Exploring Matthews Gospel:

Exploring the Gospel of Matthew John Phillips, 2005 John Phillips writes with enthusiasm and clarity cutting through the confusion and heretical dangers associated with Bible interpretation Moody magazine The Images of Jesus Daniel O'Connor, Jacques Jimenez, 1977-01-01 Gospel of Fulfilment Patrick Whitworth, 2019-07-15 A short handy guide to the Gospel of Matthew for all who want to explore the first book of the New Testament in group study or on their own

Matthew: An Introduction and Study Guide Elaine M. Wainwright, 2017-01-12 Recent decades have seen significant shifts in biblical scholarship opening up a range of ways of engaging the biblical narrative both methodologically the tools and techniques for engaging the text and hermeneutically the perspectives that inform an interpreter's approach to the text and to the interpretative task It is these shifts that give shape to this introduction and study guide so that students encounter not only the text of Matthew itself but also its rich lode of recent interpretation Among aspects of 1st century life brought to the fore by current social scientific methodology are kinship the honor and shame culture and masculinity Gender is another interpretative lens that has characterized the study of the Gospel of Matthew in recent decades and the Guide provides pathways through this rich literature The guide to Matthew concludes with the most recent turn of the hermeneutical lens namely an ecological perspective on what is perhaps the best known text in Matthew the Beatitudes This final chapter is an example of how we can enter an old and familiar text like the Gospel of Matthew from yet another new critical direction

Exploring Intertextuality B. J. Oropeza, Steve Moyise, 2016-09-20 This book aims to provide advanced students of biblical studies seminarians and academicians with a variety of intertextual strategies to New Testament interpretation Each chapter is written by a New Testament scholar who provides an established or avant garde strategy in which 1 The authors in their respective chapters start with an explanation of the particular intertextual approach they use Important terms and concepts relevant to the approach are defined and scholarly proponents or precursors are discussed 2 The authors use their respective intertextual strategy on a sample text or texts from the New Testament whether from the Gospels Acts Pauline epistles Disputed Pauline epistles General epistles or Revelation 3 The authors show how their approach enlightens or otherwise brings the text into sharper relief 4 They end with recommended readings for further study on the respective intertextual approach This book is unique in providing a variety of strategies related to biblical interpretation through the lens of intertextuality Discovering Matthew Ian Boxall, 2015 Acting Out Matthew's Message Roger E. Timm, 2013-11 Looking for material for a midweek Lenten series that is engaging for congregation members but easy for worship leaders to produce Here is a collection of Lenten dialogue sermons on the gospel of Matthew that is conversational in tone engaging and accessible for people in the pew easy to stage theologically thoughtful biblically insightful focused on themes and messages found in the gospel of Matthew and tested in the parish Roger Timm invites his readers into the Lenten season of study and reflection with this poignant collection of dialogues Acting Out Matthew's Message presents a relevant discussion on the themes found throughout the first gospel narrative inviting the reader to reflect upon the truths hidden within Matthew's parables while recognizing the careful balance between Old Testament law and the new message of Jesus. Timm's simple approach throughout his fifteen dialogues has been designed to awaken the minds and hearts of an audience presenting simple scenarios with theological significance and offering a fresh perspective on the message of the cross. The Rev. Dr. Roger E. Timm retired November 30, 2011 after serving eleven years as pastor of Ascension Lutheran Church ELCA in Riverside, Illinois. From January 1993 to November 2000 he was pastor of St. James Lutheran Church, Naperville, Illinois. Timm served as College Pastor and Associate Professor of Religion at Carthage College, Kenosha, Wisconsin from 1989 to 1992 and as Assistant Chaplain and Assistant Professor of Religion at Muhlenberg College, Allentown, Pennsylvania from 1980 to 1988. He was pastor of University Lutheran Chapel, Los Angeles, offering Lutheran campus ministry for UCLA from 1975 to 1980 and assistant professor of philosophy at Concordia College, Bronxville, New York in 1973 and 1974. Timm's first pastorate was as pastor of St. John's Concordia Lutheran Church in the South Bronx, New York from 1970 to 1973. He received his M.Div. degree from Concordia Seminary and an M.A. in philosophy from Washington University, both in St. Louis, Missouri in 1970. Timm received a Ph.D. in religious studies from Union Theological Seminary and Columbia University, New York in 1975. Married in 1967, Pastor Timm and his wife Marilyn have two adult daughters and two grandchildren.

Redescribing the Gospel of Mark Barry S. Crawford, Merrill P. Miller, 2017-06-16. A collaborative project with a variety of critical essays. This final volume of studies by members of the Society of Biblical Literature's consultation and later seminar on Ancient Myths and Modern Theories of Christian Origins focuses on Mark. As with previous volumes, the provocative proposals on Christian origins offered by Burton L. Mack are tested by applying Jonathan Z. Smith's distinctive social theorizing and comparative method. Essays examine Mark as an author's writing in a book culture, a writing that responded to situations arising out of the first Roman Judean war after the destruction of the Jerusalem temple in 70 CE. Contributors: William E. Arnal, Barry S. Crawford, Burton L. Mack, Christopher R. Matthews, Merrill P. Miller, Jonathan Z. Smith, and Robyn Faith Walsh explore the southern Levant as a plausible provenance of the Gospel of Mark and provide a detailed analysis of the construction of Mark as a narrative composed without access to prior narrative sources about Jesus. A concluding retrospective follows the work of the seminar, its developing discourse and debates, and the continuing work of successor groups in the field. Features a thorough examination of the relation between structure and event in social and anthropological theory that provides conceptual tools for representing the project of the author of Mark.

