Restoring Identities Upolu Lumā Vaai, Mark A.

Lamport, 2023-11-03 In a sense Oceania can be considered a microcosm of World Christianity Within this region are many of the same observable trends on the global level that impact Christian life faith and witness The geography of Oceania the liquid continent is unique Christianity arrived in Australia and New Zealand in the late eighteenth century via British colonial powers Indigenous Aboriginal peoples Torres Strait Islanders and M ori peoples were dispossessed of land property rights and dignity Christianity grew by migration and conversion not always voluntary and over time became tightly intertwined with culture In the twentieth century rapid secularization moved Christianity into the private sphere and by 2020 Christian affiliation had dropped from 97 percent to 57 percent However the history of Christianity in the Pacific Islands Melanesia Micronesia and Polynesia is quite different Christianity arrived via Protestant and Catholic missionaries between the fifteenth and nineteenth centuries and grew substantially in the twentieth century largely due to indigenous Christian efforts Islanders brought Christianity to neighboring islands indigenous theologies developed and churches gradually separated from their Western mission founders One of the great success stories of World Christianity is Papua New Guinea which grew from just 4 percent Christian in 1900 to 95 percent in 2020 However growth is never the entire story Violence against women is endemic in Papua New Guinea and is often combined with accusations of witchcraft An estimated 59 percent of women have experienced physical or sexual violence in their lifetime and 48 percent in the last year As Christianity continues its shift to the global South it becomes increasingly critical to heed the experiences perspectives and theologies of Christians particularly women in the Pacific Islands

The Oxford History of Protestant Dissenting Traditions, Volume IV Jehu

J. Hanciles, 2019-03-07 The five volume Oxford History of Protestant Dissenting Traditions series is governed by a motif of migration out of England It first traces organized church traditions that arose in England as Dissenters distanced themselves from a state church defined by diocesan episcopacy the Book of Common Prayer the Thirty Nine Articles and royal supremacy but then follows those traditions as they spread beyond England and also traces newer traditions that emerged downstream in other parts of the world from earlier forms of Dissent Secondly it does the same for the doctrines church practices stances toward state and society attitudes toward Scripture and characteristic patterns of organization that also originated in earlier English Dissent but that have often defined a trajectory of influence independent ecclesiastical organizations Volume IV examines the globalization of dissenting traditions in the twentieth century During this period Protestant Dissent achieved not only its widest geographical reach but also the greatest genealogical distance from its point of origin Covering Africa Asia the Middle East America Europe Latin America and the Pacific this collection provides detailed examination of Protestant Dissent as a globalizing movement Contributors probe the radical shifts and complex reconstruction that took place as dissenting traditions encountered diverse cultures and took root in a multitude of contexts many of which were experiencing major historical change at the same time This authoritative overview unambiguously reveals that Dissent was transformed as it travelled Where Nets Were Cast John Garrett,1997 Describes the exposure of island churches to brutal interlopers in World War II which foreshadowed the twilight of the missionary and colonial eras

Australia's Arc of Instability Dennis Rumley,Vivian Louis Forbes,Christopher Griffin,2006-06-30 The idea for this book emerged from a conversation between Vivian Forbes and Charles Eaton following two seminars held in the Department of Geography at the University of Western Australia given by Trevor So eld and Christopher Grif n more than ve years ago One seminar involved papers from Charles Eaton and Christopher Grif n on the recent Speight coup in Fiji the other given by Trevor So eld was on the Solomon Islands The seminars were attended by among others Dennis Rumley who on getting involved in the conversation suggested the idea of a book and then followed through on its scope structure planning and possible contributors Looking back now we owe a special debt of gratitude to Charles Eaton both for his enthusiasm and his ideas then and for his continued support throughout the whole project Since that time ve years ago many people have boarded and have left the Arc Indeed the very project itself exhibited a degree of instability At times it even looked as though it might not stay a oat Thankfully several early boarders remained rmly anchored Other authors were co opted later some at relatively short notice one or two of them under mild duress We extend our heartfelt thanks to all of these contributors for remaining patient enthusiastic and keeping faith with the project Naturally a project like this dealing with such a large and dynamic region will always be out of date

Creating a Nation with Cloth Ping-Ann Addo,2013-06-01 Tongan women living outside of their island homeland create and use hand made sometimes hybridized textiles to maintain and rework their cultural traditions in diaspora Central to these traditions is an ancient concept of homeland or nation fonua which Tongans retain as an anchor for modern nation building Utilizing the concept of the multi territorial nation the author questions the notion that living in diaspora is mutually exclusive with authentic cultural production and identity The globalized nation the women build through gifting their barkcloth and fine mats challenges the normative idea that nations are always geographically bounded or spatially contiguous The work suggests that contrary to prevalent understandings of globalization global resource flows do not always primarily involve commodities Focusing on first generation Tongans in New Zealand and the relationships they forge across generations and throughout the diaspora the book examines how these communities centralize the diaspora by innovating and adapting traditional cultural forms in unprecedented ways Asian American Religious Cultures Jonathan H.
