Explorers Wanted In The Outback:

Australian Backyard Explorer Peter Macinnis, 2009 Australian Backyard Explorer has been recognised on the 2011 White Ravens list for international children's and youth literature. Produced each year by the International Youth Library in Germany, the White Ravens recognise books of international interest that deserve a wider reception on account of their universal theme or their exceptional and often innovative artistic and literary style and design. Australian Backyard Explorer tells the stories of many intrepid individuals who explored the Australian continent in the first 120 years of European settlement. It includes little known explorers as well as the old favourites such as James Cook, Edward John Eyre, Robert Oetzel, Hara Burke and William John Wills. There are tales not only of tragedy, conflict and death but also of loyalty, amazing perseverance and wonder over the new animals and landscapes they encountered.

Outback and Out West Tom Lynch, 2022-11 Outback and Out West examines the ecological consequences of a settler colonial imaginary by comparing expressions of settler colonialism in the literature of the American West and Australian Outback. Tom Lynch traces exogenous domination in both regions which resulted in many similar means of settlement including pastoralism, homestead acts, afforestation efforts and bioregional efforts at belonging. Lynch pairs the two nations' texts to show how an analysis at the intersection of ecocriticism and settler colonialism requires a new canon that is responsive to the social, cultural and ecological difficulties created by settlement in the West and Outback. Outback and Out West draws out the regional Anthropocene dimensions of settler colonialism, considering such pressing environmental problems as habitat loss, groundwater depletion and mass extinctions. Lynch studies the implications of our settlement heritage on history, art and the environment through the cross-national comparison of spaces. He asserts that bringing an ecocritical awareness to settler colonial theory is essential for reconciliation with dispossessed Indigenous populations as well as reparations for ecological damages as we work to decolonize engagement with and literature about these places.

Lightning: Year 6 Non Fiction - Extreme Survival Pearson Education, 2003-05-14 Lightning provides 32 books with 3 levels of differentiation per book, whole texts that provide NLS genre coverage, linked themes across fiction, non-fiction and the wider curriculum, focussed teaching support for each book including comprehension and writing activities and a teaching and practice CD that provides opportunities for ICT.

Stories of the Outback, Geographies of Australian Heritages Roy Jones, Brian J.

Shaw, 2017-11-30 In any settler and/or postcolonial society, heritage is a complex and contested topic that involves indigenous, imperial and other migrant components. In Australia, this situation is compounded by the unique characteristics of the country's natural environment, the considerable diversity of its migrant intake and the demographic and technological imbalances between its indigenous and settler populations. This volume brings together internationally recognized academics and emerging scholars whose expertise extends through the areas of tourism, planning, heritage management, environmental studies and state and local government. Through a representative set of case studies from across the country's states and capital cities the contributors demonstrate the range and diversity of heritage issues currently confronting Australia and consider possible ways of resolving these      The Explorer ,1977      The Explorer Cleveland Museum of Natural History,1977      In the Outback Simon Chapman,2005 Your mission should you choose to accept it is to journey to the other side of the world to brave a land of desert and desolation the Australian Outback The last great land mass to be discovered by Europeans the Aboriginal tribes settled here thousands of years earlier establishing a rich and colourful culture What secrets does this strange land hold And which rare animals will you encounter It s not just cuddly koalas you should prepare to meet Will you survive If anyone can help you Simon Chapman can      Explorations in Australia John Forrest,2021-11-09 In John Forrest s Explorations in Australia readers are taken on a remarkable journey through the uncharted territories of the Australian outback Written in a detailed and descriptive manner this book provides valuable insights into the geographical and cultural landscape of a region that was once shrouded in mystery Forrest s literary style is characterized by a raw and unfiltered depiction of his experiences allowing readers to immerse themselves in the harsh realities of exploration in the Australian wilderness The book serves as a valuable source of information for those interested in the history of Australian exploration and the challenges faced by early European settlers Forrest s firsthand accounts of his expeditions offer a unique perspective on the landscape and indigenous people of Australia making this book a valuable addition to any scholarly collection Recommended for history buffs and adventure enthusiasts alike Explorations in Australia provides a captivating read that sheds light on a pivotal period in Australian history      Outback Heroines: True stories of hardship, heartbreak and resilience Sue Williams,2013-09-25 From horse whispering to crocodile hunting to single handedly changing an 80 kilo flat tyre on a road train in 40 degree heat there is nothing these modern day outback women can t do But when it comes to hardship and heartbreak they ve endured far more than their fair share Living and working in some of the most remote spots in the world they ve had to become experts at turning tragedy into triumph Our former Miss World finds a new start in the bush an adventurer crosses one of the world s harshest deserts on camelback a single mum becomes a truck driver to make ends meet and a former nurse takes over the famous Birdsville Hotel This book is a tribute to the great Australian Outback from those who live and work at the heart of it These women simply took my breath away with the kind of courage daring and resilience that have seen them overcome sometimes crushing difficulties Georgie Parker      The Outback Various authors,2018 This collection of short stories about the Outback is the result of the inaugural writing competition for the Outback Writers Festival held in Winton on 21 22 23 June 2016      Literary Journalism in Colonial Australia Willa McDonald,2023-09-02 This book traces the beginnings of literary narrative journalism in Australia It contributes to evolving international definitions of the form while providing a glimpse into Australia s early press history and development as a nation The book comprises two parts The first examines the forerunners of literary journalism before and during the establishment of a free press including the letters diaries and journals of the early colonists as well as sketches published in the first magazines and newspapers The book asks if these were reporting when there was no thriving press until well into the 19th century many were written by women and convicts whose voices otherwise went unheard The second part examines the first expressions of literary journalism in forms more recognisable today covering topics as varied as homelessness in Melbourne the Queensland trade in Pacific Islander labour and Australia's involvement in overseas wars particularly the Boer War The resulting cultural history reveals important milestones in the development of Australia's press and literature while demonstrating the concerns unveiled in colonial literary journalism still resonate in Australia in the 21st century

Rednecks, Eggheads and Blackfellas Gillian Cowlshaw, 2020-08-02 This lively book brings the reader close to the people from a remote cattle station in far north Australia where black and white peoples lives have been intertwined over the span of 80 years Tracing the humorous savage and ordinary ways in which race structured intimate and everyday relationships across a great divide Gillian Cowlshaw makes startling and original arguments about race relations By investigating specific patterns of interaction on Australia's cultural frontier Rednecks Eggheads and Blackfellas illustrates how anthropologists pastoralists and government officials squabbled about Aborigines as they intruded into their country controlled aspects of their lives and dominated the way they were represented in the public realm The ironic title hints that the difference between redneck pastoralists and egghead anthropologists is not so great as might be imagined Aborigines were central to the projects of both kinds of whitefellas Weaving the shifts in government policy and public opinion with accounts of their sometimes ludicrous impact on outback communities this book brings to life the complexities of living with racial categories And it asks why increasingly enlightened anti racist policies seldom seem to have worked as intended even in this era of self determination This thought provoking

What is it about the Australian outback For nearly two centuries narratives of outback journeys have been suffused with the aura of death Why It is not just that the desert is big dry hot and apparently empty The outback is Australia's mythological crucible and journeys there have become rites of passage It is where settlers Australians go to die and perhaps be reborn This book explores the landscape of this evolving national mythology It argues that a more conscious engagement with the process of symbolic death and rebirth is needed for Australians to enter into a deeper understanding of themselves and their relationship to the land and its Indigenous people
