Exploding Self The Creative And Destructive Nucleus Of The Personality:

The Exploding Self J. W. T. Redfern, 1992-05-01 Creative regression living closer to one's fundamental nature is what we are learning about today But how to apply our knowledge on a world scale so as collectively to avoid violent swings and explosions is of course an unsolved problem of our era of massive blindness and consequent mass behaviors Joseph Redfern M D was born in 1921 in a Yorkshire mining town and educated at John Hopkins Baltimore and Maudsley Hospital London Since 1968 he has been a training analyst for the Society of Analytical Psychology in London He is a past chair and was its director of training for many years The Exploding Self Joseph Redfern, 1992 There may be in each of us an impulse however occasional to destroy the world with its evil its problems and conflicts I, Monster David Taransaud, 2017-07-05 I, Monster is a resource for all professionals in health and education who work with challenging young people The book aims to explain the issues behind challenging behaviour to enable empathy and to facilitate a more productive therapeutic relationship between the health education professional and the child I, Monster is divided into three parts Part one suggests that our greatest foes lurk deep within ourselves and that knowing our own darkness is the best method for dealing with the darkness of other people Jung 1973 Part two focuses on the inner world of adolescents who use aggression to manage early terrors Part three explores approaches and strategies to help them heal the pain of the past Full of case studies as well as coverage of key concepts and theory this book offers a fascinating insight into the minds of the young people you work with

The Inner World of Trauma Donald Kalsched, 2014-02-25 Donald Kalsched explores the interior world of dream and fantasy images encountered in therapy with people who have suffered unbearable life experiences He shows how in an ironical twist of psychical life the very images which are generated to defend the self can become malevolent and destructive resulting in further trauma for the person Why and how this happens are the questions the book sets out to answer Drawing on detailed clinical material the author gives special attention to the problems of addiction and psychosomatic disorder as well as the broad topic of dissociation and its treatment By focusing on the archaic and primitive defenses of the self he connects Jungian theory and practice with contemporary object relations theory and dissociation theory At the same time he shows how a Jungian understanding of the universal images of myth and folklore can illuminate treatment of the traumatised patient Trauma is about the rupture of those developmental transitions that make life worth living Donald Kalsched sees this as a spiritual problem as well as a psychological one and in The Inner World of Trauma he provides a compelling insight into how an inner self care system tries to save the personal spirit Erotic Transference and Countertransference David Mann, 2003-09-02 Erotic Transference and Countertransference brings together for the first time contemporary views on how psychotherapists and analysts work with and think about the erotic in therapeutic practice Representing a broad spectrum of psychoanalytic perspectives including object relations Kleinian Jungian and Lacanian thought the contributors highlight similarities and differences in their approaches to the erotic in transference and countertransference ranging from love and sexual desire to perverse and psychotic manifestations Erotic Transference and Countertransference offers ways of understanding the erotic which should prove both useful and thought provoking Contemporary Jungian Analysis Ian Alister, Christopher Hauke, 2013-10-23 Essential reading for anyone interested in contemporary psychotherapy Contemporary Jungian Analysis written by members of the Society of Analytical Psychology in London covers the key concepts of Jungian analysis and therapy as it is practised today Each chapter brings together two essays by different authors to give different perspectives on themes which are of common interest to psychotherapists of all persuasions Topics include infancy gender transference popular culture assessment and pathology dreams and active imagination the training of the therapist religious and spiritual issues

Unconventional Wisdom June Boyce-Tillman, 2016-04-08 Early Christianity saw women in positions of authority and a fluid theology that included feminine figures in the notion of the Divine However for centuries a male trinity has dominated theology with the characteristics of triumphalism clarity order eternality and unity Unconventional Wisdom examines the attempt within the last half of the twentieth century to unearth the hidden theological tradition of feminine Wisdom The book presents the work of influential theorists notably Foucault Belenky and Dorothy Smith The recovery of the feminine in the divine is linked with the rediscovery of subjugated value systems and what this might mean for ecclesiology

