Explorations In Cognitive Dissonance:

Explorations in Cognitive Dissonance Jack Williams Brehm, Arthur Robert Cohen, 1965 Explorations in Cognitive Dissonance Jack Williams Brehm, 1965 Exploration in Cognitive Dissonance, Jack W. Brehm, Arthur R. Cohen Jack Williams Brehm, Arthur R., Cohen, 1962 Explorations in cognitive dissonance Jack Williams Brehm, 1962 Human Liberty and Freedom of Speech C. Edwin Baker, 1992-10-01 Although an inchoate liberty theory of freedom of speech has deep roots in Supreme Court decisions and political history it has been overshadowed in judicial decisions and scholarly commentary by the marketplace of ideas theory In this book Baker critiques the assumptions required by the marketplace of ideas theory and develops the liberty theory showing its philosophical soundness persuasiveness and ability to protect free speech He argues that First Amendment liberty rights as well as Fourteenth Amendment equality rights required by political or moral theory are central to the possibility of progressive change Problem areas are examined including the question of whether individual political and civil rights can in principle be distinguished from property rights freedom of the press and the use of public spaces for expressive purposes TransforMission Michael S. Wilder, Shane W. Parker, 2010-05-01 Remarkably thirty percent of North American teenagers millions of people between the ages of 13 and 17 have engaged in religious missions or service projects Building on this statistic the authors of TransforMission believe that short term mission is one way God is taking the gospel to the nations and concurrently transforming the lives of these student participants Writing to youth ministers missiologists church leaders adult volunteers and post high school students they assess strategies for further promoting this kind of involvement by exploring several questions What mechanisms is God employing to achieve this advance in mission What is taking place in the lives of believers who are obediently participating in the fulfillment of the Great Commission What are the theological and theoretical foundations for the life transformation that is occurring What is the most effective means of conducting short term mission experiences The Handbook of Communication Science Charles R. Berger, Michael E. Roloff, David R. Ewoldsen, 2009-04-30 This revision of a classic volume presents state of the art reviews of established and emerging areas of communication science and provides an intellectual compass that points the way to future theorizing about communication processes In this Second Edition of The Handbook of Communication Science editors Charles R Berger Michael E Roloff and David Roskos Ewoldsen bring together an impressive array of communication scholars to explore and synthesize the varying perspectives and approaches within the dynamic field of communication science After first addressing the methods of research and the history of the field the Handbook then examines the levels of analysis in communication individual to macro social the functions of communication such as socialization and persuasion and the contexts in which communication occurs such as couples families organizations and mass media Key Features Draws on the scholarship and expertise of leading communication scholars who explore different aspects of the field Covers all facets of communication science from the historical and theoretical to the practical and applied Covers the latest theoretical developments in the field as well as alternative methodologies and levels of analysis Explores key communication contexts of the 21st century including interpersonal dimensions of health communication the scientific investigation of marital and family communication and computer mediated communication Includes incisive analyses literature reviews bibliographies and suggestions for future research The Handbook of Communication Science Second Edition is an essential reference resource for scholars practitioners and students It is appropriate for upper level undergraduate or graduate courses in Communication and Media Studies and Mass Communication Coercion, Cooperation, and Ethics in International Relations Richard Ned Lebow, 2007-05-07 This volume brings together the recent essays of Richard Ned Lebow one of the leading scholars of international relations and US foreign policy Lebow's work has centred on the instrumental value of ethics in foreign policy decision making and the disastrous consequences which follow when ethical standards are flouted Unlike most realists who have considered ethical considerations irrelevant in states calculations of their national interest Lebow has argued that self interest and hence national interest can only be formulated intelligently within a language of justice and morality The essays here build on this pervasive theme in Lebow's work by presenting his substantive and compelling critique of strategies of deterrence and compellence illustrating empirically and normatively how these strategies often produce results counter to those that are intended The last section of the book on counterfactuals brings together another set of related articles which continue to probe the relationship between ethics and policy They do so by exploring the contingency of events to suggest the subjective and often self fulfilling nature of the frameworks we use to evaluate policy choices The Illusion of Attitude Change J. M. Nuttin, Jr. Nuttin, 1996 Motivational Analyses of Social Behavior Rex A. Wright, Jeff Greenberg, Sharon S. Brehm, 2004-04-12 This book honors Jack W Brehm's contributions to psychology all of which revolve around a central theme of motivation and social behavior It begins with two personal chapters and then presents a collection of cutting edge substantive chapters authored by researchers whose work Brehm has strongly influenced It concludes with a chapter by Jack Brehm that reflects on the field of psychology discusses a new theory of social influence and offers ideas about the direction in which our understanding of human behavior could move Motivational Analyses of Social Behavior will be of value to research scientists educators and practitioners interested in social motivational processes and those who developed major theories in this area Interested readers include individuals specializing in social clinical organizational personality health and motivational psychology and psychophysiology The book would also be ideal for advanced courses on social motivation and the history of psychology Impression Management Theory and Social Psychological Research James T. Tedeschi, 2013-09-24 Impression Management Theory and Social Psychological Research gathers together the various strands of thinking and research on impression management This book does not easily lend itself to a singular organization Not only do the authors deal with very different topics they sometimes disagree with one another on assumptions and interpretations Nevertheless there are chapters that tend to group together The book can be organized into six parts Part I General Theory consists of chapters that deal primarily with issues related to the reasons for and specific tactics of impression management Part II Impression Management and Laboratory Research includes two chapters that make a major contribution to the social psychology of the experiment Part III Attitudes as Tactics of Self Presentation centers around the concept of attitudes The chapters in Part IV Self Presentation and Harm Doing are organized around the theme of harm doing Part V Bargaining Distributive Justice and Impression Management focuses on the distribution of rewards in groups Part VI Individual Differences and Impression Management is concerned with individual differences such as mental illness social anxiety and shyness
