey Jenny White, 2011-06-01 Winner of the William A Douglass Prize in Europeanist Anthropology The emergence of an Islamist movement and the startling buoyancy of Islamic political parties in Turkey a model of secular modernization a cosmopolitan frontier and NATO ally has puzzled Western observers As the appeal of the Islamist Welfare Party spread through Turkish society including the middle class in the 1990s the party won numerous local elections and became one of the largest parties represented in parliament even holding the prime ministership in 1996 and 1997 Welfare was formally banned and closed in 1998 and its successor Virtue was banned in 2001 for allegedly posing a threat to the state but the Islamist movement continues to grow in popularity Jenny White has produced an ethnography of contemporary Istanbul that charts the success of Islamist mobilization through the eyes of ordinary people Drawing on neighborhood interviews gathered over twenty years of fieldwork she focuses intently on the genesis and continuing appeal of Islamic politics in the fabric of Turkish society and among mobilizing and mobilized elites women and educated populations White shows how everyday concerns and interpersonal relations rather than Islamic dogma helped Welfare gain access to community networks building on continuing face to face relationships by way of interactions with constituents through trusted neighbors She argues that Islamic political networks are based on cultural understandings of relationships duties and trust She also illustrates how Islamic activists have sustained cohesion despite contradictory agendas and beliefs and how civic organizations through local relationships have ensured the autonomy of these networks from the national political organizations in whose service they appear to act To illuminate the local culture of Istanbul White has interviewed residents activists party officials and municipal administrators and participated in their activities She draws on rich experiences and research made possible by years of firsthand observation in the streets and homes of Umraniye a large neighborhood that grew in tandem with Turkey's modernization in the late 20th century This book will appeal to anthropologists sociologists historians and analysts of Islamic and Middle Eastern politics

Political Islam and the Secular State in Turkey Evangelia Axiarlis, 2014-06-20 How safe is Turkey s liberal democracy The rise to power in 2002 of the right leaning Islamic Justice and Development Party ignited fears in the West that Turkey could no longer be relied upon to provide a buffer against the growth of Islamic fundamentalism in the Middle East Once hailed by the West as a model of secularism and moderation in the Muslim world Turkey is now seen to be under the influence of the creeping Islamisation of the JDP or AKP as it is known in Turkey Yet to what extent has this affected the lives of Turkish citizens Evangelia Axiarlis here explores the contribution of the JDP to civil liberties and basic freedoms long suppressed by secular and statist Kemalist ideology and how this has remained unexamined despite more than a decade in government In this the first detailed study of the policies and ideology of Prime Minister Recep Tayyip Erdo an s government the author examines the extent to which the JDP has worked to improve civil life in Turkey and critically addresses whether a government built on Islamic principles can champion political reform Exploring how Islam and democracy are neither monoliths nor mutually exclusive this is a timely contribution to the wider understanding of political Islam

