Explosive Remnants Of War Mitigating The Environmental Effects:

Explosive Remnants of War Stockholm International Peace Research Institute, 1985 The Environmental

Consequences of War Jay E. Austin, Carl E. Bruch, 2000-10-26 The environmental devastation caused by military conflict has been witnessed in the wake of the Vietnam War the Gulf War and the Kosovo conflict This book brings together leading international lawyers military officers scientists and economists to examine the legal political economic and scientific implications of wartime damage to the natural environment and public health The book considers issues raised by the application of humanitarian norms and legal rules designed to protect the environment and the destructive nature of war Contributors offer an analysis and critique of the existing law of war framework lessons from peacetime environmental law means of scientific assessment and economic valuation of ecological and public health damage and proposals for future legal and institutional developments This book provides a contemporary forum for interdisciplinary analysis of armed conflict and the environment and explores ways to prevent and redress wartime environmental damage The Law of Armed Conflict and the Use of Force Frauke Lachenmann, Rüdiger Wolfrum, 2017 This volume collects articles on the law of armed conflict and the use of force from the Max Planck Encyclopedia of Public International Law to facilitate easy access to content from the leading reference work in international law Humanitarian Disarmament Treasa Dunworth, 2020-08-06 The humanitarian framing of disarmament is not a novel development but rather represents a re emergence of a much older and long standing sensibility of humanitarianism in disarmament The Book rejects the big bang theory that presents the Anti Personnel Landmines Convention 1997 and its successors the Convention on Cluster Munitions 2008 and the Treaty on the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons 2017 as a paradigm shift from an older traditional state centric approach towards a more progressive humanitarian approach It shows how humanitarian disarmament has a long and complex history which includes these treaties This book argues that the attempt to locate the birth of humanitarian disarmament in these treaties is part of the attempt to cleanse humanitarian disarmament of politics presenting humanitarianism as a morally superior discourse in disarmament However humanitarianism carries its own blind spots and has its own hegemonic leanings It may be silencing other potentially more transformative discourses Responding to Environmental Conflicts: Implications for Theory and Practice Eileen Petzold-Bradley, Alexander Carius, Árpád Vincze, 2012-12-06 A comprehensive tour d horizon of the debate on the environment and security focusing on the various policy options for building peace and preventing environmental conflict Experts from the areas survey the key environmental challenges in Eastern and Central European states and those of the former Soviet Union extending the debate to such regions as the Balkans the Black Sea and Central Europe This is the first time such extensive case study research has been reported for these regions Both practical and theoretical approaches to the debate are presented within a multi disciplinary framework the contributors ranging from academic experts involved with peace and conflict research to actual policy makers active in the fields of environmental and security policy Readership Experts already working in the relevant disciplines both academic and governmental as well as those seeking an introduction to the various policy fields A graduate level study text excellent survey for policy makers and an academic contribution to ongoing studies

At Risk Piers Blaikie, Terry Cannon, Ian Davis, Ben Wisner, 2014-01-21 The term natural disaster is often used to refer to natural events such as earthquakes hurricanes or floods However the phrase natural disaster suggests an uncritical acceptance of a deeply engrained ideological and cultural myth At Risk questions this myth and argues that extreme natural events are not disasters until a vulnerable group of people is exposed The updated new edition confronts a further ten years of ever more expensive and deadly disasters and discusses disaster not as an aberration but as a signal failure of mainstream development Two analytical models are provided as tools for understanding vulnerability One links remote and distant root causes to unsafe conditions in a progression of vulnerability The other uses the concepts of access and livelihood to understand why some households are more vulnerable than others Examining key natural events and incorporating strategies to create a safer world this revised edition is an important resource for those involved in the fields of environment and development studies

War and Public Health Barry S. Levy, Victor W. Sidel, 1997 This is the first full description of the public health consequences of war and of what health professionals can do to minimize these consequences and to help prevent war itself The book covers the impact of war on public health human rights and the environment the effects of specific weapons systems during war and the preparation for war the effects of war and military activities on women children refugees and other populations the public health impacts of specific wars and the role of health professionals and organizations during war and in preventing war The book is well illustrated with numerous figures and photographs and is extensively referenced

The Companion to International Humanitarian Law Dražan Djukić, Niccolò Pons, 2018-09-24 This important and unique volume begins with seven essays that discuss the contemporary challenges to implementing international humanitarian law Its second and largest section comprises 263 entries covering the vast majority of IHL concepts Written by a wide range of experts each entry explains the essential legal parameters of a particular element of IHL while offering practical examples and where relevant historical considerations and supplying a short bibliography for further research The starting point for the selection were notions arising from the Geneva Conventions the Additional Protocols and other IHL treaties However the reader will also encounter entries going beyond the typical scope of IHL such as those related to the protection of the natural environment and animals and entries that in addition to an IHL perspective discuss relevant issues through the lens of human rights law refugee law international criminal law the law on State responsibility national law and so on The editors have also attempted to take into account certain concepts that have no direct foundation in IHL but that are commonly used in mass media and politics or generate wide interest in contemporary society such as drones economic warfare cyber warfare sniping targeted killings transitional justice terrorism and many other topics The Companion to International Humanitarian Law offers a much needed tool for both scholars and practitioners supplying information accessible enough to enable a variety of users to quickly familiarise themselves with it and sufficiently comprehensive to be a source for reflection and further research for more demanding users Its aim is to facilitate the practical application of IHL and be of use to a wide audience interested in or confronted with IHL ranging from professionals in humanitarian assistance and protection in the field legal officers and advisers at the national and international level trainers academics scholars and students

