Exploration and Conquest Betsy Maestro,1994-09-29 Relates the story of the the first European explorers and settlers to come to America and details their effect on the people they encountered there Exploration and Conquest: The Americas After Columbus: 1500-1620 Betsy Maestro,Giulio Maestro,1997-08 Relates the story of the first European explorers and settlers to come to America and details their effect on the people they encountered there The First Settlements Thompson,2005-08-01 Explores The First Settlements That Were Formed In America Discussing The Explorers That Made Them Possible And The Reasons For The Colonization The Animal Other in Narratives of Conquest Stacy Hoult,2023-04-11 The Animal Other in Narratives of Conquest Uncanny Encounters investigates the functions of nonhuman animal imagery in diverse narratives of the Conquest of the Americas The author s explications of film poetry literary and popular fiction and theme park spaces draw on postcolonial and animal theory deconstructive and Freudian literary criticism and radical social theory She argues that animals in these texts function on two levels while they play a key role in the development of both Indigenous and European characters depictions of their treatment and symbolic charge consistently work to disrupt narratives that seek to present the Conquest as a mutually beneficial encounter between two cultures The close readings of animal imagery in texts ranging from Pablo Neruda s poetry to the animated film The Road to El Dorado represent a fresh approach to questions surrounding the depictions of Indigenous Americans and the motivations tactics and lasting contributions of the invading culture Literature Connections to World History K6 Lynda G. Adamson,1998-04-15 Identifying thousands of historical fiction novels biographies history trade books CD ROMs and videotapes help you locate world history resources for students Each is divided into two sections In the first part titles are listed according to grade levels within specific geographic areas and time periods They are further organized by product type Both books cover world history from Prehistory and the Ancient World to 54 B C to the modern era Other chapters include Roman Empire to A D 476 Europe and the British Isles Africa and South Africa Australia New Zealand Pacific Islands and Antarctica Canada China India Tibet and Burma Israel and Arab Countries Japan Vietnam Korea Cambodia and Thailand and South and Central America and the Caribbean The second section has an annotated bibliography that describes each title and includes publication information and awards The focus is on books published since 1990 and all have received at least one favorab A Latino Heritage, Series V Isabel Schon,1995 An aid for librarians and teachers interested in exposing students in kindergarten through high school with an understanding and appreciation of the people history and art and political social and economic problems of Central and South American countries and Latino heritage people in the United States A Bible Believer Looks at World History Frederick Widdowson,2010-08-08 This is a review of world history from a Bible believer s perspective It is designed for use by homeschoolers but anyone can learn from it Explorers and Colonies David B. Quinn,1990-01-01 This book brings together a collection of the work of David Quinn the preeminent authority on the early history of the discovery and colonization of America Children's Catalog Anne Price, Juliette Yaakov, 1996 The Explorers of South America Edward Julius Goodman, 1992 A narrative history of exploration from Christopher Columbus to the 19th century with journal excerpts diaries and other writings of the explorers themselves Goodman has marshaled his wide ranging research and lifelong interest in exploration into a comprehensive scholarly history A reprint of the original 1972 edition the tales have lost none of their luster Book Review Digest , 1996 Los primeros asentamientos Thompson, 2005-08-01 Explores The First Settlements That Were Formed In America Discussing The Explorers That Made Them Possible And The Reasons For The Colonization "The" Historians' History of the World Henry Smith Williams, 1907 A History of Latin America to 1825 , 2009-12-21 The updated and enhanced third edition of A History of Latin America to 1825 presents a comprehensive narrative survey of Latin American history from the region's first human presence until the majority of Iberian colonies in America emerged as sovereign states c 1825 This edition features new content on the history of women gender Africans in the Iberian colonies and pre Columbian peoples Includes more illustrations to aid learning over 50 figures and photographs several accompanied by short essays Concentrates on the colonial period and earlier expanding coverage of the period and incorporating more social and cultural history with the political narrative Part of The Blackwell History of the World Series The goal of this ambitious series is to provide an accessible source of knowledge about the entire human past for every curious person in every part of the world It will comprise some two dozen volumes of which some provide synoptic views of the history of particular regions while others consider the world as a whole during a particular period of time The volumes are narrative in form giving balanced attention to social and cultural history in the broadest sense as well as to institutional development and political change Each provides a systematic account of a very large subject but they are also both imaginative and interpretative The Series is intended to be accessible to the widest possible readership and the accessibility of its volumes is matched by the style of presentation and production Grolier Student Library of Explorers and Exploration , 1998 Earliest explorers Explorers of the American East Kelly K. Chaves, Oliver C. Walton, 2018-12-07 Focusing on ten key figures whose careers illuminate the history of the European exploration of North America this book presents compelling first person narratives that bring to life the challenges of historical scholarship in the academic classroom Explorers of the American East Mapping the World through Primary Documents covers 280 years of North American exploration and colonization efforts ranging geographically from Florida to the Arctic Arranged thematically and mononationally the work focuses on a selection of 10 explorers who represent the changing course of North American exploration during the early modern period The use of biography to narrate this history draws in readers and makes the work accessible to both a specialized and general audience The dozens of primary source documents in this guided source reader span travel accounts autobiographies letters official reports memoirs patents and articles of agreement This wide variety of primary sources serves to bring to life the failures and triumphs of exploring a newly discovered continent in the early modern period This work focuses on ten explorers including those who are well known including John Cabot John Smith Jacques Cartier and Samuel de Champlain as well as discoverers who have slipped from our modern historical consciousness such as George Waymouth John Lawson and J F W Des Barres The documents that narrate the voyages of these adventurers are arranged chronologically vividly telling the story of historical events and presenting different voices to the reader This variety of viewpoints serves to heighten readers critical engagement with historical source material The vast variety of primary source materials present students with the opportunity to read and engage critically with different types of historical documents thereby growing their analytical skillsets