Ethnographic Discourses on Women and Islam in Turkey Petek Onur, 2024-05-09 This book provides a meta reading of how ethnographic discourses on women and Islam in Turkey have changed since their emergence in 1983 It analyses the published ethnographic works in three discursive periods and shows that paradigm shifts in social sciences processes of neo liberal globalization and globalization of Islamism as well as political social cultural and economic transformations at the local level shape these periods As an exceptional example of modernization in the Middle East and the post imperial states in South East Europe Turkey has been experiencing tensions between Islamic beliefs and practices and Westernization and secularization processes Countless aspects of Muslim women s lives appear as symbols and indicators in this society like in many other Muslim majority societies and to scholars of gender and women s studies in discussing the faith based patriarchy Thus this book exhibits the necessity of developing a critical perspective on ethnographic representations of Muslim women in Turkey      The Masks of the Political God Luca Ozzano, 2020-08-31 This book analyses the influence of religion on political parties and party politics in contemporary democracies To do so it compares five cases of democracies belonging to different geographic cultural areas and marked by different religious majorities India Israel Italy Turkey and the US The time span of the analysis is the period between 1980 year which can be conventionally regarded as a turning point for the return of religion in the public and the political spheres at the global level and the present day Unlike most works on religion and parties this book does not simply take into account officially religious parties but all religiously oriented parties with an influence of religion on party manifestos constituencies and or factions even if they are officially secular The theoretical framework is provided by the cleavages theory which considers some relevant traumatic social events as the origin of specific kinds or families of political parties and by a typology of religiously oriented parties dividing them into five categories conservative fundamentalist progressive nationalist and camp party      Islamist Parties and Political Normalization in the Muslim World Quinn Mecham, Julie Chernov Hwang, 2014-06-09 Since 2000 more than twenty countries around the world have held elections in which parties that espouse a political agenda based on an Islamic worldview have competed for legislative seats Islamist Parties and Political Normalization in the Muslim World examines the impact these parties have had on the political process in two different areas of the world with large Muslim populations the Middle East and Asia The book's contributors examine major cases of Islamist party evolution and participation in democratic and semidemocratic systems in Turkey Morocco Yemen Indonesia Malaysia and Bangladesh Collectively they articulate a theoretical framework to understand the strategic behavior of Islamist parties including the characteristics that distinguish them from other types of political parties how they relate to other parties as potential competitors or collaborators how ties to broader Islamist movements may affect party behavior in elections and how participation in an electoral system can affect the behavior and ideology of an Islamist party over time Through this framework the contributors observe a general tendency in Islamist politics Although Islamist parties represent diverse interests and behaviors that are tied to their particular domestic contexts through repeated elections they often come to operate less as antiestablishment parties and more in line with the political norms of the regimes in which they compete While a few parties have deliberately chosen to remain on the fringes of their political system most have found significant political rewards in changing their messages and behavior to attract more centrist voters As the impact of the Arab Spring continues to be felt Islamist Parties and Political Normalization in the Muslim World offers a nuanced and timely perspective of Islamist politics in broader global context Contributors Wenling Chan Julie Chernov Hwang Joseph Chinyong Liow Driss Maghraoui Quinn Mecham Ali Riaz Murat Somer Stacey Philbrick Yadav Saloua Zerhouni      Turkey, Islam, Nationalism, and Modernity Carter V. Findley, 2010-09-21 Book Description Publication Date August 30 2011 Turkey Islam Nationalism and Modernity reveals the historical dynamics propelling two centuries of Ottoman and Turkish history As mounting threats to imperial survival necessitated dynamic responses ethnolinguistic and religious identities inspired alternative strategies for engaging with modernity A radical secularizing current of change competed with a conservative Islamically committed current Crises sharpened the differentiation of the two streams forcing choices between them The radical current began with the formation of reformist governmental elites and expanded with the advent of print capitalism symbolized by the privately owned Ottoman language newspapers The radicals engineered the 1908 Young Turk revolution ruled empire and republic until 1950 made secularism a lasting belief system and still retain powerful positions The conservative current gained impetus from three history making Islamic renewal movements those of Mevlana Halid Said Nursi and Fethullah Gulen Powerful under the empire Islamic conservatives did not regain control of government until the 1980s By then they too had their own influential media Findley s reassessment of political economic social and cultural history reveals the dialectical interaction between radical and conservative currents of change which alternately clashed and converged to shape late Ottoman and republican Turkish history Muslims,

Money, and Democracy in Turkey Özlem Madi-Sisman, 2017-07-06 This book contextualizes the rise of a neo Islamic Turkish bourgeoisie class with a particular reference to the relationship between Islam and Capitalism and makes the argument for their ultimate compatibility Additionally the claim is made that the formation of this new socio economic class has been detrimental to Turkey s efforts to consolidate its democracy In order to analyze these processes an Islamic oriented young business group Economic Entrepreneurship and Business Ethic Association IGIAD was taken as a case study Drawing on fieldwork in examining IGIAD S mission vision and activities the book argues that such associations were born as a response to increasing tension between capitalism and Islam with the aim of creating a moral economy within global capitalism Islam and Modernity in Turkey B. Silverstein, 2011-01-31 In contrast to much of the Muslim world a majority of Turks consider Islam to be primarily a matter of personal choice and private belief How did such an arrangement come about Moreover most observant Muslims in Turkey do not see such a conception and practice of Islam as illegitimate Why not Islam and Modernity in Turkey addresses these questions through an ethnographic study of Islamic discourses and practices and their articulation with mass media in Turkey against the background of late Ottoman and early Republican precedents This ground breaking book sheds new light on issues of commensurability and difference in culture religion and history and reformulates our understanding of Islam secularism and public life in Turkey the Muslim world and Europe homogenous desirable alternative to everyday concerns as well as invoking an imperial past at the national level In this mode of thinking shaped around a polarised worldview Republican ideals serve as a counter image to the promoted splendour and harmony of the Ottomans Yet the stereotypical gender roles inextricably linked with this neo Ottoman imaginary remain largely unacknowledged dissimulated in the construction of the desire of an idealised past Our adaption of a cultural studies perspective in this volume puts special emphasis on agency gender and authority It provides a shared ground for the interrogation through the contributions comprising this project of knowledge production about the past in light of what constitutes acceptable legitimacy in interpreting not only the canonical literature but history at large Historical
