Written in a simple and accessible manner, it can be read by students of finance and accounting courses, business professionals and general public alike.

Problems In Portfolio Theory And The Fundamentals Of Financial Decision Making Leonard C Maclean, William T Ziemba, 2016-09-29. This book consists of invaluable introductions, tutorials and problems which are helpful for teaching purposes and have a very broad appeal and usage. The problems cover many aspects of static and dynamic portfolio theory as well as other important subjects such as arbitrage and asset pricing, utility theory, stochastic dominance, risk aversion and static portfolio theory, risk measures, dynamic portfolio theory and asset allocation. This material could be used with important books that cover these topics including MacLean Ziemba's The Handbook of the Fundamentals of Financial Decision Making and Ziemba Vickson's Stochastic Optimization Models in Finance.

Principles of Managerial Finance Lawrence J Gitman, Roger Juchau, Jack Flanagan, 2015-05-20. Once again Principles of Managerial Finance brings you a user friendly text with strong pedagogical features and an easy to understand writing style. The new edition continues to provide a proven learning system that integrates pedagogy with concepts and practical applications, making it the perfect learning tool for today's students. The book concentrates on the concepts, techniques and practices that are needed to make key financial decisions in an increasingly competitive business environment. Not only does this text provide a strong basis for further studies of Managerial Finance, but it also incorporates a personal finance perspective. The effect is that students gain a greater understanding of finance as a whole and how it affects their day to day lives; it answers the question 'Why does finance matter to ME?'. By providing a balance of managerial and personal finance perspectives, clear exposition, comprehensive content and a broad range of support resources, Principles of Managerial Finance will continue to be the preferred choice for many introductory finance courses.

Dilemmas and Challenges in Islamic Finance Yasushi Suzuki, Mohammad Dulal Miah, 2018-03-09. The phenomenal growth of Islamic finance in the last few decades has been accompanied by a host of interesting questions and challenges. One of the critical challenges is how Islamic financial institutions can be motivated to participate in the equity like profit and loss sharing (PLS) contracts. It is observed that Islamic banks are reluctant to participate in the pure PLS scheme which is manifested by the rising concentration of investment on murabaha or mark up financing This phenomenon has been the hotbed of academic criticism on the contemporary practice of Islamic banking This book explains the murabaha syndrome in light of the incentive provided by the current institutional framework and what are the changes required in the governance structure to mend this anomaly
