Exploring Literature In The Classroom Content And Methods:

Exploring Literature in the Classroom Karen D. Wood, Anita Moss, 1992-01-01 Marking the "Invisible" Andrea M. Hawkman, Sarah B. Shear, 2020-04-01 Substantial research has been put forth calling for the field of social studies education to engage in work dealing with the influence of race and racism within education and society Branch 2003 Chandler 2015 Chandler Husband 2010 King Ladson Billings 2003 Ooka Pang Rivera Ladson Billings 2003 Woyshner Bohan 2012 In order to challenge the presence of racism within social studies research must attend to the control that whiteness and white supremacy maintain within the field This edited volume builds from these previous works to take on whiteness and white supremacy directly in social studies education In Marking the Invisible editors assemble original contributions from scholars working to expose whiteness and disrupt white supremacy in the field of social studies education We argue for an articulation of whiteness within the field of social studies education in pursuit of directly challenging its influences on teaching learning and research Across 27 chapters authors call out the strategies deployed by white supremacy and acknowledge the depths by which it is used to control manipulate confine and define identities communities citizenships and historical narratives This edited volume promotes the reshaping of social studies education to support the histories experiences and lives of Students and Teachers of Color challenge settler colonialism and color evasiveness develop racial literacy and promote justice oriented teaching and learning Praise for Marking the Invisible As the theorization of race and racism continues to gain traction in social studies education this volume offers a much needed foundational grounding for the field From the foreword to the epilogue Marking the Invisible foregrounds conversations of whiteness in notions of supremacy dominance and rage The chapters offer an opportunity for social studies educators to position critical theories of race such as critical race theory intersectionality and settler colonialism at the forefront of critical examinations of whiteness Any social studies educator researcher concerned with the theorization or teaching of race should engage with this text in their work Christopher L Busey University of Florida Reading Researchers in Search of Common Ground Rona F. Flippo, 2012-03-22 In Reading Researchers in Search of Common Ground Second Edition Rona F Flippo revisits her groundbreaking Expert Study in which she set out to find common ground among experts in the much fragmented field of reading research The original edition featuring contributions from participants in the Expert Study commentary from additional distinguished literacy scholars with specialized experiences and vantage points from which to view it and recommendations for use of its findings was published in 2001 and has become a classic in the field The Expert Study s findings and discussions related to it remain provocative viable and highly relevant Taking a fresh look at it and its current implications for literacy education and common ground in light of the newest thinking and research of today the Second Edition includes four new chapters from leaders in the field who discuss the Study from their unique vantage points literacy trends emergent writing development a comprehensive literacy curriculum and a comparative analysis of the study s findings and recommendations It is a must read resource for the entire literacy community researchers teacher educators graduate students administrators practitioners and policymakers Where to Look Lee Galda, 1996 Creating and Negotiating Collaborative Spaces for Socially? Just Anti? Bullying Interventions for K?12 Schools Azadeh F. Osanloo, Cindy Reed, Jonathan P. Schwartz, 2016-11-01 Across the United States schools face the daunting issue of confronting the widespread effects of bullying which threaten the physical emotional and intellectual well being and development of youth Creating and Negotiating Collaborative Spaces for Socially Just Anti Bullying Interventions for K 12 Schools is a theoretically and empirically grounded edited volume that describes practical ways to address bullying at both systemic and individual levels Central to the scope of the book is a diversity focused approach to assessing and conceptualizing discrimination and bullying among marginalized youth such as LGBTQ mixed race gifted and talented and special needs populations Interspersed with concrete real life examples each chapter in the volume expands on the multiple dimensions of bullying as well as research backed anti bullying interventions. The book advances previous literature by addressing contemporary issues in bullying Special topics include teacher to student bullying cyberbullying restorative justice practices and assessment of attitudes Teaching Native America Across the Curriculum Curry Malott, Lisa Waukau, Lauren toward addressing bullying Waukau-Villagomez, 2009 This book examines the multiple ways that concepts associated with Native North American indigeneity can contribute to creative and critical approaches to the process of teaching and learning A must read for all pre service and in service teachers the book illustrates how applying these new perspectives to the process of teacher education can shed light on new possibilities for curricular reform This text will be especially useful to social studies educators interested in interdisciplinary approaches to critical curriculum development The Educational Technology Handbook Steven Hackbarth, 1996 Grade level 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 k p e i s t Using Literature in the Middle Grades Joy F.
