Explorations In Contemporary Continental:

Explorations in Contemporary Continental Philosophy of Religion Deane-Peter Baker, Patrick Maxwell, 2003 This book is an exploration of the content and dimensions of contemporary continental philosophy of religion It is also a showcase of the work of some of the philosophers who are by their scholarship filling out the meaning of the term continental philosophy of religion The Ends of Philosophy of Religion T. Knepper, 2013-08-20 Knepper criticizes existing efforts in the philosophy of religion for being out of step with and therefore useless to the academic study of religion then forwards a new program for philosophy of religion that is in step with and therefore useful to the academic study of religion Postanalytic and Metacontinental Jack Reynolds, James Chase, James Williams, 2010-06-03 Reconfigurations of Philosophy of Religion Jim Kanaris, 2018-04-01 Explores the place and meaning of philosophy of religion in our current poststructuralist postsecular postcolonialist context This collection addresses as it exemplifies an identity crisis in contemporary philosophy of religion It represents a unique two way dialogue between philosophers of religion and scholars of religion and broaches issues pertaining to the philosophy of religion and the philosophical tradition on the one hand and religious studies theology and the modern academy on the other While each author manages the current challenges in philosophy of religion differently one can nonetheless discern a polyphony of interests surrounding a postcritical postsecular appreciation of religion In part 1 contributors ask how philosophy of religion can accommodate both the strengths and weaknesses of Western analytic and continental traditions incorporate developments in ideology critique gender studies and Asian philosophies and negotiate the perceived stalemate in philosophy of religion Part 2 addresses these questions in terms of a philosophy of religion that is postcolonial in intention and multidisciplinary in orientation and features scholarship from the fields of both religion and theology An underlying theme is the importance of ushering philosophy of religion into a postphenomenological era of religious studies and theology This is a neglected dimension in many laudable discussions about philosophy of religion that this volume hopes to emend This gathering of important voices and the differences of approach and opinion that they represent invites provokes reflection self examination by philosophers of religion and further work Jeffrey Dudiak author of The Intrigue of Ethics A Reading of the Idea of Discourse in the Thought of Emmanuel Levinas The Vision of Gabriel Marcel Brendan Sweetman, 2008 This book illustrates the profound implications of Gabriel Marcel s unique existentialist approach to epistemology not only for traditional themes in his work concerning ethics and the transcendent but also for epistemological issues concerning the objectivity of knowledge the problem of skepticism and the nature of non conceptual knowledge among others There are also chapters of dialogue with philosophers Jacques Maritain and Martin Buber In focusing on these themes the book makes a distinctive contribution to the literature on Marcel Brendan Sweetman a native of Dublin Ireland is Professor of Philosophy at Rockhurst University Kansas City MO USA His books include Why Politics Needs Religion The Place of Religious Arguments in the Public Square InterVarsity 2006 and Religion Key Concepts in Philosophy

Continuum Books 2007 He has coauthored or coedited several other books including Truth and Religious Belief M E Sharpe 1998 and Contemporary Perspectives on Religious Epistemology Oxford University Press 1992 Professor Sweetman has published more than fifty articles and reviews in a variety of collections and journals including International Philosophical Quarterly American Catholic Philosophical Quarterly Faith and Philosophy Philosophia Christi and Review of Metaphysics He writes regularly in the areas of continental philosophy philosophy of religion political philosophy and ethics The Curve of the Sacred Constantin V. Ponomareff, Kenneth A. Bryson, 2006 This book is about life's meaning a spiritual dimension about which by nature all persons wonder The book follows the human journey in works of art literature music medicine theology philosophy psychology and religion Book Jacket Fifty Years of Philosophy of Religion Andries F. Sanders, Kristof De Ridder, 2007 The bibliography lists about 10 000 titles of monographs collections and articles in the field of the philosophy of religion and philosophical theology that appeared between 1955 and 2005 The majority of them are in the English language but publications in German Dutch and French are listed as well Though it is not claimed to be exhaustive the bibliography offers a fairly representative survey of scholarly work on the main topics of interest Publications have been systematically classified according to eleven main categories Introductions Surveys and Historical Issues Part I Religious Language Part II Religious Experience Part III Religious Epistemology Part IV Theism Part V Hermeneutics Part VI Religion and Science Part VII Religion and Aesthetics Part VIII Religion and Morality Part IX Religious Pluralism Part X and Feminist Philosophy of Religion Part XI