Exploring The Worship Spectrum Six Views:

Exploring the Worship Spectrum Zondervan, 2010-05-11 An exploration of what worship looks like from a biblical standpoint and why the topic of worship can be so contentious among Christians Because worship is inherently theological because it is a manifestation of humanity's response to God's holiness it is important to take seriously how we worship and the roles it serves in personal displays of adoration and in community with other believers Exploring the Worship Spectrum provides an overview critique and celebration of six prominent worship styles Formal Liturgical represented by Paul Zahl Traditional Hymn Based represented by Harold Best Contemporary Music Driven represented by Joe Horness Charismatic represented by Don Williams Blended represented by Robert Webber Emerging represented by Sally Morgenthaler This unique format allows those with a heart for worship to compare different perspectives and draw their own conclusions on what the Bible teaches It allows readers to understand the various approaches to worship carefully evaluate their strengths and weaknesses and make personal choices without adopting a judgmental spirit The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion

Soul and the City Marcy Heidish, 2010-05-05 Your City Guide to God Beneath the relentless rhythms of city life beats the heart of God and award winning author Marcy Heidish takes you into a more intimate relationship with him in the midst of crowds chaos and concrete Her experiences from a curb in Brooklyn the bay in San Francisco a rooftop of Chartres Cathedral in Paris and the busy halls of Washington D C help you see the city in a new light She turns common city distractions annoyances and challenges into spiritual invitations or gateways to a new kind of contemplation where screaming sirens become cues to silent intercession skyscrapers like spires pull your eyes and thoughts heavenward and red traffic lights work as pause buttons that call for you to stop and pray In the city there is grit Marcy writes And grime and garbage But her practical tools in every chapter for reflection discussion and application help you see whether you're visiting working or dwelling in Philadelphia or Phoenix New York or Los Angeles Seattle or Syracuse that in the city there is also grace

The Prodigal Church Jared C. Wilson, 2015-04-16 Pastors want to reach the lost with the good news of Jesus However we've too often assumed this requires loud music flashy lights and skinny jeans In this gentle manifesto Jared Wilson a pastor who knows what it's like to serve in a large attractional church challenges pastors to reconsider their priorities when it comes to how they do church and reach people in their communities Writing with the grace and kindness of a trusted friend Wilson encourages pastors to reexamine the Bible's teaching not simply return to a traditional model for tradition's sake He then sets forth an alternative to both the attractional and the traditional models an explicitly biblical approach that is gospel focused grace based and fruit oriented Church Revitalization Russell N. Small, 2023-04-11 There are more churches needing revitalization than there are leaders skilled for the work Church Revitalization guides current and future leaders through the often complex process of bringing a church to a place of vibrancy This book demonstrates how the overarching goal of seeing people come to faith in Christ and develop into Christlikeness can and must inform the most foundational to the most fleeting aspects of revitalizing a struggling church Church Revitalization Strategist Rusty Small systematically walks readers through the many considerations of leading a church out of a decline He helps identify the best approach for addressing what a particular church s revitalization need may be Refresh often most fitting after a difficult season in the church s life Renovate needed when a decline has lasted five to ten years Restore appropriate for churches with generational patterns focused on survival Replant best for a church facing imminent closure Few joys compare to seeing God s life and power realized for the local church when believers begin to think and serve as Jesus did Small will encourage pastors and church leaders engaged in this critical task If God is calling you to church revitalization take and read Reverberating Word Michael Denham,2018-06-12 Like sounds of beautiful music worship can renew us for God s glory and our good by the invigorating power of God s reverberating Word It is God s story that redeems all our stories We want to tell it again and again as best we can clearly conveying its message meaning richness claim and call Through its every facet and component worship that is biblically expositional can heighten how we proclaim God s story faithfully and creatively pointing to the One who alone offers us true identity security and destiny If you seek me you will find me if you search with all your heart declares the Lord With the ancient prophets and apostles we must repeat and repeat and repeat the most wonderful truth that God wants to be found In Christian worship such tremendous and tender encounter is available to us as nowhere else Trinitarian Doxology Kevin J. Navarro,2023-01-26 Liturgical theology tends towards the anthropocentric focussing primarily on the behaviour of the worshippers The theology of Thomas F and James B Torrance however provides an alternative approach a Trinitarian and Christocentric study of liturgy which decentralises the worshippers position in liturgy and focusses instead on Christ the One who is worshipped In Trinitarian Doxology Kevin J Navarro examines the Torrances theology explicating and illuminating their work whilst simultaneously providing critical analysis which provides a lens for deeper understanding Evangelical Versus Liturgical? Melanie Ross,2014-07-02 In this book Melanie Ross presents a current description of evangelical worship bringing together liturgical scholarship and theological scholarship on American evangelicalism She draws on historical analysis systematic theology and the worship life of two vibrant congregations to argue that the common ground shared by evangelical and liturgical churches is much more important than the differences that divide them From publisher s description Baptists and the Emerging Church Movement David Mark Rathel,2014-07-24 In Baptists and the Emerging Church Movement David Rathel examines the major ecclesiological proposals of the emerging church movement Though many theologians argue that the emerging church movement emphasizes epistemology Rathel contends that its primary concern is ecclesiology Emerging church leaders offer a number of important ecclesiological proposals including restructuring traditional church leadership models to accommodate the rise of postmodernity changing the mission of the church so that the church may strike a more missional tone in contemporary culture removing the categories of in or out within the church body and adopting the multi site church model In assessing these proposals Rathel draws upon historic Baptist convictions about the nature of the church using Baptists ecclesiological distinctives and long history of ecclesiological thought as a helpful reference point This book will not only serve as a guide for those who wish to learn of emerging church ecclesiology it will also be an aid to Baptists who wish to evaluate recent trends in ecclesiology in light of their denominational distinctives

