

Briefing for 2020 Candidates

Important issues for people with access needs

Including disabled people, seniors, carers of young children, the temporarily injured, migrants and people for whom English is a second language and their friends and family

The Access Alliance is a movement comprised of ten founding member organisations from the disability sector, working with a range of supporting organisations, business champions, and nearly 7000 individual supporters, representing and advocating for people with access needs. Collectively the Alliance represents disabled people, seniors, carers of young children, the temporarily injured, migrants and people for whom English is a second language.

In the lead up to the general election, the Access Alliance is asking all members of parliament and candidates standing for election, to call for accessibility legislation, so that no one is left behind in the post-COVID rebuild and recovery.

Be resolute in your commitment to support a future bill that removes barriers for disabled people and people with access needs in New Zealand, whilst increasing education and employment opportunities for disabled people, creating new markets, and growing the economy.

Take the opportunity to improve the quality of life, not only for the hundreds of thousands of disabled Kiwis currently disadvantaged by barriers, but for all New Zealanders.

We are pleased to provide this paper to brief you on issues faced by people who have access needs.

Accessibility During a Crisis

Successive governments have struggled to resolve the issue of enforcing accessibility standards. The Access Alliance has evidence that accessibility legislation coupled with education and support for organisations is the pathway to creating and realising a fully accessible Aotearoa New Zealand over time.

As we rebuild Aotearoa New Zealand in the post COVID-19 world, the Access Alliance firmly believes that accessibility legislation will be the game changer, not only for disabled people, whānau and other people living in Aotearoa New Zealand with access needs, but for Aotearoa New Zealand as a whole.

The Access Alliance position is that there is only one way forward. That is to introduce accessibility legislation by the end of 2021, and to ensure the Bill makes its way swiftly through the House.

wellstoneaction.com The Republican Reversal James Morton Turner, Andrew C. Isenberg, 2018-11-12 Not long ago Republicans took pride in their tradition of environmental leadership The GOP helped create the EPA extend the Clean Air Act and protect endangered species Today Republicans denounce climate change as a hoax and seek to dismantle environmental regulations What happened James Morton Turner and Andrew C Isenberg provide answers The Future of Gay Rights in America H.N. Hirsch, 2020-03-25 Sandra Day O Connor has called the gay rights movement the first important civil rights struggle of the twenty first century Recent court decisions to overturn sodomy laws and to recognize gay marriage have emboldened activists but have also resulted in a tremendous backlash not the least of which has been a call for a constitutional amendment defining marriage as only between members of the opposite sex Through its historical and legal contextualization of these decisions The Future of Gay Rights in America is essential for understanding an epochal moment in the history of gay rights 108-1 Hearings: Departments of Commerce, Justice, and State, The Judiciary, and Related Agencies Appropriations for 2004, Part 4, , 2004 European Integration and the Nationalities Question John McGarry, Michael Keating, 2006-09-27 A highly topical examination of the effect of European integration on relations between states and minority nations This new collection brings together the leading specialists in the field and covers a wide range of cases from Northern Ireland in the West to Estonia and Latvia in the East and Cyprus in the South East The contributors assess how European integration has affected the preparedness of states to accommodate minorities across a range of fundamental criteria including enhanced rights protection autonomy the provision of a voice for minorities in the European and international arena and the promotion of cross border cooperation among communities dissected by state frontiers The comprehensive chapters stress the importance of the nationality question and the fact that contrary to the hopes and beliefs of many on the left and right it is not going to go away Beginning with an introductory essay that summarizes the impact of European integration on the nationalities question this accessible book will be of strong interest to scholars and researchers of politics nationalism ethnic conflict and European studies Tax Exempt Charitable Organizations, 2004 America Right or Wrong Anatol Lieven, 2012-09-25 Originally published over half a decade ago Anatol Lieven's America Right or Wrong has become a classic analysis of the special character of American nationalism As he demonstrated America's foreign policy response to the 9 11 attacks flowed directly from a nationalistic tradition that was two centuries in the making Within that nationalism Lieven identified two strands The first was the American thesis a civic nationalism based on the democratic values of what has been called the American Creed These values are held to be universal and anyone can become an American by adopting them The other tradition the American antithesis is a populist and often chauvinist nationalism which tends to see America as a closed national culture and civilization threatened by a hostile and barbarous outside world Much has changed since 9 11 The American public has turned inward in the wake of the Great Recession but interestingly Lieven's fundamental analysis of American nationalism remains powerful and convincing In this expanded new edition he includes and in depth analysis of the domestic component of both the American creed and the American antithesis Barack Obama s improbable election to the presidency illustrates well the first strand The rise of the Tea Party in response to both the financial crisis and the Obama administration s response is highly characteristic of the second strand Lieven concentrates especially on the Tea Party s hard edged American nationalism which is evident in anti immigration sentiment hatred of Obama and opposition to redistributive social programs that allegedly reward the unworthy His account of Obama s election and the right wing response to the economic collapse not only bring the story up to the present but indicate the staying power of the book s hard hitting thesis Denver Union Station ,2008 Policing the Womb Michele Goodwin,2020-03-12 In Policing the Womb Michele Goodwin explores how states abuse laws and infringe on rights to police women and their pregnancies This book looks at the impact of these often arbitrary laws which can result in the punishment incarceration and humiliation of women particularly poor women and women of color Frequently based on unscientific claims of endangering a fetus these laws allow extraordinary powers to state authorities over reproductive freedom and pregnancies In this book Michele Goodwin discusses real examples of women whose pregnancies have been controlled by the law and what has led to the United States being the deadliest country in the developed world for a woman to be pregnant Congressional Record United States. Congress,2009 Departments of Commerce, Justice, and State, the Judiciary, and related agencies appropriations for 2004 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations.
