Report of the II. Thule-Expedition for the Exploration of Greenland Knud Rasmussen, 1928 The Illustrated Canadian Forest and Outdoors, 1928 Loving and Studying Nature Malcolm Skilbeck, 2022-01-05 This volume investigates crucial ways in which nature has been apprehended, understood and valued in different cultures and over time. It is grounded in current global concerns about growing threats to the natural environment. Through a critical appraisal of specific examples, it ranges widely over historical and contemporary attitudes and behaviours. It presents a wide ranging analysis of selected ideas and attitudes in the evolution, mainly of western civilisation, from the time of the cave artists to the present day. It argues for preservation and conservation of the natural resources and beauty of the earth in the face of religious, supernatural arguments and the rise of consumer capitalism and consumerism. Pathfinders: A Global History of Exploration Felipe Fernández-Armesto, 2007-10-17 This book is about encounters between cultures and the outreach of ambitions, imaginations, efforts and innovations that made them possible. Discovering the Most Enchanting Places of Argentina MD Amrahs, 2025-06-26 This book series shares Argentina's hidden natural and cultural treasures through 25 sensory rich stories that reveal the country beyond its cities and tango. Inspired by a travel diary about Quebrada del Condorito, the author paints vivid word portraits of red canyons, ancient volcanoes, glacier walls and orchid laced forests. The writing is gentle and accessible, filled with the smells, sounds and textures of each landscape. Rather than technical facts, the focus is on how these places feel and why they matter to people, wildlife and the future of our planet. Readers will also find practical travel tips, cultural insights like local sayings and guidance on respectful, low impact exploration. Whether you're a dreamer, teacher, traveler or parent, this book invites you to explore Argentina's lesser known wonders with open eyes and heart. It's a celebration of discovery and a call to cherish the Earth's quiet, beautiful corners, places that stay with you long.