An exploration of the southern Levant as a plausible provenance of the Gospel a permanent site of successive imperial regimes and culturally related peoples A detailed analysis of the construction of Mark as a narrative composed without access to prior narrative sources about Jesus Theo-Politics? Kenpa Chin,2021-10-25 Using the theological work of Karl Barth as a resource for present day inquiry the contributors discuss the complex interconnections between the religious and the political and address the contemporary challenges these interconnections pose for Western and Asian societies On Prophets, Warriors, and Kings George J. Brooke,Ariel Feldman,2016-05-10 While recent decades have seen a plethora of studies exploring the complex processes that shaped biblical books traditionally designated as Prophets much remains to be done in order to uncover the rich history of their interpretation throughout the ages This collection of essays aims at filling this gap by exploring different aspects of the exegesis of the Former and Latter Prophets in contexts both ancient and modern Jewish and Christian From the inner biblical interpretation of the Prophets to the Dead Sea Scrolls Apocrypha and Pseudepigrapha the New Testament Patristic writings and contemporary rhetoric this volume sheds light on how key figures in those books were read and understood by both ancient and not so ancient readers A German Exploration of Indian Society Bartholomaeus Ziegenbalg,Daniel Jeyaraj,2006 Matthew's Parable of the Royal Wedding Feast Ruth Christa Mathieson,2023-06-02 Ruth Christa Mathieson s unique reading of Matthew s parable of the royal wedding feast Matt 22 1 14 which concludes with the king s demand that one of the guests be bound and cast out into the outer darkness focuses on the means of the underdressed guest s expulsion Using sociorhetorical interpretation Mathieson draws the parable into conversation with early Jewish narratives of the angel Raphael binding hands and feet 1 Enoch Tobit and the protocol for expelling individuals from the community in Matt 18 She asserts that readers are invited to consider if the person who is bound and cast out is a danger to the little ones of the community of faith unless removed and restrained The Way Opened Up by Jesus José A. Pagola,2012 Jesus never intended to found a Church made up of adherents to a religion but to call together followers of the Way that he was opening up Christian communities can only live up to that vision by keeping the real life person of Jesus and his message the reign of God at the center of their life The four gospels written in different historical and cultural contexts give us different perspectives on that person and that message This Biblical commentary explores Matthews perspective using the Matthean passages Each passage is examined both in the context that shaped Matthews telling of the story and in the context of todays Christian communities Matthews perspective shows Jesus transforming the expectations of the People of Israel He is the fulfillment of God s ancient promises to them he is God s new presence with them after the destruction of the Temple he is the Prophet of a new Law proclaimed from a new Mount Sinai and he is the Messiah who calls together the new Israel which Matthew calls the Church He is also the Teacher of Life whose surprising and disconcerting sermons and parables offer the new spiritual energy that todays churches need in order to be transformed from adherents into followers Petitioners, Penitents, and Poets Timothy J. Sandoval,Ariel

Feldman,2020-10-26 This volume contributes to the growing interest in understanding the phenomenon of prayer and praying in the Hebrew Bible Early Judaism and nascent Christianity Papers by the leading scholars in these fields revisit long standing questions and chart new paths of inquiry into the nature form and practice of addressing the divine in the ancient world The essays in this volume deal with particular texts of and about prayer practices of prayer as well as figures and locations historical and literary that are associated with prayer and praying These studies apply a range of methods and theoretical approaches to prayer and the language of prayer in literatures of Early Judaism and Christianity Some studies apply the classical methods of biblical studies to Second Temple texts of prayer including form critical and text critical approaches others engage in literary and narrative analysis of ancient works that recount discourse directed to the divine Still other studies draw on anthropological and sociological analyses of prayer or marshal particular theories of discourse ethics and moral agency to offer fresh interpretations of address to God in the literature of Second Temple Judaism and earliest Christianity Classic Country Charles K. The Death of Jesus in Matthew Catherine Sider Hamilton,2017-06-16 This book explores innocent blood and its traditions as keys to the death of Jesus in Matthew against background of exile and return Gospel Interpretation and the Q-Hypothesis Mogens Müller,Heike Omerzu,2018-04-05 The Q Hypothesis has functioned as a mainstay of study of the synoptic gospels for many years Increasingly it comes under fire In this volume leading proponents of Q as well as of the case against Q offer the latest arguments based on the latest research into this literary conundrum The contributors to the volume include John Kloppenborg Christopher Tuckett Clare Rothschild Mark Goodacre and Francis Watson The Q Hypothesis is examined in depth and the discussion moves back and forth over Q s strengths and weaknesses As such the volume sheds light on how the gospels were composed and how we can view them in their final literary forms Risen Indeed? Resurrection and Doubt in the Gospel of Mark Austin Busch,2022-08-05 Risen Indeed Resurrection and Doubt in the Gospel of Mark traces the literary dynamics and explores the theological dimensions of the Gospel of Mark s thematization of skepticism regarding resurrection In every place where it seems to depict resurrection Jesus s and others Mark evades the issue of whether resurrection actually occurs Austin Busch argues that despite Mark s abbreviated and ambiguous conclusion this gospel does not downplay resurrection but rather foregrounds it imagining Jesus s death and restoration to life as a divine plot to overcome Satan through cunning deception Risen Indeed constitutes a careful literary reading of Mark s Gospel as well as an assessment of Mark s impact on the traditions of Christian literature and theology that emerged in its wake
