Islamically Integrated

Psychotherapy Carrie York Al-Karam, 2018-07-01 Integrating the Islamic faith with modern psychotherapy is at the forefront of the spiritually integrated psychotherapy movement To bring this work to wider attention and to promote its continuation Dr Carrie York Al Karam has brought together the present volume of nine essays each of which is written by a Muslim clinician who practices Islamically integrated psychotherapy IIP a modern approach that unites the teachings principles and interventions of the faith with Western therapeutic approaches As delineated in the Introduction IIP has emerged from a variety of domains including the psychology of religion and spirituality multicultural psychology and counseling transpersonal psychology Muslim Mental Health and Islamic Psychology The individual chapters then describe a variety of ways IIP is practiced by Muslim clinicians in their service provision with Muslim clients The contributors discuss a wide range of topics such as how Islam can be viewed as a system for psychological wellbeing or a science of the soul what marital counseling can look like from an Islamically integrated perspective Prophet Mohammed as a psycho spiritual exemplar in a new approach called The HEART Method the use of Quranic stories in family therapy as well as using Islamic teachings when working with Muslim children and adolescents A description of the various approaches is supplemented with discussions of their theoretical underpinnings as well as research based recommendations for advancing clinical application What emerges is a vital resource for Muslim and non Muslim clinicians alike as well as the lay Muslim reader wanting to know more about how the Islamic faith and psychotherapy are engaging with each other in a modern clinical context

Why Politics Can't Be Freed From Religion Ivan Strenski, 2010-01-28 Why Politics Can't be Freed From Religion is an original erudite and timely new book from Ivan Strenski It interrogates the central ideas and contexts behind religion politics and power proposing an alternative way in which we should think about these issues in the twenty first century A timely and highly original contribution to debates about religion politics and power and how historic and social influences have prejudiced our understanding of these concepts Proposes a new theoretical framework to think about what these ideas and institutions mean in today's society Applies this new perspective to a variety of real world issues including insights into suicide bombers in the Middle East Includes radical critiques of the religious and political perspectives of thinkers such as Talal Asad and Michel Foucault Dislodges our conventional thinking about politics and religion and in doing so helps make sense of the complexities of our twenty first century world

Transformations in Sacrificial Practices Eftychia Stavrianopoulou, Axel Michaels, Claus Ambos, 2008 The main thrust of the contributions in this volume run counter to the notion of a universally applicable theory of sacrifice and rather aimed at investigating transformations in sacrificial practices from cross cultural and transhistorical perspectives Exploring a broad spectrum of texts case studies and social practices from Greco Roman antiquity as well as the Ancient Near East and Egypt to the modern Middle East the Indian subcontinent and Indonesia diverging cultural perceptions and definitions of the topic sacrifice are examined and thereby new insights into the processes of modification and transformation of sacrificial rituals are gained

The Qur'an Oliver Leaman, 2006-05-02 A RUSA 2007

Outstanding Reference Title The Qur'an is the source of inspiration for one of the world's major religions followed today by over a billion people. It plays a central role in Islam and ever since it appeared fourteen hundred years ago has been the subject of intense debate. Some of this has been carried out by Muslims and some by those hostile or indifferent to Islam producing a very wide range of views. Authored by forty-three international experts, the objective of The Qur'an An Encyclopedia is to present this diversity of thought approach and school without priority in order to give a strong appreciation of the range of response that the text has provoked throughout its history and providing students and researchers with a powerful one-volume resource covering all aspects of the text and its reception. Islam and the Qur'an are much in the news today and there is a public debate going on in which things are said about the Qur'an without much knowledge or understanding of the book. Every effort has been made to help the reader use the Encyclopedia as an investigative tool in Quranic studies. The volume assumes no previous knowledge of the Qur'an, Islam or Arabic. Technical terms are explained in the text itself and the style of each entry is designed to be as self-contained as possible. Entries are cross-referenced and many include a brief bibliography. At the end of the work there is a substantial annotated bibliography providing a detailed guide to the most significant books, journals and articles in Quranic Studies. There is a full index. The readership will include those seeking basic information on the Qur'an; however, the substantial number of longer entries means that it will also be used by specialists.