Witness and Vision of the Therapists MR Colin Feltham, 1998-07-16 This fascinating book presents the views of experienced therapists and counsellors on what is learnt about aspects of human nature from the many hours spent witnessing clients stories Contributors write about their observations on working with people whose suffering is associated with social marginalization family breakdown the gay community the AIDS epidemic the Holocaust and with people in groups those who have experienced disaster and personal trauma or depression and those who have murdered The book takes us to some of the depths of human suffering in order to illustrate the value and impact of therapy and some of the failings and disillusionment of therapy The material provides insights and hypotheses bearing on the human condition itself and the contributors do not avoid disclosing some of their own struggles doubts and suffering

Contemporary Jungian Clinical Practice Elphis Christopher, Hester McFarland Solomon, 2020-05-29 This book on clinical practice gives information on actual clinical work bearing witness to a way of working and being trained to work that is ethically healing of the psyches of suffering people and presenting the patients material unencumbered by excessive theorizing or technical language

Women's Aggressive Fantasies Sue Austin, 2005 Drawing together apparently disparate strands of theory from feminism critical psychology contemporary psychoanalysis and post Jungian thought this book succeeds in providing a new insight into the phenomenon of female violence and aggression Ways of Knowing Chris Clarke, 2013-09-18 The world faces a crisis of meaning The old stories whether the exclusive claims of rival religions or the grand schemes of perennial philosophy seem bankrupt to many The editorial stance of this book is that mysticism and science offer a way forward here but only if they abandon the idol of a single logical synthesis and acknowledge the diversity of different ways of knowing The contributors from disciplines as diverse as music psychology mathematics and religion build a vision that honours diversity while pointing to an implicit unity

Feminist Views from Somewhere Leslie Gardner, Frances Gray, 2016-12-08 Feminist Views from Somewhere Post Jungian Themes in Feminist Theory explores what and how Jungian thought contributes to feminist thinking Broadly speaking feminist thinking or thinking by and about women as autonomous intelligent and independent agents has opened up scholarship through insightful reflective critique and practice This is the starting point of this collection from a range of theorists interested in the multiple concerns of Jungian and analytical psychology The contributors take a unique approach to Jungian thinking Rather than focusing on its mythological aspects the authors develop alternative feminist approaches that enhance the appreciation of the possibilities for Jungian and post Jungian studies With a primarily theoretical orientation the rigorous critical approaches in the collection highlight the possibilities of imaginative Jungian theory Divided into three parts Viewing Earth Clinical Perspectives and Literary Landscapes the chapters cover themes including embodiment intersubjectivity individuation and narrative The contributors vividly reflect the range and diversity of opinions amongst women influenced by Jungian thought Feminist Views from Somewhere is essential reading for academics and students of Jungian and post Jungian studies women s studies and gender studies as well as analytical psychologists in practice and in training

Introduction to Counselling and Psychotherapy Stephen Palmer, 2000-01-28 An introductory text that applies a down to earth approach to a diversity of 23 therapeutic approaches within counselling and psychotherapy it was actually a pleasure conducting the review and having to read over the outlined models It is a definite entry for counselling training courses and will offer plenty of ideas for those teaching as well as training It is fun to read and offers numerous ideas of how to put into place counselling techniques Counselling Psychology Review This essential guide to the range of approaches used in current practice covers all of the major schools of counselling and psychotherapy as well as many that are less well known Ideal as a first textbook for student counsellors or psychotherapists Introduction to Counselling and Psychotherapy will help them locate their initial training within the broad context of different therapeutic approaches and help them to discover the specific areas to which they feel the greatest leaning Each chapter introduces a specific approach and includes a clear explanation of the core concepts and their use in practice an illustrative case study profiles of the clients who benefit most from the approach advice on further reading and issues for discussion The book also features a substantial glossary of terms

