Experiments In Family Planning Lessons From The Developing World:

Experiments in Family Planning Roberto Cuca, Catherine S. Pierce, 1977 The Private Sector and Family Planning in Developing Countries, Development Projects as Policy Experiments Dennis A. Rondinelli, 2013-05-13 International assistance programmes for developing countries are in urgent need of revision Continuous testing and verification is required if development activity is to cope effectively with the uncertainty and complexity of the development process This examines the alternatives and offers an approach which focuses on strategic planning administrative procedures that facilitate innovation responsiveness and experimentation and on decision making processes that join learning with action A useful text for academics and practitioners in development studies geography and sociology

Community Development And Family Planning J. Mayone Stycos, 2019-03-22 Program evaluation is not among the most popular of exercises since it carries risks for all associated with it Because every important program has friends and enemies anxious for its prosperity or demise the investigators and their findings will normally be attacked from at least one side and not infrequently from both But this is an occupational hazard dutifully accepted by its practitioners for some it even adds a zestful touch of danger However the program's sponsors and its participants require an unusual degree of courage since negative or indifferent results are not infrequently used to impugn their wisdom or dedication We applaud the courage of all those who in the interest of improving policies and programs to further their clients well being assumed the risks of introducing scientific program evaluation Primary credit goes to the sponsor of the current research the United Nations Fund for Population Activities UNFPA in particular the Mediterranean and Middle East Branch and its chief Roushdi El Henedi Special thanks go to Dr Habib Siddiqui for his stimulus in launching the study His efforts were followed by those of M A Abu Nuwar whose bureaucratic and diplomatic skills were much appreciated and Sylvia Rhodes who was of assistance near the close of the project UNFPA staff in Egypt in particular Hamed Fahmy were most helpful in the field Needless to say neither these individuals nor the UNFPA necessarily agree with the conclusions reached in this book

The Origins and Evolution of Family Planning Programs in Developing Countries Judith R. Seltzer, 2002-04-22 This book analyzes the origins and rationale of family planning programs and how they have evolved based on experience in different country settings

Managing Development Kathleen Staudt, 1991-04 Roger Ebert is the gold standard for movie critics And his Movie Yearbook has been the go to source for movie lovers for more than 25 years Roger Ebert's criticism shows a nearly unequaled grasp of film history and technique and formidable intellectual range New York Times Pulitzer Prize winning film critic Roger Ebert presents more than 600 full length critical movie reviews along with interviews tributes and journal entries inside Roger Ebert's Movie Yearbook 2013 It includes every movie review Ebert has written from January 2010 to July 2012 Also included in the Yearbook In depth interviews with newsmakers and celebrities Tributes to those in the film industry who have passed away recently Essays on the Oscars reports from the Toronto Film Festival and entries into Ebert's Little Movie Glossary

A Guide to Research Utilization George Peter Cernada, 2019-03-19 Aims to describe why and how applied research carried out in a national public health program sometimes influenced program action in the field and sometimes did not This title presents and analyses a number of modified case studies to draw some practical lessons and to provide a theoretical basis for future program action

Fertility in Developing Countries Ghazi M. Farooq, George B. Simmons, 2016-02-02

The Journal of Developing Areas, 1984

Prospective Community Studies in Developing Countries Monica Das Gupta, 1997 This book presents an overview of the leading prospective studies in developing countries in population and health research Prospective community studies are concerned with the understanding of the incidence of birth disease and death The leading practitioners in this field present the methodologies they have developed and summarize the major findings of their studies Since many of these methodologies have never been documented and the results are scattered in different publications the volume provides a great deal of valuable information which is difficult to locate Thus it will be an indispensable guide to researchers in the field of prospective studies and will also be helpful as a teaching aid It is a unique compendium of reflective accounts of prospective research which has been so fundamental to many major innovations regarding the way demographic behaviour is observed monitored and analysed It also provides a comprehensive account of the substantive contribution of prospective studies which include some innovative and seminal findings on community health The debate on the most efficient kinds of surveys is still ongoing and some of the surveys are still in progress too The book will be of great interest for demographers public health researchers family planners and survey specialists

A Summary of Experiments in Family Planning Roberto Cuca, Catherine S. Pierce, 1978

Improving Traditional Rural Technologies Jeffrey James, 2016-01-13 This book contends that large numbers in the Third World will become reliant on traditional rural technologies over the next thirty to forty years The author is concerned that policy responses to this problem are insufficient and advocates a broader analytic framework to tackle the problem

It also explores thematic global examples from the anti-smoking campaign, Green Revolution, Child Survival Revolution, and urban agriculture. This second edition is fully revised and updated with five completely new chapters. Thirteen years of scholarship and global evidence. New contributions from leading international experts in community based development and public health.

A Select Bibliography On Economic Development John P. Powelson, 2019-05-20 This bibliography of more than 2 000 titles contains both books and journal articles primarily those published since 1970. Most of the entries are annotated. The material is classified according to forty-eight categories and there is also a list of relevant titles for each major country in Africa, Asia, and Latin America.

Marketing in Developing Countries (RLE Marketing) G. Kindra, 2014-09-25 The articles in this collection discuss the role of marketing in development and include case studies from various developing countries. They consider state enterprises, marketing education, birth control, and comparative marketing models.

Lifelong Education for Adults C.J. Titmus, 2014-06-28 Lifelong Education for Adults: An International Handbook is the first work intended to offer international encyclopedic coverage of research and studies in the whole field of adult education. With 127 articles written by international specialists, this work will be an invaluable reference source for all those who are engaged in educational activities for adults, either as full-time planners, administrators of educational programmes, or part-time adult educators. There are, for example, articles on education for work and for living, on population education, peace and environmental education, and on learning for personal development and role fulfilment. Conceptual frameworks, practical issues relating to instructional methods, counselling, curriculum and evaluation, and developments in distance learning, group learning, and adult learning are some of the topics discussed. Systems of adult education worldwide, as well as adult education processes and practices, are covered region by region. The problems and initiatives of the developing countries are given attention alongside those of advanced countries. The collection of articles assembled in this Handbook is unique in the range and depth of treatment given to the field of adult education. This volume will thus be of great interest to all engaged in educational activities for adults in adult schools, community centres, institutions of higher education, as well as educationalists, planners, and decision makers throughout the world who are involved in adult education at all levels.
