Islam In Java:

Islam in Java Mark R. Woodward, 1989 Java, Indonesia and Islam Mark Woodward, 2010-10-28 Mark R Woodward s
Islam in Java Normative Piety and Mysticism in the Sultanate of Yogyakarta 1989 was one of the most important work on Indonesian Islam of the era This new volume Java Indonesia and Islam builds on the earlier study but also goes beyond it in important ways Written on the basis of Woodward s thirty years of research on Javanese Islam in a Yogyakarta south central Java setting the book presents a much needed collection of essays concerning Javanese Islamic texts ritual sacred space situated in Javanese and Indonesian political contexts With a number of entirely new essays as well as significantly revised versions of essays this book is a valuable contribution to the academic community by an eminent anthropologist and key authority on Islamic religion and culture in Java Islamic States in Java 1500-1700 Theodore Gauthier Th. Pigeaud, 2013-12-01 The growing interest in the history of Indonesia has made it desirable to have an English summary of the principal works of the Dutch historian Dr H J de Graaf who in several books and articles published between 1935 and 1973 has given a description of the development of the Javanese kingdom of Mataram based both on European and in digenous material His works form a substantial contribution to the study of the national history of Indonesia The Summary contains references to the paragraphs of the Dutch books and articles This makes it easy for those readers who have a know ledge of Dutch to consult the original texts The List of Sources for the study of Javanese history from 1500 to 1700 is composed of the lists in the summarized books and articles and the Index of Names refers not only to the present Summary but also to the eight original texts Many names of persons and localities in the Index have been provided with short explanatory notes and references to other lemmata as a quick way to give some provisional information on Javanese history Kampung, Islam and State in Urban Java Patrick Guinness, 2009 Islamic Spectrum in Java Mr Timothy Daniels, 2012-12-28 This empirically grounded work explores the emerging aspects of cultural politics in the world s most populous Muslim nation It engages with complex issues of cultural translation localization and globalization from various perspectives through analyzing a diverse range of cultural forms including government or palace based celebrations ceremonies and rituals modern student theatre and Islamic revival sessions With its discussion of both old and new Islamic movements alongside the contested religious interpretations of public cultural events this book will be of interest not only to anthropologists but also to scholars of religion culture and sociology The Seen and Unseen Worlds in Java, 1726-1749 Merle Calvin Ricklefs, 1998-01-01 An original and deeply researched work on a key period of Javanese history by a world expert Ramadan in Java André Möller, 2005 The dissertation aims at reducing this gap in the literature on Islamic cultures and provides its readers with ways of approaching and understanding Ramadan and various different Islamic phenomena in Indonesia and in other parts of the Muslim world It is argued that we preferably may approach Islam from three different angles that is to discuss it from the normative the written and the lived perspectives respectively In this study thorough attention is thus directed not only to the classical and normative Islamic texts and the lived reality in Java but also to the popular and contemporary Indonesian literature on Ramadan Bandit Saints of Java George Quinn, 2019-01-01 Java's pilgrimage culture is a dense batik like pattern of contradictions seriousness collides with laughter curiosity with bewilderment piety with scepticism intense spirituality with in some places the joy of shopping The pilgrimage culture on the island of Java in Indonesia the world's largest Muslim country is a rebuke to the conservative orthodoxy that has been gaining ground in Indonesia's religious landscape since the 1980s In the rhetoric of this orthodoxy the real Islam is pure and exclusive Piety comes from obedience to religious authority and its rules Local pilgrimage is anything but pure and exclusive or rigidly authoritarian It is powerfully Islamic but it fuses Islam with local history the ancient power of place and a pastiche of devotional practices with roots deep in the pre Islamic past Quietly but tenaciously just outside the great echo chamber of public space it is growing as fast as the higher profile neo orthodoxy Bandit Saints of Java delves deep under the surface of modern Indonesia exploring personalities and stories in the weird world of local pilgrimage where Middle Eastern Islam wrestles with the ancient power of Javanese civilisation It paints an astonishing portrait of Islam as it is practised today largely invisible to journalists scholars and tourists by many of Java's 130 million people What the Japanese Did to Islam in Java Christoffel Anthonie Olivier Nieuwenhuijze, 1947 Muslim and Catholic Pilgrimage Practices Dr Albertus Bagus Laksana, 2014-06-28 Employing a comparative theological and phenomenological analysis this book reveals the deeper religio cultural and theological import of pilgrimage practice in the identity formation and interaction among Muslims and Catholics in south central Java In a wider context it also sheds light on the larger dynamics of the complex encounter between Islam Christianity and local cultures Durga's Mosque Stephen Headley, 2004 Stephen Headley's new book explores contemporary religious change in the Surakarta region of Central Java In his analysis of the Durga ritual complex the author sheds light on one of the most unusual court traditions to have survived in an era of deepening Islamisation Polarising Javanese Society Merle Calvin Ricklefs, 2007 The Religion of Java Clifford Geertz, 1976-02-15 Part of the material issued in 1958 under title Modjokuto religion in Java Includes index Islamic Spectrum in Java Timothy P. Daniels, 2009 This empirically grounded work explores the emerging aspects of cultural politics in the world's most populous Muslim nation engaging with complex issues of cultural translation localization and globalization from various perspectives With its discussion of both old and new Islamic movements alongside the contested religious interpretations of public cultural events this book will be of interest not only to anthropologists but also to scholars of religion culture and sociology Expressing Islam Greg Fealy, Sally White, 2008 As the forces of globalisation and modernisation buffet Islam and other world religions Indonesia's 200 million Muslims are expressing their faith in ever more complex ways This book examines some of the ways in which Islam is expressed in contemporary Indonesian life and politics Editors from Australian National University Islamisation and Its Opponents in Java M.