Cultural Complexes and Europe's Many Souls Jörg Rasche, Thomas Singer, 2024-08-30 This timely and important new volume examines the impacts of Brexit and the war in Ukraine from the lens of the cultural complex model in an exploration of the underlying dynamic relationships within and between countries There have been seismic changes in Europe in recent years with the onset of Brexit and the Russian Ukraine war pre existing cultural complexes have erupted in fragmenting divisions and war creating an atmosphere closest to that of the ominous animosities of the Cold War after World War 2 and impacting the psyche on both an archetypal and cultural level In this volume contributors provide early attempts to make sense of the current situation and to think about it in terms of activated cultural complexes specifically in Britain and Eastern Europe and perhaps across the globe This will be an important read for Jungian analysts interested in the underlying dynamic fuelling Brexit and the Ukraine Russia war as well as those interested in Jungian studies analysis and political activism and international affairs from a Jungian perspective

Terrorism and War Jean Arundale, Coline Covington, Jean Knox, Paul ((Psychotherapist)) Williams, 2018-03-29 Following the attacks of September 11th 2001 one of the resounding questions asked was What would make anyone do such a thing The psychological mentality of the suicidal terrorist left a gaping hole in people's understanding This essential volume represents a much needed effort to collate and examine some of the material already at our disposal as an encouragement to serious thought on this question and other related questions If terrorism is not new what is it about the recent attacks that gives us a sense that something has changed Is it the scale of the destruction or the anxiety that we are facing some altogether new uncertainty Are we in some sense facing a new enemy In reflecting on these and other related questions we may be facing a similar watershed of understanding to that faced by Freud at the end of the Great War In the absence of progress in our thinking today political leaders and public opinion will likely turn to previous political and religious ideas investing in them with a fundamentalist certainty that spells disaster The Journey of Luke Skywalker Steven A.

Galipeau, 2015-12-14 Using C G Jung's approach to dreams and myths Jungian analyst Steven Galipeau reveals to readers the wealth of symbolism and meaning embedded in George Lucas's modern fairytale From the battle between light femininity and dark masculinity to the conflict between nature and technology Galipeau explains why the characters and themes in the movies resonate so deeply with us Appealing to Star Wars fans as well as those interested in popular culture contemporary myths and archetypes The Journey of Luke Skywalker will bring new insight to the most popular film series of the last two decades Behind the space dogfights and light saber duels is a mythology that touches a chord in the human psyche this title will be the basis of many internet discussions not to mention term papers by fans who will enjoy it Recommended Michael Rogers Library Journal Depth Psychology and Climate Change Dale Mathers, 2020-11-29 Depth Psychology and Climate Change offers a sensitive and insightful look at how ideas from depth psychology can move us beyond psychological overwhelm when facing the ecological disaster of climate change and its denial Integrating ideas from disciplines including anthropology politics spirituality mythology and philosophy contributors consider how climate change affects psychological well being and how we can place hope and radical uncertainty alongside rage and despair The book explores symbols of transformation myths and futures and is structured to encourage regular reflection Each contributor brings their own perspective green politics change and loss climate change denial consumerism and our connection to nature suggesting responses to mental suffering arising from an unstable and uncertain international outlook They examine how subsequent changes in consciousness can develop This book will be essential reading for analytical psychologists Jungian analysts and psychotherapists as well as academics and students of Jungian and post Jungian studies It will also be of great interest to academics and students of the politics and policy of climate change anthropology myth and symbolism and ecopsychology and to anyone seeking a new perspective on the climate emergency National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1993 Time-Limited Counselling Colin Feltham,1997 Excellent the book explores the provision of effective counselling with limited resources and under strict time pressures with some excellent writing on the nature of time and attitudes to time in counselling and psychotherapy the evidence in favour of short term counselling is put strongly Colin Feltham favours it as an approach of choice for certain clients which should coexist with rather than adversarially seek to oust and replace longer term therapy he draws from a wide range of literature while identifying those key ingredients skills and strategies that he has found especially significant He also discusses some of the different contexts in which this work operates Many of the questions and issues he poses Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1993-04