Understanding Affections in the Theology of Jonathan Edwards Ryan J. Martin, 2018-11-15 This volume argues that the notion of affections discussed by Jonathan Edwards and Christian theologians before him means something very different from what contemporary English speakers now call emotions and that Edwards's notions of affections came almost entirely from traditional Christian theology in general and the Reformed tradition in particular Ryan J Martin demonstrates that Christian theologians for centuries emphasized affection for God associated affections with the will and distinguished affections from passions generally explaining affections and passions to be inclinations and aversions of the soul This was Edwards's own view and he held it throughout his entire ministry Martin further argues that Edwards's view came not as a result of his reading of John Locke or the pressures of the Great Awakening as many Edwardsean scholars argue but from his own biblical interpretation and theological education By analysing patristic medieval and post medieval thought and the journey of Edwards's psychology Martin shows how on their own terms pre modern Christians historically defined and described human psychology

The King's Notes David Alexander Thomas, 2021-12-07 David Alexander Thomas was purposefully named by his parents after his paternal grandfather's middle name and after a man who was after God's own heart as well as Israel's greatest king His paternal grandmother marked him as and held him to the standard of a king from the age of five Thomas's family was careful to follow the lead of his grandmother and was intentional to instill the truth that a king's value is not found in possessions but in his influence to lead others to life With this as his foundation Thomas uses the notes from his life's experience thus far to inspire and encourage the reader to lead a life of excellence in education and in music With exuberance he shares the notes of it all in his inaugural book The King's Notes

Four Views on the Historical Adam Denis Lamoureux, John H. Walton, C. John Collins, William D. Barrick, Gregory A. Boyd, Philip G. Ryken, 2013-12-10 Were the biblical Adam and Eve historical figures or are the early events described in Genesis primarily symbolic in nature Behind the debate of a historical Adam is the age old debate about evolution and the agreement between Scripture and science With an introduction that outlines the history and main points of every viewpoint from Darwinism to Young Earth Creationism this book then clearly outlines four primary views on Adam held by evangelical Christians Contributors include Denis O Lamoureux John H Walton C John Collins and William Barrick Each focuses his essay on answering the following questions What is the biblical case for your viewpoint and how do you reconcile it both with modern science and with passages and potential interpretations that seem to counter it

In what ways is your view more theologically consistent and coherent than other views What are the implications of your view for the spiritual life and public witness of the church and individual believers and how is your view a healthier alternative for both This book allows each contributor to not only present the case for his view but also to critique and respond to the critiques of the other contributors allowing you to compare their beliefs in an open forum setting to see where they overlap and where they differ Concluding reflections by pastor scholars Gregory A Boyd and Philip Graham Ryken highlight the significance of the topic in the faith of everyday believers The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion

Preaching to Convert John Fletcher, 2013-11-13 Preaching to Convert offers an intriguing new perspective on the outreach strategies of U S evangelicals Author John Fletcher frames these activities from door to door proselytizing to the spirited sermons of superstar televangelists as examples of activist performance broadly defined here as acts performed before an audience in the hopes of changing hearts and minds Most writing about activist performance has focused on left progressive causes events and actors and if evangelicals have appeared at all they often appear as one dimensional forces of ignorance or bigotry against which brave left leaning activists must fight Preaching to Convert argues against such a constricted view of activism and for a more nuanced understanding of U S evangelicalism as a movement defined by its desire to win converts and spread the gospel In other words evangelicals are activist performers par excellence The book positions evangelicals as a diverse complicated group confronting the loss of conservative Christianity's default status in twenty first century U S culture In the face of an increasingly secular age evangelicals have been reassessing models of outreach In acts like handing out Bible tracts to strangers on the street or going door to door with a Bible in hand in elaborately staged horror themed morality plays or multi million dollar creationist discovery centers in megachurch services beamed to dozens of satellite campuses and in controversial ex gay ministries striving to return gays and lesbians to the straight and narrow evangelicals are redefining what it means to be deeply committed in a pluralist world The book's engaging style and careful argumentation make it accessible and appealing to scholars and students across a range of fields
