of the qualities that made them drop everything in pursuit of discovery The Great Explorers Robin Hanbury-Tenison, 2018-10-16 Penetrating biographies written by a group of distinguished travel writers, broadcasters and historians reveal the lives, motives and passions of forty major explorers in history. It has always been mankind's gift or curse to be inquisitive and through the ages people have been driven to explore the limits of the worlds known to them and beyond. Here are the stories of forty of the world's greatest explorers from Europe, America, Asia and Australia. These are men and women who changed our perception of the world through their courageous adventures. Organized thematically, the book opens with the oceanic journeys of five hundred years ago when the great era of recorded exploration began. The following sections look at The Land, Rivers, Polar Ice, Deserts, Life on Earth and New Frontiers. Many of these explorers recounted their journeys in vivid firsthand accounts; others were superb artists or photographers. The book features quotes from their journals and reports and it is illustrated with paintings, photographs, engravings and maps so that we can experience their adventures through their own eyes and in their own words. Featured explorers include Christopher Columbus, Vasco da Gama, James Cook, Lewis and Clark, Richard Burton, Samuel de Champlain, David Livingstone, Roald Amundsen, Gertrude Bell, Alexander von Humboldt, Yuri Gagarin and Jacques Yves Cousteau. Women Explorers in Africa Margo McLoone, 1997 Summarizes the lives and accomplishments of five women who were explorers in Africa. Explorers Matthew Lockwood, 2024-10-15 Wonderfully insightful and entertaining, gives voice to those who have been overlooked for too long. Eric Jay Dolin, author of Left for Dead, The impulse to seek out new worlds is universal to humanity. Unfurling a tapestry of surprising and historically overlooked figures spanning forty centuries and six continents, historian Matthew Lockwood narrates lives filled with imagination and wonder, curiosity, connection and exchange. Familiar icons of exploration like Pocahontas, Columbus, Sacagawea and Captain Cook find new company in the untold stories of people usually denied the title explorers, including immigrants, indigenous interpreters, local guides and fugitive slaves. He highlights female voyagers like Gudrid Far Traveler and Freydis Eiríksdóttir, Viking women who sailed to North America in 1000 AD, and Mary Wortley Montagu, whose pioneering travels to Constantinople would lead to the development of the world's first smallpox vaccine. Figures like Ghulam Rasul Galwan, a guide for European travelers in the Himalayas, reveal the hidden labor, expertise and local enthusiasm behind many grand stories of discovery. Other characters like David Dorr, a man born into slavery in New Orleans who embarked on a Grand Tour of Europe and Egypt, embody discovery and wonder as universal parts of the human condition. As Lockwood makes clear, people of every background imagine new worlds. Adventurers from every corner of the globe search for the unknown and try to understand it, remaking the world and themselves in the process. Exploration is for everyone who sets off into the unknown. It is the inheritance of all. Levinas and the Torah Richard I. Sugarman, 2019-09-01 A Levinasian commentary on the Torah. The French philosopher Emmanuel Levinas (1906-1995) was one of the most original Jewish thinkers of the twentieth century. This book interprets the Hebrew Bible through the lens of Levinas's religious philosophy. Richard I

Sugarman examines the Pentateuch using a phenomenological approach drawing on both Levinas's philosophical and Jewish writings. Sugarman puts Levinas in conversation with biblical commentators both classical and modern including Rashi, Maimonides, Sforno, Hirsch, and Soloveitchik. He particularly highlights Levinas's work on the Talmud and the Holocaust. Levinas's reading is situated against the background of a renewed understanding of such phenomena as covenant, promise, different modalities of time, and justice. The volume is organized to reflect the fifty-four portions of the Torah read during the Jewish liturgical year. A preface provides an overview of Levinas's life, approach, and place in contemporary Jewish thought. The reader emerges with a deeper understanding of both the Torah and the philosophy of a key Jewish thinker. Sugarman rightly treats Levinas as a thoroughly Jewish religious thinker, an approach to the great thinker that is much needed. Taking such an approach, he opens up new innovative horizons in Torah commentary and analysis. Through a perceptive reading of Levinas through the biblical lens, he offers an insightful illumination of both the Bible and Levinas. Some may not be sure what to make of Sugarman's work here, but then that is how it always is with innovative approaches. David Patterson, author of The Holocaust and the Nonrepresentable: Literary and Photographic Transcendence. Planet explorer Murray Leinster, 2023-07-10. Murray Leinster's Planet Explorer epitomizes the spirit of mid-20th century science fiction, blending imaginative world building with a profound engagement in ethical dilemmas surrounding exploration and colonization. Set against the backdrop of uncharted alien terrains, the narrative follows a team of explorers who confront not only the unknown empirical realities of distant planets but also the moral complexities of their scientific pursuits. Leinster's prose is accessible yet richly textured, employing a clear and engaging style that invites readers into a vividly imagined universe. This work resonates within the literary context of its time, addressing contemporary anxieties about the implications of technological advancement and human resourcefulness in the stark, unyielding universe. Murray Leinster, a pioneer in the sci-fi genre, drew upon his extensive background in journalism and early fascination with technology to craft narratives that reflect humanity's aspirations and fears. His works often explore themes of cooperation, survival, and the philosophical ramifications of contact with extraterrestrial life. Leinster's commitment to presenting relatable characters navigating extraordinary situations is a hallmark of his storytelling, influencing generations of writers. Planet Explorer is a must-read for enthusiasts of classic science fiction and those intrigued by the interplay between human ambition and cosmic mystery. Leinster's narrative not only provides thrilling escapades but serves as a thought-provoking mirror reflecting our own societal values and choices. Immerse yourself in this timeless tale that challenges readers to contemplate the price of progress in the grand tapestry of the universe. Michael Ondaatje: Haptic Aesthetics and Micropolitical Writing Milena Marinkova, 2011-07-14. This study of selected literary and cinematic works by Michael Ondaatje investigates the political potential of the Canadian author's aesthetics. Contributing to current debates about affect and representation, ideology critique, and the artwork's trauma and testimony, this book uses the concept of the haptic to demonstrate how Ondaatje's multisensory, fluid, and historically inflected writing can forge an enabling relationship between audience author and text This is where Ondaatjes micropolitics often misconstrued as ideologically suspect aestheticism emerges a praxis that intimates how one can write and read politically with a difference