Islam in Perspective Dr. Sultan Ahmad, 2011-03-15 The book contains 62 articles on the fundamentals and teachings of Islam. Readers, Muslims and also from other faiths, will have better understanding of the basic principles, fundamentals and teachings of the great religion, Islam. Misconceptions about the religion, Islam, by people from other faiths will hopefully be minimized to a great extent by reading the articles. Each article can be used as a Friday Sermon in Jumma Prayers on Friday in the Mosques.

Masonic Voice and Review, 1921

Faiths and Festivals Christine Howard, 2012-06-21 A must-have guide for early years practitioners designed to help explain world religions and festivals to young children in a way that is meaningful to them. This guide is designed to be a practical guide to explaining the main five world faiths to young children as well as some lesser-known faiths to young children in a way that makes sense to young children. The book is also full of activity ideas to tie in to a range of religious festivals throughout the year. Each festival contains background information on the festival and why it first started as well as activities to encourage children's learning. Introducing young children is vital in our multi-cultural and multi-faith society and this title will provide all early years practitioners with ideas on how to teach children to value diversity and respect other children's views and backgrounds.

"Verheft Uw Stemmen en Doodt Uw Dieren" G. C. Van De Bruinhorst, 2007 This research analyses how groups of people in Tanga discursively construct Islam by animal slaughter. Central to the project are the sometimes conflicting tendencies of grounding ritual practice in authoritative texts and constructing ethnic social and religious identity through ritual practices. The discourse on and the practice of daily animal slaughter at the abattoir sacrifice as part of the annual hajj the slaughter of sheep after the birth or death of a child and the Swahili New Year sacrifice all reproduce assumptions of what Islam and Islamic behaviour should be      Strategies of Resistance in the Dramatic Texts of North African Women Laura Chakravarty Box,2005-02-10 First published in 2005 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company      HAJJ - Ali Shariati Ali Shariati, Introduction What has the experience of Hajj taught me First on must ask what does Hajj mean In essence Hajj is man s evolution toward Allah It is a symbolic demonstration of the philosophy of Creation of Adam To Further illustrate this it may be stated that the performance of Hajj is a simultaneous show of many things it is a show of creation a show of history a show of unity a show of islamic ideology and show of the Ummah      The Sacrificed Body Tatjana Aleksic,2013-10-28 Living in one of the world s most volatile regions the people of the Balkans have witnessed unrelenting political economic and social upheaval In response many have looked to building communities both psychologically and materially as a means of survival in the wake of crumbling governments and states The foundational structures of these communities often center on the concept of individual sacrifice for the good of the whole Many communities however are hijacked by restrictive ideologies turning them into a model of intolerance and exclusion In The Sacrificed Body Tatjana Aleksic examines the widespread use of the sacrificial metaphor in cultural texts and its importance to sustaining communal ideologies in the Balkan region Aleksic further relates the theme to the sanctioning of ethnic cleansing rape and murder in the name of homogeneity and collective identity Aleksic begins her study with the theme of the immurement of a live female body in the foundation of an important architectural structure a trope she finds in texts from all over the Balkans The male builders performing the sacrificial act have been called by a higher power who will ensure the durability of the structure and hence the patriarchal community as a whole In numerous examples ranging from literature to film and performance art Aleksic views the theme of sacrifice and its relation to exclusion based on gender race class sexuality religion or politics for the sake of community building According to Aleksic the sacrifice narrative becomes most prevalent during times of crisis brought on by wars weak governments foreign threats or even globalizing tendencies Because crisis justifies the very existence of restrictive communities communalist ideology thrives on its perpetuation They exist in a symbiotic relationship Aleksic also acknowledges the emancipatory potential of a genuine community after it has shaken off its ideological character Aleksic employs cultural theory sociological analysis and human rights studies to expose a historical narrative that is predominant regionally if not globally As she determines in an era of both Western and non Western neoliberalism elitist hegemony will continue to both threaten and bolster communities along with their segregationist tactics