Part III has been subdivided into Religious Experience and Mystical Experience Part VII into The Concept of God arguments for The Existence of God The Problem of Evil and Atheism and Part VII into General and Historical Issues Theological Issues and implications of Modern Physics Cosmology and Biology The bibliography will particularly be useful to scholars teachers and students in the philosophy of religion philosophical theology and systematic theology as well as to those who are interested professionally or otherwise in the results of academic scholarship in those fields Re-visioning Gender in Philosophy of Religion Pamela Sue Anderson, 2017-10-24 A passion for justice and truth motivates the bold challenge of Revisioning Gender in Philosophy of Religion Unearthing the ways in which the myths of Christian patriarchy have historically inhibited and prohibited women from thinking and writing their own ideas this book lays fresh ground for re-visioning the epistemic practices of philosophers Pamela Sue Anderson seeks both to draw out the salient threads in the gendering of philosophy of religion as it has been practiced and to re-vision gender for philosophy today The arguments put forth by contemporary philosophers of religion concerning human and divine attributes are epistemically located yet the motivation to recognize this locatedness has to come from a concern for justice This book presents invaluable new perspectives on the philosopher's ever increasing awareness of his or her own locatedness on the gender often unwittingly given to God the ineffability in both analytic and Continental philosophy the still critical role of reason in the field the aims of a feminist philosophy of religion the roles of beauty and justice the vision of love and reason and a gendering which opens philosophy of religion up to diversity Exploration Stewart Angus Weaver, 2015 This clear succinct and elegant contribution to the Very Short Introduction series surveys the history of global exploration and assesses the motives for good and ill of those who undertook it Stewart Weaver traces the history of exploration from the first explorers including Polynesian and Micronesian peoples the ancient Greeks Marco Polo and Ibn Batt ta to the European discover of America the Enlightenment and exploration focusing on James Cook the race to the north and south poles and finally twentieth century space and deep sea exploration Exploration Stewart A. Weaver, 2014-12-19 We live in an age of globalization on every conceivable level but globalization has a deeper history than politicians and pundits often allow and nothing is more significant to its history than exploration Wherever trade or faith or empire followed explorers usually led Their motives were as many sided and various as their actions their legacies are contested and mixed But none can doubt the significance of explorers to the making of the modern world For as long as human societies have existed people have felt the urge to venture outside of them either in search of other societies or in search of new land or adventure Exploration A Very Short Introduction surveys this quintessential human impulse tracing it from pre history to the present from east to west around the globe and from the depths of volcanoes to the expanses of space Focusing on the theme of exploration as encounter Stewart Weaver discusses the Polynesians in the Pacific the Norse in the Atlantic and other early explorers He reflects on the Columbian discovery of the Americas James Cook and the place of exploration in the Enlightenment and Alexander von Humboldt s epochal encounter with tropical South America The book s final chapters relate exploration to imperial expansion in Africa and Central Asia assess the meaning of the race to the North and South Poles and consider the significance of today s efforts in space and deep sea exploration But what accounts for this urge Through this brief study of the history of exploration Weaver clearly shows how the impulse to explore is also the foundation of the globalized world we inhabit today Exploration combines a narration of explorers daring feats with a wide lens examination of what it fundamentally means to explore ABOUT THE SERIES The Very Short Introductions series from Oxford University Press contains hundreds of titles in almost every subject area These pocket sized books are the perfect way to get ahead in a new subject quickly Our expert authors combine facts analysis perspective new ideas and enthusiasm to make interesting and challenging topics highly readable Proceedings of the International Field Exploration and Development Conference 2023 Jia'en Lin, 2024-03-18 This book focuses on reservoir surveillance and management reservoir evaluation and dynamic description reservoir production stimulation and EOR ultra tight reservoir unconventional oil and gas resources technology oil and gas well production testing and geomechanics This book is a compilation of selected papers from the 13th International Field Exploration and Development Conference IFEDC 2023 The conference not only provides a platform to exchanges experience but also promotes the development of scientific research in oil gas exploration and production The main audience for the work includes reservoir engineer geological engineer enterprise managers senior engineers as well as students The
