It embraces topics ranging from Walt Whitman's interest in phrenology to the marginalization of African American experimental writing from Kamau Brathwaite's calibanistic language practices to Federico García Lorca's flamenco aesthetic of duende and its continuing repercussions from H.D.'s desert measure and coastal way of knowing to the altered spatial disposition of Miles Davis's trumpet sound from Robert Duncan's serial poetics to diasporic syncretism from the lyric poem's present-day predicaments to gnosticism. Offering illuminating commentary on these and other artists including Amiri Baraka, Mississippi Fred McDowell, Wilson Harris, Jack Spicer, John Coltrane, Jay Wright, and Bob Kaufman, Paracritical Hinge also sheds light on Mackey's own work as a poet, fiction writer, and editor. A Romantic View of Poetry Joseph Warren Beach,1944 A Romantic View of Poetry was first published in 1944. Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original. University of Minnesota Press editions. Poetry is of the very essence of living. In this belief Joseph Warren Beach discusses the ways in which poet and reader create and live a being more intense and thereby fulfill the function of poetry. Wherever there is life, says Beach, there poetry is present potentially and in its rudiments and poetry as I conceive it is the sovereign means we have of realizing the satisfaction which we take in living. Against the background of the Romantic School he develops a pattern for the understanding of poetry that applies to all schools and to all readers. Poetry of realization and release cannot be circumscribed. Wordsworth, Coleridge, Byron, Keats, and Shelley stand here as examples of the poetic artist. And every person who responds to the work of the poet shares with him the imaginative stimulus of poetic creation. A Romantic View of Poetry consists of a series of lectures delivered by Mr. Beach at the Johns Hopkins University in 1941 on the Percy Turnball Memorial Foundation. British Books ,1916 The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record ,1916 Laylī and Majnūn Ali Asghar Seyed-Gohrab,2021-07-19 This book is the first comprehensive analysis of Nezām's romance Layl and Majnūn. It examines key themes such as chastity, constancy, and suffering through an analysis of the main characters. Majnūn's asceticism, kingship, love, madness, poetic genius, ill fate, and love death are treated in separate chapters. The patriarchal society in which Layl lives, her anxieties and dilemmas, incarceration, secret love, imposed marriage, and finally her death are discussed in detail. One chapter is devoted entirely to the different ways parents raise their children and the consequences. Finally, the book gives an analysis of Nezām's style, the narrative structure of the romance, and the symbolism of time and setting. Index to Fairy Tales, Myths and Legends Mary Huse Eastman,1915 The Indra Hymns of the R̥gveda J. Gonda,2023-08-14 Although the number of hymns composed in honour of the most popular member of the Vedic pantheon is nearly one-fourth of the total, a monograph on this important collection of religious poetry has up to now never been published It has been the author s endeavour to ascertain and examine all relevant facts concerning their structure the contents and composition of essential constituent parts of the hymns Further this study tries to understand how the poets presented their subject matter and elaborated their themes to illustrate by numerous translated quotations the character of their elements praise prayer and references to sacrifices to investigate how far these are kept separate to examine numerous stylistic and phraseological particulars and the various peculiarities of their versification as well as the syntactic aspects of this poetry