The Marketing of War in the Age of Neo-Militarism Kostas Gouliamos, Christos Kassimeris, 2013-05-13 The post 9 11 era and the overall impact of international terrorism have generated much debate regarding the role of military apparatus in modern society This book assesses the inherent meaning of the militarization from a critical interdisciplinary perspective Against the background of democracy and capitalism The Marketing of War in the Age of Neo Militarism challenges prevailing accounts of the military industrial complex as it explores significant interrelated themes denoting the accelerating process of militarization of society Designed to address pressing socio political phenomena this book is the first of its genre contesting conventional wisdom about the perceived link between war and the military industrial complex It is unique not merely because of its approach but also for its thorough analysis of deeply affected social institutions and processes such as education popular culture geopolitics military expenditure space and the environment Contributing authors advance the discussion by exposing factual information demonstrating the nature and scope of society s militarization Their analysis is also broadened to encompass key concepts and diverse aspects of the subject matter that provoke a lively debate The book offers compelling arguments that will be indispensable to scholars students professionals and policy and decision makers with an interest in social and political sciences as well as in other related fields

Landmine Monitor Report ,2004 War and Nature Edmund Russell,2001-02-12 This 2001 book shows the intersection of chemical warfare and pest control in the twentieth century Regions of Risk Kenneth Hewitt,2014-09-19 An introduction to hazards human vulnerability and disaster paying particular attention to the more severe or novel risks and disaster that affect the general public The book is split into two parts the first of which gives an overview of the field of risk and disaster in terms of three perspectives hazards perspective vulnerability perspective and the active perspective The second part illustrates and develops these ideas in relation to some of the more severe dangers and disasters of the twentieth century for example earthquake risk cities at risk and the civil disasters of war

After the Guns Fall Silent Shawn Roberts,Jody Williams,1995-01-01 Years after peace treaties have been signed and military conflict is nominally over anti personnel mines continue to claim innocent lives This text offers data showing that landmines victimize civilians in direct contravention of the Geneva convention and examines the impact landmines have on people on their communities and on their outlook and view of life The report commissioned by the VVAF examines the consequences of landmine use on post conflict reconstruction and development on refugee movement and resettlement and on the environment It also investigates mine clearance and mine awareness and medical rehabilitative and psychological costs Using original research the report uses case studies from countries including Angola Mozambique Cambodia and the former Yugoslavia Scholarly and accurate analysis combines with people s own words and real personal stories to present a detailed evaluation of the effect of this most potent of weapons This work is published by the Vietnam Veterans of America Foundation and distributed in the UK and Ireland by Oxfam

Ecology of War & Peace Tom H. Hastings,2000 How do mobilization for war and the actual war effort affect the environment How do ecological conditions encourage war What are possible non violent solutions to the ecological conflict dynamic Ecology of War Peace attempts to answer these questions in readable prose with an unapologetic bias toward non violence Landmine Monitor Report 2001 Human Rights Watch (Organization),2001 Warfare Ecology Gary E. Machlis,Thor Hanson,Zdravko Špirić,Jean E. McKendry,2011-05-29 The purpose of this book is specific and ambitious to outline the distinctive elements scope and usefulness of a new and emerging field of applied ecology named warfare ecology Based on a NATO Advanced Research Workshop held on the island of Vieques

Puerto Rico the book provides both a theoretical overview of this new field and case studies that range from mercury contamination during World War I in Slovenia to the ecosystem impacts of the Palestinian occupation and from the bombing of coral reefs of Vieques to biodiversity loss due to violent conflicts in Africa Warfare Ecology also includes reprints of several classical papers that set the stage for the new synthesis described by the authors Written for environmental scientists military and humanitarian relief professionals conservation managers and graduate students in a wide range of fields Warfare Ecology is a major step forward in understanding the relationship between war and ecological systems

Weapons and the Law of Armed Conflict William H. Boothby, 2016 Fully updated to include recent developments in the law of armed conflict this volume interprets the rules governing the use of weapons discusses the factors influencing developments in the law and contextualizes the debate over the direction of weapons law Contested Grounds Daniel H. Deudney, Richard A. Matthew, 1999-04-23 Since the end of the Cold War the relationship between international security and the environment has been subject to intensive policy concern scholarly debate and research Contested Grounds brings together many of the best known researchers on this emerging topic as they present sharply conflicting views on the relationship between the environment and security and conflict The book puts the contemporary debate in historical and theoretical perspective by demonstrating the important but overlooked role that environmental factors have placed in historical developments and in earlier geopolitical theories The contributors present diverse and often conflicting answers to three questions What are the relationships between environmental change degradation and protection and traditional natural security concepts and organizations How useful are security concepts and organizations in mobilizing political responses to environmental problems What role do environmental factors play in stimulating international conflict and cooperation In depth case studies on transboundary resource issues are explored as well as the implications of Chinese environmental decay for political conflict and the use of military satellites for environmental monitoring Contributors include Ken Butts Simon Dalby Daniel Deudney Ronald J Deibert Michel Frederick Jack Goldstone Thomas Homer Dixon Miriam Lowi Richard Matthew and Eric Stern
